(3) "Utility", any electrical corporation, as defined under section 386.020, but this term shall not include any electrical corporation as described under subsection 2 of section 393.110.

3. Upon the fulfillment of subsection 4 of this section, the commission shall prescribe by rule that all utilities in this state produce electricity using small modular nuclear reactors such that two percent of each utility's total electricity retail sales are made based on electricity generated by such reactors. The commission shall have discretion with regard to the time for requiring compliance with the nuclear energy standard, but in no case shall it require full compliance less than three years from the fulfillment of the conditions for the effective date of this section. The commission may promulgate such rules or regulations as are necessary to administer the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after the effective date of this section shall be invalid and void.

4. This section shall become effective only if a production facility for small modular nuclear reactors has been built in this state and is operational. A facility shall be classified as operational if such facility has produced no fewer than three small modular nuclear reactors in accordance with all federal and state laws and regulations and such reactors are legally available for sale or use. If the commission determines that a production facility is properly operational in accordance with this section, then it shall comply with the requirements of subsection 3 of this section. The commission shall notify the revisor of statutes when a facility has been built and becomes operational.

5. Notwithstanding subsection 3 of this section to the contrary, a utility may petition the commission to satisfy the two percent generation requirement from renewable or hydroelectric sources, or with the purchase of renewable energy credits, as defined in section 393.1025. The commission may grant such a petition upon a finding of undue hardship for compliance or due to a lack of increase in demand for energy generation by the utility."; and

"620.3080. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(2) "Small modular nuclear reactor production facility" or "SMR production facility", a facility, approved under federal and state laws and regulations to be constructed, that produces nuclear reactors based on fission that each produce less than three hundred megawatts of clean electrical energy.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no benefits authorized under job creation, worker training, and infrastructure development programs for an SMR production facility shall be considered in determining compliance with applicable limitations on the aggregate amount of benefits that may be awarded annually or cumulatively under subdivision (3) of subsection 10 of section 99.845, subsection 5 of section 100.850, subsection 7 of section 620.809, and subsection 7 of section 620.2020. No SMR production facility shall be authorized for state benefits under job creation, worker training, and infrastructure development programs that exceed, in the aggregate, one hundred fifty million dollars annually under all such programs."; and

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1250, Page 1, Section A, Line 4, by inserting immediately after all of said section and line the following:

"456.006. 1. Where a trust or custodial account constitutes a health savings account, as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, a trust may be created by any of the following:

- (1) A transfer of moneys to the trustee or custodian holding such trust or custodial account;
- (2) The documentation of the creation of such trust or custodial account in the records of the trustee or custodian holding such trust or custodial account; or

(3) The execution of a trust or custodial agreement with respect to such trust or custodial account.

2. In any case, a trust or custodial account shall be deemed to have been established on the first day on which the individual who is the beneficiary of such trust or custodial account is an eligible individual, as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in that calendar year in which such trust or custodial account is created in accordance with this section.

456.4-414. 1. After notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the trustee of a trust consisting of trust property having a total value less than [~~one hundred thousand~~] two hundred fifty thousand dollars may terminate the trust if the trustee concludes that the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration.

2. The court may modify or terminate a trust or remove the trustee and appoint a different trustee if it determines that the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration.

3. Upon termination of a trust under this section, the trustee shall distribute the trust property in a manner consistent with the purposes of the trust.

4. This section does not apply to an easement for conservation or preservation.

456.4-420. 1. If a trust instrument containing a no-contest clause is or has become irrevocable, an interested person may file a petition to the court for an interlocutory determination whether a particular motion, petition, or other claim for relief by the interested person would trigger application of the no-contest clause or would otherwise trigger a forfeiture that is enforceable under applicable law and public policy.

2. The petition described in subsection 1 of this section shall be verified under oath. The petition may be filed by an interested person either as a separate judicial proceeding, or brought with other claims for relief in a single judicial proceeding, all in the manner prescribed generally for such proceedings under this chapter. If a petition is joined with other claims for relief, the court shall enter its order or judgment on the petition before proceeding any further with any other claim for relief joined therein. In ruling on such a petition, the court shall consider the text of the clause, the context to the terms of the trust instrument as a whole, and in the context of the verified factual allegations in the petition. No evidence beyond the pleadings and the trust instrument shall be taken except as required to resolve an ambiguity in the no-contest clause.

3. An order or judgment determining a petition described in subsection 1 of this section shall have the effect set forth in subsections 4 and 5 of this section, and shall be subject to appeal as with other final judgments. If the order disposes of fewer than all claims for relief in a judicial proceeding, that order is subject to interlocutory appeal in accordance with the applicable rules for taking such an appeal. If an interlocutory appeal is taken, the court may stay the pending judicial proceeding until final disposition of said appeal on such terms and conditions as the court deems reasonable and proper under the circumstances. A final ruling on the applicability of a no-contest clause shall not preclude any later filing and adjudication of other claims related to the trust.

4. An order or judgment, in whole or in part, on a petition described in subsection 1 of this section shall result in the no-contest clause being enforceable to the extent of the court's ruling, and shall govern application of the no-contest clause to the extent that the interested person then proceeds forward with the claims described therein. In the event such an interlocutory order or judgment is vacated, reversed, or otherwise modified on appeal, no interested person shall be prejudiced by any reliance, through action, inaction, or otherwise, on the order or judgment prior to final disposition of the appeal.

5. An order or judgment shall have effect only as to the specific trust terms and factual basis recited in the petition. If claims are later filed that are materially different than those upon which the order or judgment is based, then to the extent such new claims are raised, the party in whose favor the order or judgment was entered shall have no protection from enforcement of the no-contest clause otherwise afforded by the order and judgment entered under this section.

6. For purposes of this section, a "no-contest clause" shall mean a provision in a trust instrument purporting to rescind a donative transfer to, or a fiduciary appointment of, any person, or that otherwise effects a forfeiture of some or all of an interested person's beneficial interest in a trust estate as a result of some action taken by the beneficiary. This definition shall not be construed in any way as determining whether a no-contest clause is enforceable under applicable law and public policy in a particular factual situation. As used in this section, the term "no-contest clause" shall also mean an "in terrorem clause".

7. A no-contest clause is not enforceable against an interested person in, but not limited to, the following circumstances:

(1) Filing a motion, petition, or other claim for relief objecting to the jurisdiction or venue of the court over a proceeding concerning a trust, or over any person joined, or attempted to be joined, in such a proceeding;

(2) Filing a motion, petition, or other claim for relief concerning an accounting, report, or notice that has or should have been made by a trustee, provided the interested person otherwise has standing to do so under applicable law, including, but not limited to, section 456.6-603;

(3) Filing a motion, petition, or other claim for relief under chapter 475 concerning the appointment of a guardian or conservator for the settlor;

(4) Filing a motion, petition, or other claim for relief under chapter 404 concerning the settlor;

(5) Disclosure to any person of information concerning a trust instrument or that is relevant to a proceeding before the court concerning the trust instrument or property of the trust estate, unless such disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law;

(6) Filing a motion, pleading, or other claim for relief seeking approval of a nonjudicial settlement agreement concerning a trust instrument, as set forth in section 456.1-111;

(7) Filing a motion, pleading, or other claim for relief concerning a breach of trust by a trustee including, but not limited to, a claim under section 456.10-1001. For purposes of this subdivision, "breach of trust" means a trustee's violation of the terms of a trust instrument, a violation of the trustee's general fiduciary obligations, or a trustee's violation of a duty that equity imposes on a trustee;

(8) Filing a motion, pleading, or other claim for relief concerning removal of a trustee including, but not limited to, a claim for removal under section 456.7-706; and

(9) To the extent a petition under subsection 1 of this section is limited to the procedure and purpose described therein.

8. In any proceeding brought under this section, the court may award costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees to any party, as provided in section 456.10-1004."; and

VACANCIES: 001

Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain, offered a prayer in memory of former Representative Keith English.

God, lover of souls, You hold dear what You have made and spare all things, for they are Yours. Look gently on Your servant and by the blood of the cross forgive the sins and failings of this life.

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace.

Lord, as we mourn the sudden death of our friend and colleague, Keith, show us the immense power of Your goodness and strengthen our belief that he has entered into Your presence.

And the House says, "Amen!"

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

If thou shall seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek Him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.
(Deuteronomy 4:29)

Almighty God, without whom no one can live wisely and well, clearly reveal to us Your will and show us Your way in the problems of these demanding and unsettled times. As we draw near to You in prayer, so draw near us, that in all the decisions we make we may be mindful of Your presence, eager to do Your will, and ready to walk in Your way for the good of our beloved State. Enlighten our understanding, purify our desires, strengthen every moral purpose, and make us diligent among the stressful duties of this day.

Give to us the willingness to listen to the voices of our times and with that the greater willingness to listen to You as we seek what is right and good for the people and to lead them in the ways of peace. May our lips praise You, our lives bless You, and our works glorify only You.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Danny Shelton, Lilyan Shelton, Elianna Shelton, and Zoey Shelton.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Jered Taylor.

Lord, we humbly come before You and give You praise and thanks for the many blessings in our life. Thank You for giving us the opportunity to serve You and the people of the state of Missouri. We ask that You give us wisdom. Your word tells us in James 1:5-6: Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives to all generously and without criticizing, and it will be given to him. But let him ask in faith without doubting. Lord, we ask for wisdom to make decisions that are right in Your eyes. We want to be used by You. We realize there are still many important issues that we face. Lord, teach us humility and forgiveness. We pray that You mend broken relationships so that we can come together to move this state forward.

Thank You for loving us and sending Your son to be the sacrifice for our sins. Let us use that as an example of how to love one another and serve You.

In Your name we pray, and the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fifth day was approved as printed.

9. After the Chair administered the oath, and pursuant to HCS HR 74, separate opening statements were made by Representative Green, Representative McCann Beatty, and Mr. Melvin E. Gilbert, attorney for Representative Love.

10. Thereafter, Representatives Green and McCann Beatty responded to inquiries from Members of the Committee.

11. After the Chair administered the oath to Representative Love, Representative Love and his attorney responded to inquiries from Members of the Committee.

12. The Chair then inquired of Representative Love whether he consents to a decision based upon the preliminary hearing as set forth in Rule 7(C)(2) of HCS HR74. Representative Love responded in the affirmative – that he would consent to a decision based upon the preliminary hearing.

13. Representative Mitten moved to decide the case based upon preliminary hearing. That motion passed unanimously.

14. Representative Mitten moved to censure Representative Love and remove him from all committees. The motion failed on a five-to-five vote.

a) Aye: Representatives Mitten, Butler, Conway, McGee, and Merideth;

b) Nay: Representatives Austin, Chipman, Haefner, Kolkmeier, and Lynch.

15. Representative Mitten then moved to reprimand Representative Love and recommend that he be removed from all committees. The motion passed on a six-to-four vote.

a) Aye: Representatives Mitten, Butler, Conway, Haefner, McGee, and Merideth;

b) Nay: Representatives Austin, Chipman, Kolkmeier, and Lynch.

16. After a discussion among the Members, the Chair ruled that Rule 7(D) of HCS HR 74 provides a respondent with a second opportunity to accept or decline the Committee's decision based upon a preliminary hearing. The Chair stated that to rule otherwise would have rendered this portion of Rule 7(D) superfluous, as proper statutory construction requires that every word, phrase and sentence be given meaning. The Chair so inquired of Representative Love who responded that he would not accept the decision of the Committee.

17. Representative Mitten then moved to refer the matter to an investigative hearing. The motion failed on a five-to-five vote.

a) Aye: Representatives Mitten, Butler, Conway, McGee and Merideth;

b) Nay: Representatives Austin, Chipman, Haefner, Kolkmeier and Lynch.

18. The meeting was then adjourned by the Chair.

NOW THEREFORE, the Committee on Ethics concludes that, pursuant to the Rules adopted by HCS HR 74, there is no other action or recommendation that the Committee is required or permitted to take but for submitting this Report.

This preceding Report was adopted by the Committee by a vote of 9 to 1:

Aye: Austin, Mitten, Butler, Chipman, Conway, Haefner, Kolkmeier, Lynch, McGee

Nay: Merideth

Members of the Committee were afforded the opportunity to provide written comments to this Report. Although these Member comments are not a portion of the Report voted upon by the Committee, said comments are attached hereto.

Re: In the matter of Representative Warren Love
Case No.: HEC 17-001
Desc: Comment

Dear Mr. Welch:

I want to submit this comment regarding the HEC 17-001. This comment briefly addresses a ruling by me as chair on a procedural question should the question arise again.

Toward the end of the hearing, following opening statements and after all inquiries had been completed, I elaborated on the next step in the procedure, which was the possibility of imposing a punishment if the respondent consented to the same.

Rule 7.C. states that "[a] decision based upon a preliminary hearing shall require the consent of the respondent."

I inquired of Representative Love whether he would accept the judgment or resolution of this committee based solely on the preliminary hearing. He answered, yes.

Two motions were set forth and one, a motion to reprimand, was passed. Thereupon, discussion was had by the committee from their seats as well as a meeting behind the seats with members of the committee, including both the chair and vice-chair as well as other members from both the majority and minority as well as staff from both the minority and majority parties. The Rules were reviewed and discussion was had.

I, as chair, announced the final vote on the motion and ruled pursuant to the rules of procedure, respondent was allowed to accept or deny this vote, to which respondent's counsel denied the same.

Allowing respondent to allow or deny this sustained motion was made by me, as chair, based on Rule 7.D. wherein in states in pertinent part, "[i]f the committee decides to make a summary decision of the case and respondent accepts this disposition the Committee may ..."

My ruling was based on two things. First, the rule required the respondent to accept the "disposition" of the case. The plain meaning of "disposition" is a final settlement or determination, [emphasis added] Black's Law Dictionary, 10th Ed. Final in this context could only mean the ruling on a motion of sanction. Thus, acceptance as contemplated in Rule 7.D. could only be referring to the committee's sustained motion to reprimand and not to some prior motion sustained.

The second basis for my ruling was that consent or acceptance by respondent for a second time after the motion to reprimand was sustained was that the consent and acceptance of respondent was required in not just one subsection but two separate subsections of the rule.

To rule that consent/acceptance was required only once would have rendered this portion of Rule 7.D. superfluous, including the portion that stated that acceptance be had of the disposition. Proper statutory construction requires that every word, phrase and sentence be given meaning. See e.g., Mantia v. Missouri Dept. of Trans., 529 S.W.3d 804 (Mo. banc 2017); State v. Johnson, 524 S.W.3d 505 (Mo. banc 2017); Caplinger v. Rahman, 529 S.W.3d 326 (Mo.App. S.D. 2017).

To rule otherwise would have ignored the fact that consent and acceptance were required in two different subsections at two different points in committee process. And, further, to rule otherwise would have also violated the above-cited rule statutory construction

Thank you for the inclusion of my comment to the Report.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kevin Austin

IN THE MATTER OF REPRESENTATIVE WARREN LOVE
HEC 17-001
SUPPLEMENTAL COMMENT TO REPORT OF THE ETHICS COMMITTEE

This comment serves a dual purpose (1) to explain my vote in opposition to the committee report and (2) supplement my democratic colleagues' Joint Statement with which I concur.

First, as noted in the Joint Committee Report, the House Ethics Committee Report HEC 17-001 should not include a statement of the Chairmen's supposed rationale that allowed Rep. Love the opportunity to rescind his consent, given under oath, to the punishment meted out by the Committee.

Second, the Chair's decision to allow Rep. Love an additional opportunity to decline punishment was mistaken, therefore, the outcome of the committee was inappropriate. Given his statement of consent under oath, this Committee should have proceeded with imposing a reprimand, the punishment approved by the Committee.

Instead, the Chair relied on an inappropriate interpretation of the Ethics Rules (H.R. 74, 2016) and the Committee did not impose any punishment on Rep. Love. Because of this, I cannot sign the report.

Additionally, the committee erred in not moving forward with an investigative hearing. In the preliminary hearing Rep. Love did not acknowledge that any mistake had been made, and even stated that he had no idea how anyone could interpret his comment as offensive or racist. Given that, the Committee should have taken the restorative approach and proceeded with an investigative hearing. An investigative hearing would have allowed members of the general public to speak in front of Rep. Love as to how the comment impacted them negatively. Rep. Love's supporters would have also had the opportunity to speak to their interpretation of the comment. This dialogue would have been positive both for the public, the Committee, and for Rep. Love.

Due to the Chair's reliance on an incorrect interpretation of the Rules, a failure to impose punishment on Rep. Love and the Committee's decision to refuse to move forward with an investigative hearing, I am voting no on this Report.

IN THE MATTER OF REPRESENTATIVE WARREN LOVE
HEC 17-001
COMMENT TO REPORT OF THE ETHICS COMMITTEE

Pursuant to the report approved by the House Committee on Ethics ("Committee") on February 7, 2018, below are the comments submitted by the Vice Chair and undersigned Members to the Committee. In addition, attached hereto, and incorporated to these comments herein by reference, is a transcript of the preliminary hearing proceedings held by the Committee on January 4, 2018 regarding Complaint HEC 17-001 (the "Complaint").

In Paragraph 16 of the Report of the Ethics Committee accompanying HEC 17-001 (the "Report"), the Chair attempts to bolster his decision allowing the Respondent to the Complaint to first consent to the Complaint's disposition at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, and then subsequently reverse such affirmation once the Committee's disposition to reprimand was rendered. In a single sentence, the Chair provided an ex post facto explanation, that "proper statutory construction requires that every word, phrase and sentence be given meaning"

First, it is important to note that although the Report purports to be a factual recitation of the events that transpired at the preliminary hearing, the Chair's explanatory language in paragraph 16 is not accurate. Neither the videotaped recordings of the hearing, nor the transcript (also provided as a comment to this Report) show the Chair making any statement as to the basis for his ruling to allow the Respondent two opportunities to "consent" to the Committee taking disciplinary action based upon the preliminary hearing. This is significant to the extent that it indicates an attempt to inject information into the final Report that was not provided at the preliminary hearing.

"[T]he starting point [in determining the meaning of a statute] is the plain language of the statute itself." Jones v. Director of Revenue, 981 S.W.2d 571, 574 (Mo. banc 1998), citing International Business Machines Corp. v. Director of Revenue, 958 S.W.2d 554, 557 (Mo. banc 1998). Additionally, where a statute's language is clear and unambiguous, there is no room for construction. Metro Auto Auction v. Director of Revenue, 707 S.W.2d 397, 401 (Mo. banc 1986). Further, when interpreting a statute, provisions in the statutes are to be considered together, not read in isolation. Alberici Constructors, Inc., Revenue, 452 S.W. 3d 632 (Mo. banc. 2015) (citing Union Elec. Co. v. Dir. Of Revenue, 425 S.W. 3d 118 (Mo. banc. 2014)).

Here, the Committee conducted a preliminary hearing, at the conclusion of which the Committee decided the case based upon that preliminary hearing. Deciding the case in this fashion requires the consent of the party before the Committee (Ethics Resolution, H.R. 74, 2017, hereinafter "HR74"). If a Respondent does not give consent – the only option for the Committee would be to dismiss the complaint, or proceed by way of investigative hearing. Here, the Respondent, under oath, consented to the disposition of the Committee, and the Committee subsequently moved to reprimand the party, by a majority vote. At which point the Chair read into Rule 7D of HR74 an additional opportunity for the party before the Committee to consent to a sanction which had already been adopted.

The canon of statutory construction, in the manner employed by the Chair, distorted the clear meaning of HR74 and rendered the plain language and clear meaning of HR74 both illogical and impractical.

Even assuming some ambiguity in the relevant portion of HR74, the canon of construction – presumption against absurd results – would have demanded an opposite result than that reached by the Chair. By allowing the Respondent to the Complaint to thwart the sanction levied by the Committee through a subsequent veto authority frustrates the purpose of the Committee’s authority.

IN THE MATTER OF REPRESENTATIVE WARREN LOVE
 HEC 17-001
 COMMENT TO REPORT OF THE ETHICS COMMITTEE
 TRANSCRIPT OF PRELIMINARY HEARING HELD JANUARY 4, 2018

Rep. Kevin Austin: Only members can ask the questions. I have no intention of setting any sort of time limits on the opening statements or on the inquiry. Now, I would also like to thank the vice chair, the ranking minority member, uh Representative Mitten for us working on these procedures a little bit. As far as my interpretation of them, my understanding is that uh the Missouri House of Representatives, we've never had a preliminary hearing. We, you, [inaudible] there was one? Well we're both incorrect on that. When was it?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Umm was it 2010?

Audience: No 2009.

Rep. Kevin Austin: 2009, okay.

[Laughter]

Rep. Kevin Austin: Well in the case of term limits, nobody here has had a preliminary hearing. Okay thanks. Would you like to give any kind of opening remarks, Representative Mitten?

Rep. Gina Mitten: No thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: All right before we go on, I've got to go backwards just a little bit. The vote in closed session has to be announced in open session, and that vote, House complaint 17-03 was dismissed by a vote of 10 to 0. With that, we now ask for opening statements. We first go to the complainants, and I'd say one at a time and I don't care who goes first. Representative feel free, or Representative Green.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Mr. Chair I'm going to have Representative Green go first.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Okay, that's fine. Representative Green. Tell me when you're ready sir and I will have you sworn in.

Rep. Alan Green: I'm ready.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you. Do you swear or affirm that the testimony you will give before this committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth so help you god?

Rep. Alan Green: I do.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you sir. Begin when you are ready.

Rep. Alan Green: Mr. Chairman, committee, I just wanted to begin with uh, as the Chair of the uh Missouri Legislative Black Caucus, I just wanted to, it's why I'm sitting here too, the reason why this was filed too. Let me just begin with too, uh stating why this was very [inaudible] to file too, because Warren Love, I've spent a lot of time with. I want to begin with that. I've spent time in his office. We talked about history. I'm a history buff too. So we're talking about these monuments, history, [inaudible], diplomacy, I've traveled this nation looking at history and I've talked with Warren in his office about various pieces that he has, pictures, and all that history. So I understand why he feels the way he feels. But we also have to look at too, we're legislators, and that holds us to a much higher standard. And I emphasize that. We are legislators, and there are certain things and actions that we do and we take, the entire state watches us. And I emphasize that. So there are certain things that we cannot do and we cannot say. And those actions pose consequences. And I point that out. I noticed recently in my office there were some people that dropped off some information on the memorials and they were talking about protecting the memorials, again I have grown up looking at memorials all over this country. I was part of the East Texas Historical Society, you know while I was in college, I mean I understand why people feel what they feel. But I also understand to why people say again why these monuments. I want to read you, it says monuments and markers shall respect what a people have sought to honor historical events, veterans, and the significance of the sacrifice of the veterans. Okay, people often sacrifice and struggle to fund these memorials for the veterans. Many memorials were years in the making due to planning, fundraising, and the actual construction and settlements of the memorials. Monuments show us the value society had of our character, sacrifice of the veterans during our history or honoring events of historical monuments. If you look at history you will find that these same people. If you look at history, I've done a lot of research in this area. Also, if you look at from the 1800s to 1968, where there was mass crowds that showed up this was a public spectacle. Where you had lynchings and it was an event. It was like a carnival affair. And you have to remember, why does this affect African Americans so much? Cause I get that question a lot because people say that's old history. Well I hear it a lot, that's old history. Well you have to look at the 1800s all the way to 1968, and specifically up to 1937, a lot of those individuals that showed up at those I say events are still alive today. So they have that history. Then you also have to remember too, that the photographs, the postcards, all that information was sent out like it was a regular event. Come to this event. Or at the event they took pictures and they sent that to family members across the country. Those photographs and postcards are still around. Still around. So this is nothing, when we talk about the past, this is the present too. Then you also have to look at too, the history of lynchings. We're talking about over 4743 people were lynched from the 1800s to 1968. That's a tremendous amount of people. You also have to look at too, why did these lynchings occur? The reason why these lynchings occurred was to make sure that people understood, make sure you stay in your place. Make sure you stay in your place. The reason why it's so important too why you have to understand, is I grew up in a family from Mississippi from Georgia and they had talked about that history. So I can sit here and say that I know about that history because family members passed it down from one generation to another. So I sit here saying that, at 57, I still know that history because it was passed down. Why it's important. Also I would like to say too I would, people kept talking about why these monuments. I had this conversation with Warren and he was saying that he wanted to do a policy piece on these monuments. He brought that to me before we ended in May. And I said I don't think that's gonna fly. The reason why is not because I don't love monuments. Not because I don't love history. I do. Because there is a piece in history that I do not love. I teach a course at the art museum, beauty and bias, and that's through the anti-defamation league and I'm also trained by the National Conference, and I've traveled this nation on racism and anti-bias training. One of the pieces that we teach at the library is that we take these kids from throughout St. Louis County, we take them around the art museum, and then we sit them down in a conference room, and then we have them draw pictures of what they seen. Then what we do is we ask them the question: What is beauty to you, and what is bias? Everybody has a different idea of what looks good to them and what doesn't. That's the same with these monuments. If you go around and you talk to African Americans, there's a reason why they want these monuments removed. If you talk to others probably, there's a reason why they want them to stay up. That's exactly why the beauty and bias training is so important. Because see, what offends one, may not offend another. And I hope you all think about that, because this is something that is very very important as we look at why it was so important that Warren- or what Warren said what he was talking about on Facebook. Why did it offend so many people? But it wasn't just Warren. I did some research and found out there was another legislator in Mississippi that said one and the same thing, lynch something. Someone should be lynched. So this is not typical. But how do we address this in 2018? For the ethics committee, that's your decision. But as a- as the chair of a Black Caucus here- and I'm saying that as a legislature, we should do better than that. And I'll end with that.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you gentleman. I appreciate that. As said, we will go now for the opening statement of Representative McCann Beatty. We'll call you back up for inquiry. Thank you. Representative McCann Beatty let me know when you are ready to go so I can swear you in and then we'll let you being.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I'm ready, thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: All right. Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you will give before this committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth so help you God?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I do.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you Lady, please begin.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. We are here today because Representative Warren Love chose to publically call for the extrajudicial murder of the petty criminals who had upset him by throwing paint on a Confederate statue in Springfield. Responding to a news story about the vandalism, Representative Love on August 30th, posted the following comment on Facebook. This is totally against the law. I hope they are found and hung from a tall tree with a long rope. Vandalism is against the law, but so is lynching. It is not appropriate to respond to one crime by hoping that a far worse crime is committed. And when a call for political violence comes from an elected official, that official has forfeited the moral authority to hold office. And let's be perfectly clear. Lynching is a brutal act of political violence. It is especially disturbing that Representative Love believes that lynching to be an appropriate punishment for vandalizing a monument to the Confederacy, giving that lynching was the method former Confederates and their white supremacist successors used for generations following the end of the Civil War to terrorize and subjugate African Americans. According to the 2017 edition of the Equal Justice Initiatives Report: Lynching in America Confronting the Legacy of Racial Terror, between 1877 and 1950 there were at 4084 documented terror lynchings of African Americans in the South, plus another 341 terror lynchings in 8 non-southern states. In Missouri, there were 60 documented terror lynchings, second most among non-Southern states. Now Representative Love disingenuously claims that he never called for a lynching because he never used the word. Well, statutorily authorized punishment for vandalism in Missouri is not to be hung from a tall tree with a long rope. When you hang someone without legal authority, that's a lynching. If for lunch you have a grilled ground beef patty with a slice of melted cheese on top served on a bun, you're eating a cheeseburger, regardless of whether you choose to call it that. Representative Love called for a lynching, simple as that, and four months later he still doesn't understand why this is a problem. And while Representative Love did initially express some regret for his reprehensible post, his later actions and statements, including his refusal to take down the post, exposed his insincerity. Just over two weeks ago, on December 18, 2017, the St. Louis Post Dispatch story, Representative Love fully reversed course and defended his comments. I quote, my case is going to be no condemnation, he said. I made a crude statement but I called out a crime, and I was the only legislator in the state that called out a crime that took place in the nation's veteran's cemetery. To repeat, calling out a relatively minor offense by hoping that a far worse and more brutal crime is committed is not a legitimate defense. And that raises another point. Despite what Representative Love may claim, this is not a free speech issue, as incitement to violence is not protected under the first amendment. Before I close, I wanted to add that when Senator Maria Chappelle Nadal, a Democrat, made a social media post this summer hoping for political violence, I was among the first to call on her to resign. I took a lot of heat from some fellow Democrats, but I did it because it was the right thing to do. So when Representative Love made a similar post not long after, I likewise called for him to resign. But the voices of Republican lawmakers who loudly demanded that Senator Chappelle Nadal be expelled if she refused to resign, fell strangely silent when it came to Representative Love. It seems there is one standard for black, Democratic women and another for white Republican men. And to be clear, while I still believe Representative Love should resign, I never called for his expulsion, and in fact I didn't even pursue an ethics complaint against him. I filed House Remonstrance One in hope of getting a simple up or down vote, or a non-binding resolution that would have done nothing more than state that the House believed Representative Love's comments were wrong. That's it. And that would have been an even lesser sanction than the Senate's unprecedented censure of Senator Chappelle Nadal in September. Instead, House Republican leadership chose to treat my remonstrance as an ethics complaint, and after repeated delays, here we are. At this point, it should be no secret. I am deeply disappointed with how House Republican leadership has handled this matter over the last few months. As a result, I have little confidence that any action will be taken. But nonetheless, I respectfully ask the committee to send the message that violent political discourse by Missouri State Representatives will not be tolerated.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you, Lady. And of course we'll be calling you back after the completion of the opening statements for more inquiry. Representative Love, I believe you're represented by counsel. Either you or he may now give the opening statement.

Melvin Lee (Attorney for Rep. Warren Love): [inaudible]

Rep. Kevin Austin: Counselor, hold on just a second, I'm sorry. Even attorneys have to be sworn in under our rules of procedure. Now I know that's a little unusual at least in court but- So if you would, raise your right hand. Do you solemnly swear or affirm that your testimony you will give before this committee on the matter now under consideration will be the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth so help you God?

Melvin Lee Gilbert: I do.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you. Would you state your full name and we do have a witness form we'll need for you to fill out.

Melvin Lee Gilbert: Thank you. I'm Melvin Lee

Rep. Kevin Austin: Oh, can you use the microphone? I think they're going to help you out.

Melvin Lee Gilbert: Melvin Lee Gilbert is my full name. I'm an attorney down in Buffalo, Missouri.

Rep. Kevin Austin: I'm sorry counselor to continue to interrupt. Is the a little green button lit, cause I don't think you're coming through.

Rep. Gina Mitten: Maybe you need to get a little closer. You're kind of- They're tricky.

Melvin Lee Gilbert: How about now? Okay, we'll go with Melvin Lee Gilbert, I'm the attorney for Warren Love in this case and I'm proud to be here to represent him. Some may look at me as a hired gun, I don't believe that's gonna be accurate for a couple of reasons. First, hiring gives the impression of money being spent to hire. I'm not charging Warren a penny in attorney's fees in this matter. I have a general practice in Buffalo, the closest thing to a specialty is small government law but I'm currently on retainer for 20 government entities from Camden County down to Stone County, from Webster County over to Newton County. And I'm told that representing 20 government bodies is the most of any solo practitioner in the state. And I'm not tooting my horn here because it's actually relevant to this because there are many dozens if not hundreds of cities within Missouri that have various statues and monuments that need to be protected as well. Why would I come up here to help Warren? One reason is that I know Warren's language. Warren is from St. Clara County, Missouri. My family, past FDR and Truman democrats, have known Warren for decades. My great grandparents, grandparents, and dad owned land in St. Clara County and lived within 15 miles from Warren as the crow flies, if that country saying can still be used these days. I suppose even a negative connotation could be made of that old country saying, under the current political climate. Today's saying that this issue had is hanging from the highest tree. That's one I was exposed to over 50 years ago. Never ever was it used in a racial context. It was used in the context of punishment. And that is how corrects today. Was it racially motivated or was it punishment motivated? There's been absolutely no evidence of Warren's statement was anything other than an adage for punishment. It couldn't even be racial unless Warren knew the race of the criminal in this case. And it's impossible for us to prove a negative proposition; but fortunately in America that burden does not lie on the accused but the accuser. The same type of protection will exist at even a higher constitutional level for the criminal that did the monument vandalism in Springfield. And yes it was a crime. That seems to be lost in the paint at times. And at times Warren seems to be treated worse than the criminals in this case. Who else beside Warren has admonished this crime? The lack of some condemning this crime only gives credence to the criminal act and by that silence only encourages similar criminal acts for the future. By condoning this act of vandalism where does it stop unless we are united to condemn it. This time was damaging a monument in a national cemetery. So one day a monument in a national cemetery, next time a monument at a national park, like Mt. Rushmore, defacing Washington and Jefferson. They were slave owners, so where does this all stop? I guess it could all be done in the name of civil disobedience to some people, whereas the true definition of this is actually criminal destructive disobedience. I guess some could deface the memorial of Lincoln in DC in the name of civil disobedience, a national park monument, the Martin Luther King monument in DC, a national park monument. Statues, plaques, and memorials that depict the birth of Brown Education or the Little Rock Nine, they have monuments at each of these places, both national park sites. Where does it all stop unless there is a condemnation of some type for this act that was done in Missouri? Because it can go both ways. And that hurts all of America in the long run. I've mentioned national parks several times. I have visited all 88 of the Missouri state parks, and 413 of the national parks. Probably didn't realize there were that many. Warren surprised me last session by presenting me with a resolution for being the only person in the world to visit all of the Missouri state parks and all of the national parks that were open on the centennial. So between most state parks and national parks, I have visited many many dozens of historical sites. And that brings me to the other reason that I'm here for free to support Warren, and that's because of our passions for history. Warren has filed for two years and pre-filed for a third year the Missouri veterans heritage protection act. There is statewide support as shown in this room by all of the veterans that are here today. Warren is a member of both organizations of Sons of Confederacy and Sons of the Union. He had family members on both sides. He is not racist. Warren and I have also worked together to designate the Butterbelt Stagecoach through the national historic trail in America. At 2900 miles is the longest state trail in world history and it started right down the road in Tipton. He's invited me two different times to come up and testify for the support of that proposition. One third of all national historic trails do go through Missouri. We've also worked together for several years on the 1800 themed pioneer heritage days in Warsaw, Missouri. Warren thinks 1800s old west a lot. That's where I also have the similar language to Warren. When hanging from the highest tree is said, I think of the cattle wrestlers in the old west. That is where Warren's motives lie, in punishment and not anything racial. And I stated here earlier, where does it all stop in being too politically correct to correct America's sins of history? There is the good bad and ugly in American history, but it is the truth. One cannot spray-paint over the truth of history. If this is not all stopped, then are we going to change the name of the city we're in today? Can't be Jefferson can it? Thank you very much.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you counselor. That concludes opening statements. I would now ask Representative McCann Beatty and Representative Green to come for inquiry. You both have already been sworn so you remain sworn. Any inquiry? Representative.

Rep. Michael Butler: Thank you Mr. Chair. To inquire? Um, Representative McCann Beatty, are you familiar with an incident in this body um where Representative Love referred to another member as a black negro?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I was not actually in that hearing, um, but it is my understanding that it was a conversation in which um he said prevailing wage is good for the negro.

Rep. Michael Butler: Okay. When you heard of that incident what were your actions post that?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Um, actually very similar to my reaction to this. Um, I immediately went and had a conversation with the Speaker. Um, the Speaker assured me that he would have a conversation with Representative Love and that it would be dealt with.

Rep. Michael Butler: You professionally and internally tried to handle that situation with the Speaker of the House?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Yes.

Rep. Michael Butler: Representative Green, are you familiar with that incident as well?

Rep. Alan Green: No.

Rep. Michael Butler: Thank you. Thank you Mr. Chair.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you. Any further inquiry? Representative Lynch.

Rep. Steve Lynch: It's good to see you representatives. Representative Green, when you went to Representative Love, what did he tell you he meant?

Rep. Alan Green: Well, per say we didn't specifically talk about the incident that occurred, uh we never actually talked about that incident. We haven't.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Okay, but then you wrote a letter.

Rep. Alan Green: Yes. We're Facebook people- we're connected on Facebook. So actually when he writes various things or- and you can see it on Facebook, or we have- we're connected together.

Rep. Steve Lynch: I understand, you know but if I was offended which you were, to write the letter. I would want to go to the person, and because there was already some explanations being given and ask him what they meant. But that didn't happen, I guess that's what you're saying.

Rep. Alan Green: Let me just correct myself. At veto session- after veto session we did talk a little bit about that, and he did apologize for that, but we didn't talk much about that.

Steve Lynch: Did he apologize for the statement or because you misunderstood what he was saying?

Rep. Alan Green: We never talked about me misunderstanding what he said, no.

Rep. Steve Lynch: And Representative McCann Beatty, what did Warren tell you that he meant?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I have not spoken one word to Representative Love since the incident.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Okay. Do either one of you have any understanding of what he has said that he meant?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I can't tell you- I can tell you how I felt. I can tell you what I saw, what I have experienced from reading it. But I can't- like I said I have not had any conversation with him so I can't tell you necessarily what is in his mind. What I can say is that we have seen a number of statements from Representative Love that definitely suggest that these are racist statements.

Rep. Steve Lynch: So you've had no contact to ask him? What did you mean one-

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I've only had one conversation with Representative Love since I've been in the legislature and it was about these Confederate Monuments.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Okay. And what do the people that committed the crime look like? (28:04)

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I have no idea what they look like. And let's be clear, at no point in time have I said anything that these people should not be punished. And let's also be clear, my remonstrance has zero to do with the fact that the monument was defaced. My remonstrance has to do with Representative Love's response. We need to stop changing the narrative. It was inappropriate for a legislator to call for a lynching.

Rep. Steve Lynch: But a response that you never have talked to him about that some of us may have differently. And yet you say that he is being racist and the comments he is making even though my understanding is we have no clue- I don't think anyone has been arrested, or been charged with this crime just yet. So we don't know what group- it could be any group of any ethnicity or color.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: First of all calling for a lynching is inappropriate period.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Well I believe we can look at that in a bit. But I just wanted- You don't know who-

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Wasn't there.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Okay.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Representative Green.

Rep. Alan Green: Let me address part of that. First of all, I have never in that area talk about after veto session, the lynching part. But I have sat in Warren's office many a day and I enjoyed talking to Warren. He has a lot of historical pieces on his wall. He has a lot of historical books. We'd talk about those things. I was shocked; I'll be honest, when this came up, because I did not perceive that of Warren. I was actually thrown back. So that's I'm appalled at how did- When we're talking about hanging someone from the longest rope and a tall tree, I couldn't even imagine that. Because those are not the conversations that I have with Warren. I have them talking about the history and the monuments and pictures and cowboys you know ranches cows, all that horses, we talk about all of that. So this threw me off when that piece came up because that is not the piece that we talk about on a daily basis.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Yeah it's not- and believe me Warren is more than happy to talk to you about history. As you know. But you got to know him when he was up here, but maybe not to really know him how he is really from his area and the way that they may talk out in that area as well. And what the statements they make.

Rep. Alan Green: Still on that point I do a lot of training around the nation talking about those areas you're talking about right now. See the way you perceive it may not be the way we perceive it, and that is that piece again of understanding. And so that understanding piece is why we would be offended.

Rep. Steve Lynch: And I think that is the very point of this, is that understanding where a person is coming from when they make some of these statements. Believe me I understand that some statements that we may make in rural Missouri folks in the city have lived there all their lives, may not understand what we are saying. It also works the other way. I have things believe me I could be offended as well, if I wanted to be, if I didn't want to be understanding. There are things that some of our representatives do, I don't agree with, I don't understand, but I understand I don't understand everything about them either or the situation that we're working with or what they're trying to do in their district. There has to be some understanding of that and some give of that where we're all able to say that maybe we are offended in this country we're gonna get offended from time to time, but to try to understand why they have said that and then accept the truth of why they say they said.

Rep. Alan Green: Let me address that piece.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Yes.

Rep. Alan Green: One of the big pieces I love to talk about too is that I spent five years in Texas working on a ranch. So I shoveled a lot of manure. So I understand when I'm hearing manure. Okay. So what I'm also saying too is that when we look at these understandings because I was in a rural area for so many years, I can't use that piece that it's only the suburban or the urban core, because I've been in the core areas of the country too. And so I see things from that point of view too. So I just had to put that out there.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Yeah and the shoveling wasn't a reference to me I'm hoping.

[laughter]

Rep. Steve Lynch: Thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further inquiry? Gentleman.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Thank you. Thank you both for your prior statements. I really appreciate the thoughtfulness you put into them. Um, I want to follow up, Representative Beatty, um it's hard to ignore the sort of underlying racism in this situation, right? Um, whether it was intentional or conscious we can all argue about here. Um, we've talked a lot about Representative Love's knowledge of history. Um, you gave us numbers of the history of lynching in America and in Missouri, and would it be your understanding that if you have knowledge of history you also have a decent knowledge of the racial history of lynching in America?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Representative I would agree. Um if you understand history, you understand history, and you should also understand why something like this is so offensive.

Rep. Peter Merideth: For sure.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: And we as a legislature, we have to come up here and work together on a daily basis. Um, and we do have to understand each other, um, but unfortunately for Representative Love even once he found out that it was offensive, it didn't really matter. Which tells me he didn't care and the Gentleman asked, have I had a conversation with him. No I have not. He didn't think to seek me out um for an apology or anything else and his half-hearted apology that we read in the newspaper he even retracted that.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Now given the context that this was in response to defacing a Confederate memorial, um does that add to the sort of obviousness that there is some racial element to this?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: It absolutely does because lynching was a form of intimidation um and then there was another comment after that that referred to the term strange fruit. Strange fruit was what they called when they saw an African American hanging from a tree. They were called strange fruit.

Rep. Peter Merideth: That seems to be a pretty decent knowledge of history. And what the terms mean.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I would agree, yeah.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Um, now, stepping back I don't want to ignore the racial part of this but it seems to be an area of dispute in our committee so I'm going to ask you, assuming there was no racism underlying this at all, and that this was um an expression used, does that change whether or not it was appropriate for a legislator to call for a lynching?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: It does not because as a legislator we should not be calling for violence period.

Rep. Peter Merideth: So calling for extrajudicial violence as a response to a small crime

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Is inappropriate.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Is in appropriate for a legislator whether it's racist or not.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Whether it's racist or not.

Rep. Peter Merideth: So we can pull aside the racism for those who don't believe there was racism involved um, well we may contest that, and still say that there is a serious problem with a legislator calling for violence.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Absolutely.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay. Um, I would add, you brought up Senator Chappelle Nadal in this situation

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Yes

Rep. Peter Merideth: And there was I guess a somewhat comparable situation although lots of differences and lots of contrasts are important as well. Um, and our message to the public is that her call for political violence is unacceptable. Her call for violence with someone she is upset with, someone she is personally offended by, wasn't acceptable.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Correct.

Rep. Peter Merideth: And so she was

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: She was swiftly punished.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Did she have a lawyer in that process, when she was swiftly punished?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I don't know that.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay. Um, it seems there is a significant contrast with how these are both handled. And I realize that some of that is procedural with the different houses. Do you think that there is a message being sent to the public if we have one response for Senator Chappelle Nadal, and a different response in a case like this for two public calls for violence by elected officials?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: I think it absolutely says something to the public, especially when one is an African American female and one is a white male. And the fact that many of my Republican colleagues were incredibly outraged by Senator Chappelle Nadal and went to social media immediately wanting her removed from the Senate, but yet when it happened with Representative Love we heard absolutely nothing.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Sure.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: And now here we are four months later and absolutely there has been no response from our Republican leadership.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Go ahead if you have something to add.

Rep. Alan Green: I just wanted to address from the Black Caucus too off of Senator Nadal. We also put out a press statement that we did not condone her statements.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Of course, of course. Thank you. Um, now so to talk about the contrast there. And you mentioned that she's an African American woman versus a white male. And we've got the context of racial undertones with all of this, um but again pulling the racial undertones aside for a minute, um I guess we're saying that the message to the public would be best-case scenario for a democrat there's one standard and for a republican there's another. And then the worst-case scenario is that for a black woman there is one standard and for a white male there is another.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: That's true.

Rep. Peter Merideth: And the reality is the public is gonna perceive that based on our response, whether you all think it's true or not, right?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Absolutely.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay, one other point that um, from some of the previous uh conversation. Uh, we've heard a little bit about how this is sort of just language from his community that he represents. Um, if my community, my constituents, say things like they want Donald Trump assassinated and horrible unacceptable things, does that justify me saying it as a legislator?

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: No it absolutely does not because we are held to a higher standard.

Rep. Peter Merideth: So this isn't about whether a regular person can say offensive things, this is about whether a legislator can call for political violence.

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: Absolutely, yes.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Thanks.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further inquiry? Representative.

Rep. Gina Mitten: "Briefly, if I may, thank you. Um, and either of you guys can answer this, but to sort of refresh everyone's memory, tell me if I'm correct in this if memory serves, it was the Democratic Floor Leader who removed Representative Chappelle-Nadal from all her committees. Am I misremembering that?"

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: "I believe that is correct."

Rep. Gina Mitten: "So basically a member of her own- Senator Walsh's own caucus, engaged in some behavior that I think we can universally agree was inappropriate was pretty swift, if memory serves, dealt some consequences from within. Is that a fair characterization? And then I understand, I guess there was a formal censure that occurred on veto session, which would have been September 13th."

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: “Correct, and had my remonstrance been dealt with in a normal fashion, we could have also dealt with it on the floor, as well.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “On September 13th?”

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: “Absolutely”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “...and again, I think it’s fair to say though that the same meeting of consequences has not occurred in in this case.”

Rep. Gail McCann Beatty: “There has been no consequences for Representative Love.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay thank you so much, thank you Mr. Chair.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Further inquiry? Seeing none, thank you representatives.” “Now inquiry of Representative Love. Gentleman would you please come forward and your counsel can come with you.” “Before we begin, Representative Love you have not been sworn in so let me do that now. Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you will give before this committee is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth so help you God?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I do.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Thank you sir. Inquiry?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “I’ll start, good afternoon. So let’s just start, if we can, with the facts. The way I read the Facebook page said is that you said, ‘I hope they are found and hung from a tall tree with a long rope.’ Is that a fair characterization, is that a quote of what your post said? Yes?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “And do you remember, wasn’t that posted on August 30th or the end of August 2017?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes, ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Can you help me to understand, was that Facebook post ever removed?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No, ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “It was not? ‘Cus um...could you help me understand why, and I’m going to read from some of your quotes in the newspaper, and I would love if you could help me, well help all of us, understand whether these are accurate quotes or not. Because there was originally an article in the Springfield News Leader in which you said that you thought that the post had been taken down. And then you clarified that it was still up, but you had not been able to access it due to poor internet connectivity. Is that a fair characterization of your comments to the Springfield News Leader?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That is correct.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, so can you tell me why you thought it was down and then said that you couldn’t get to it? I guess you decided on October..excuse me August 31st that you’re not going to take it down. Is that a fair characterization?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Let me explain about the confusion. I was in route to the bootheel of Missouri that afternoon, I arrived there about dark and I pulled over. I seen a wave of inquiries from newspapers and I thought I am going to try to put out some fires. So in the area that I pulled over in.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Yeah these don’t work so well do they?” holds up phone

Rep. Warren Love: “Yea, I didn’t have internet connection but I did have phone connection, so I was asked by a reporter if I had taken the post down, and I commented, ‘It may have been taken down...because someone else may have been, one of my children actually, may have taken it down, I don’t know because I can’t access Facebook so there was some misunderstanding about whether it was taken down or not. It was actually the next day before I knew.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, did you not tell the reporter, and I’m going to quote, ‘That you had not been able to access it due to poor internet connectivity and that that was the reason it was not take down?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I basically was confused, I didn’t know if it was or if it had been.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Then I’m gonna move forward to another article also dated October, excuse me, August 31st, in which you indicated that you would not take it down and that it, quote ‘It starts a dialogue’. Is that an accurate quote of your statement to the Post Dispatch?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I don’t remember”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, but do you have any reason to believe that the Post Dispatch did not quote you accurately in that article? In that you’re saying it starts a dialogue?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Ok, so again my understanding is that you said to the Post Dispatch on the 31st of August that you could take it down, but that you’re not going to because it’s already out and it starts a dialogue and later that afternoon, The Kansas City Star has an article also about these posts in which you say you will not delete the post, the Facebook post.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did, and can I explain why?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Well, I just have some more questions and I think you will get to that. I guess my question is, what dialogue did you hope to start?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I don’t remember ever saying the word ‘dialogue’, you know, and if I did I cannot remember.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, so you’re not sure why you said that to the Post Dispatch, because you said that you have no reason to believe that they misquoted you.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I don’t even remember using the word dialogue, it’s not a normal word in my vocabulary. I just wanted to let you know that.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, and they’re quoting you, ‘I could take it off but I’m not because it’s already out and it will start a dialogue’. That’s the quote. So um, so I guess then you’re saying now that you didn’t hope to start a dialogue.”

Rep. Warren Love: “No, here’s why I did not remove it okay, if I may now in front of the committee”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Well right now I’m not asking you about the removal I’m asking about the dialogue, so again you’re quoted saying you wanted to start a dialogue. Now you’re saying you didn’t want to start a dialogue, I’m just trying to understand.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I do not remember quoting or saying that I wanted to start a dialogue.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, okay so then is it safe to say that you did not hope to start a dialogue by leaving the post up?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I would say yes, ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay so you left the post up but you had no desire to start a dialogue about the contents or maybe the reaction to that post.”

Rep. Warren Love: “The reason why I left the post up is because it had already been snapshotted, everybody in the world’s seen it, there’s no taking it down. Also, if you will look at that Facebook post, I don’t even know how to go back and find it, you will see my next statement was I did not mention race nor gender nor age.

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Mhmm, I understand that.”

Rep. Warren Love: “And I want that to be on there. Because I did not mention those things.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Mhmm, I understand. You-- you’ve already confirmed what the quote actually says so I think that’s already kind of clear. So again you said--and I’m going to go to another article, and this was a week later on September the 8th, you apparently contacted Steve Pokin of the Springfield News Leader to again, clarify your comments, and um, in that article you are quoted as saying ‘If you get’--and I’m not going to use the word--‘If you get feces on your boots you might as well keep it there ‘cus you can’t wipe away the smell’. Is that an accurate quote?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That’s right.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay so again, I’m kinda confused about that but could you explain to the committee how calling for a lynching is akin to getting feces on your boots?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Ma’am if I may, I did not use the word ‘lynching’. And I will ask you, is there a difference, dictionary, between the words ‘lynching’ and ‘hanging’?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “And--and if I’m ever sitting in that seat I welcome you to do so, but right now, unfortunately I am the one that’s asking the questions at this juncture. So, and again I’m going to say, can you explain to the committee how calling for someone-- without a trial, without an arrest, without a jury-- to be hung from a tall tree, which I think one can argue is the equivalent of lynching. Could you explain to the committee how that is akin to getting feces on your boots?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Did I mention there would be no trial, no uh, civil matter in that statement?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay so can you explain to the committee how hanging someone from a tall tree with a long rope is akin to getting feces on your boots?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That no diff--no relationship.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “No relationship.”

Rep. Warren Love: “No relationship whatsoever.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “But yet that’s the language that you’ve chose. Those are quotes that you’ve admitted are quotes.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I could’ve said ‘take ‘em to the woodshed’, or uh you know, ‘nail your hide to the wall’ or any numerous of things.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Mhmm.”

Rep. Warren Love: “And since we’re here in front of God and everybody, let me tell you what I almost put..”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “You could’ve also put ‘arrested and prosecuted to the full extent of the law’.

Rep. Warren Love: “That’s what I meant.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “But those aren’t the words that you used.”

Rep. Warren Love: “You know something, sometimes when you want to make a point you use an expression called a colloquial statement”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Ohhh, okay.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Okay, I almost wrote ‘This is a crime, totally against the law’. My granddaddy used to say when somebody done something like that they ought to have their back split and their leg run through it. That’s what I almost wrote, so now everybody knows.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “But you chose not to do that.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Pardon me?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “You chose not to write that in your post.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I didn’t want to face my wife with making that kind of statement.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: Ahh, that’s interesting. So you didn’t want to face your wife with that kind of statement but it was okay to hang folks from a tall tree. Okay. Um, look I’m a city person, I think we’ve already established that we may look at things differently depending on our regions. Um, you also have some quotes in the Post Dispatch’s August 31st article in which you referred to ‘them’ and ‘the minorities’ in that you said, “I probably have a better relationship with the minorities than any of them up at the legislature.” You also said, “I play softball with ‘them’, I’m good friends with ‘them’, I sit on the same side of the isle as ‘them’, and ‘they’ are on my softball team”. Um, I’m assuming by ‘them’ you meant persons of color or African Americans that work or serve in this building?

Rep. Warren Love: “What word should I have used?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Well I would have called them your--my colleagues.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Who was the article referring about? Who has charged against me?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Well I think the article at the time was referring to your comments, which we’ve already established, were to hang somebody from a tall tree with a long rope. So the article was about those comments and I’m just wanting to clarify your quotes to that article and clarify that those were in fact your words and to confirm that what you meant by those words were persons of color or African Americans that work and serve in this building.”

Melvin Lee Gilbert: “I would just like for the record to note that you had preferenced that with his relationship with minority representatives in this building and that had already been designated and “them” each time used after that, referred back to the minority--”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Which is why I’m asking the person that made the statements to clarify, I’m sure we’re all understanding exactly what he meant.”

Rep. Warren Love: “That is correct.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Thank you. Now I’m curious about the timeline of your apology, or not apology, or retraction of an apology. Um, it looks to me like you know, again on August 31st at 8:30 in the morning you said you could not recall the apology that you had written on Facebook and declined to give one over the phone. Um, do you remember that conversation, and it would’ve been with the Kansas City Star, do you remember that conversation in which you declined to apologize with a telephone interview with the Kansas City Star?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Not that I declined, I will say this, I was interviewed by many different news medias. And I maybe made a statement of an apology over the phone to some, some not. But it was not until the following day that I drafted a formal apology with sincere meaning can ask to be excused from the comment that I made because I realize it had offended people and I’m sorry.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “MmK. And then again on the next day then you also um, again--have you retracted your apology?-- let’s just go there. In other words, my understanding is that you did ultimately issue an apology and sort of now just restated it. Was that apology ultimately retracted?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No, it was submitted to all the news media and put out, I posted it on my Facebook. Uhh it’s still there, I hope that everyone received it. I know uh, what our intent was.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, so it’s still there along with the post.”

Rep. Warren Love: “It’s not on the same post. It’s probably the following day.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, then um, I’m gonna ask you a little bit about sort of words and consequences. Do you think there should be consequences for using words that are offensive or hateful?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Well the reality is, yes.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay. So for instance if a child or a grandchild were to, as we in the city say, “drop an F bomb or take the Lord’s name in vain, I’m assuming you believe there should be some consequences for that?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I believe there is consequences for everything that we do.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Well and again, if your children or grandchildren were to use profane or otherwise inappropriate language would you punish them?”

Rep. Warren Love: “If I felt it was inappropriate.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “If it was inappropriate? Okay, so you would. So I’m assuming things like an F bomb as we would say or four letter words you find to be inappropriate, coming from a child?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “I suspect you may find it inappropriate even coming from me..Um, why would you punish them, why would you punish a child or anybody, for using poor language, inappropriate language? Why do we do that?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Well I could quote Bible scripture, Proverbs come to mind, that if you raise up a child in that way that he or she go when they’re older, they will-- they’ll turn into that.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “So we punish people--there are consequences for our actions, just generally speaking, so that we learn from those mistakes, isn’t that true? I mean, isn’t that how we basically operate?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay. So um, do you-- well, have you been criticized for making racist statements in the past?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Some have criticized me and taken it out of context and if I could I’d like to address this deal about the prevailing wage committee I was in and clear that up.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Well it’s on videotape frankly so I think that’s it’s kind of already been cleared up to the extent that you know, there were statements that were made and I believe that you referred to the black negro as benefiting from a bill and um, if memory serves, I just looked at that video last night in fact, Representative Dunn explained at the time that he found that that was offensive to him.”

Rep. Warren Love: “That is correct.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, and that was in January of 2017?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I was reading from a historical article about how Davis Bacon was found.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “I understand.”

Rep. Warren Love: “And this very day at the town hall there is a commentator-- news writer named Larry Elder-- do you know of him?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “I do not.”

Rep. Warren Love: “His headline is instead of infrastructure investments, how ‘bout killing Davis Bacon? Okay he writes about this, he uses that same term three times in his news story.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “And I realize that. And I appreciate that but if we were here talking about that commentator I would really love to hear about that but--”

Rep. Warren Love: “I was only reading from a historical article”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “--from a historical article”

Rep. Warren Love: “The New York workers union, they were being infringed on.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “I understand that but however, you were criticized openly in a committee hearing for these comments and somebody did indicate to you that he felt it was an offensive comment.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay. And then about a month later in February 2017 there was a Pitch article in which, I understand again it was a quote but you had a Facebook post in which you quoted some pretty damning comments about President Lincoln, including calling him a tyrant.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I didn’t quote, I just posted an article that was written about 10 things about Lincoln a lot of people don’t know, which I do repaticiously with other people.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Right I understand but you took a part of that article and copy and pasted it and put it up and actually it wasn’t in quotations but we were able to clarify that with the press later.”

Rep. Warren Love: “That’s right.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “So again in January of 2017 we have some racial issues that you’re called out for, you know you were criticized for that at the time, perhaps we disagree about whether it was fair but it’s criticism. And then a month later we have an article in the Pitch that’s sort of calling you out and criticizing you also for some racist comments, is that a fair assessment of what happened last year?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I don’t keep up on that publication.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, well I did so, do recall the criticism from both of those comments?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, were there any consequences to you for either of those comments?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “No consequences at all. So do you think you should incur any consequences for the language that you’ve used-- what’s the subject of this complaint and remonstrance today?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I’ve apologized and I expect no condemnation.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “You expect no condemnation, which brings me to something else I thought was sort of interesting, you are quoted in a December 18th article in the Post Dispatch saying “my case is going to be no condemnation”. Is that an accurate quote?”

Rep. Warren Love: “What was the statement again?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “My case-- meaning you saying-- once again, my case was going to be no condemnation”.

Rep. Warren Love: “I didn’t make that in a statement as an affirmative, I meant that I was going to ask for no condemnation.

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, well that’s not what the quote says so you’re saying that is a misquote?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Evidently”.

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay, which is fine, again I just want to clarify that stuff because it’s out in the world and I think you deserve an opportunity to make sure you’re being quoted accurately. Um, so again you believe there should be no condemnation and consequences--

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “--despite the fact that you’ve been called out for racist comments on at least two prior occasions?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Those that call them comments racist comments is nothing but their matter of opinion, I don’t feel like they were racist.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Do you feel it appropriate though, once you become a member of the General Assembly that we have to use language that’s respectful to all Missourians?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I think it should be our goal to do that, yes, and I apologized for making some offensive comments that I felt was offensive to others.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay. Um, have you spoken with any members of this committee about this complaint?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “And could you tell me the substance of those conversations?”

Rep. Warren Love: “What?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Could you tell me what was said? What was that conversation?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Just that-- how this procedure is going to be played out and when we would speak and the formalities”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Right, the process and all that”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yeah.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “That makes perfect sense. Have you had other conversations with members of the General Assembly about this complaint?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Many.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Have you had any conversations in which you were assured you would not be punished?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Have you had any conversations in which it was indicated you would be punished?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “No you haven’t. Um, I just want to finally give you an opportunity to respond to some other quotes that we have about your comments. Well, actually, do you agree with what the consequences were for Senator Chappelle Nadal?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That’s another issue and I don’t feel like it has one iota to do with this issue. Not one.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “I understand, but do you agree with the consequences she faced?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Chairman I have not had any chance to review any of that with my client because it seems to be an issue that wasn’t a part of today’s hearing.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Mr.Chair either he thinks that the senator should have faced consequences or he thinks the senator should not have face consequences, it’s a pretty simple question and I suspect that pretty much every person in this room could answer it one way or another.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Well I agree that he should answer but I disagree that it could be on way or the other. Maybe he has no opinion, I don’t know but I think that the representative should answer.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Would you repeat the question ma’am?”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Do you believe Senator Chappelle Nadal should have faced any consequences for the speech that she engaged in, hoping for the assassination of President Trump?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I believe that is up to the Senate and her fellow colleagues to decide.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “But you wouldn’t mind serving with someone who made those comments?”

Rep. Warren Love: “If you want to chase that rabbit down the road, what we made comments on it would take up all day.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “So you don’t find offensive at all to serve with somebody who had made that comment?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Okay then, some members of your own party have called for some consequences onto you and I’m curious what your response is to those comments.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I’ll tell ya like this, when you quail hunt and you flush up a covey of quail, they’re all together and when they land they’re all individually in their own place. Whatever they say, they’re going to have to suffer because of them are going to get flushed up, some of them are going to get shot, and some of them are going to live. Now that’s a colloquial statement I hope you understand.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Are you referring to your colleagues that made comments about your statements?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes ma’am”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “That some of them are going to get shot?”

[some crowd upset]

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Hold it, hold it, hold it, hold it.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “Help me to understand what that means.”

Rep. Warren Love: “There’s consequences when they land on their own with what decision to make, we do that everyday as legislatures. You know, we’ll endorse this, or we’ll criticize this, and we have to stand for our decision, whatever we decision we made. If we come out openly, and criticize someone and condemn them, each individual we have to stand for what we say.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: Okay, and so for instance let’s just say that the current majority floor leader that, he was just elected, he has a post saying “Calling for the murder of anyone is unacceptable. Representative Love’s punishment to be equal to any opposed on Senator Maria Chappelle Nadal.” What’s your response to that?

Rep. Warren Love: “I have none.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: You have no response to that? What about Lieutenant Governor Parson who said that, “The post is unacceptable and inexcusable” ?

Rep. Warren Love: “I have none.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: What about Governor Eric Greitens who said that “Leaders of Missouri need to do better and I don’t think Senator Chappelle Nadal or Representative Love should be representing the people of Missouri, both should face the same consequences”?

Rep. Warren Love: “I have none.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: Do you have any response to the fact that his spokesperson Parker Briden later clarified those comments in saying, “We think he should resign”.

Rep. Warren Love: “No ma’am.”

Rep. Gina Mitten: “No comments at all. Well I thank you for coming and thank you for your testimony and I have no further questions.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Further inquiry?”

[inaudible]

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Good afternoon Gentleman”

Rep. Warren Love: “Good afternoon”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “So, your attorney had stated earlier that this was not meant, not meant to be offensive language based on a historical perspective, correct?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Clarify that one more time.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: The comments that you posted, he stated, “This was not meant to be offensive because the historical nature you were trying to present your comments”, is that correct?

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “So would you acknowledge that many African Americans across the state would be offended by your comments based on the historical nature of what you were talking about would you at least acknowledge that?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I would and I found that out but why would African Americans be offended by what I said when I did not say race, can you tell me that because that’s what I want to know?”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Well I think that Representative McCann Beatty gave a pretty good historical context why many African Americans, including myself, would be offended by those comments.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Do you think that white people or that spanish people have never been lynched when you talk about the word ‘lynch’?”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Were talking in nature of the context of your comments that you posted. I would also ask, in your comments you mentioned I guess the conversation that your attorney or your representative mentioned today in that this was really in terms of political correctness and is that what you’re saying this is really about? About being politically correct? Is that what you’re thinking this is, the outrage about your comments?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I called out a crime and it was a crime. I was one of the only legislatures in this state that called that out.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “I don’t think we’re debating the crime that took place against the monument. I think we’re debating the comments that you posted.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did it in a crude way and I wanted to make a point that I hope they are convicted to the fullest extent of the law, now I did not write that, okay but that’s what I meant. And I did not refer anything about race, gender, or age in my statement.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Representative Love, after you made those comments, did you talk or consult with any African Americans in your district?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No sir, I don’t have very many, I’m sorry to say. I live in a very predominantly white area as many other rural Missourians do. That’s just the fact.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Well that’s interesting, I know there’s plenty of African Americans that live in rural Missouri. But that’s okay. I also wanted to ask you specifically about your comments when you talk to your post that you made, do you think at the very least, even if you acknowledge that your comments could be offensive to African Americans across the state do you believe at the very least that you deserve-- that they deserve an apology for your comments even if you didn’t mean to be offensive-- I know that was not your intent, but they took that as an offensive comment.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did that exactly. The following day.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “In what way did you do that?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did it in written form, it was submitted to newspapers, the news media, I posted it back on my Facebook. Sir, I can only say apology and a half, and have them accept my apologies. I don’t know how else to do it but write it and submit it, and that’s what I did.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “And I know you said, you had stated earlier with Representative Mitten you had never mentioned a lynching and can you explain for the committee what the difference between being hung and a lynching?”

Rep. Warren Love: “You bet. A lynching is done by vigilante, okay. In Henry County Missouri, where I live, the last lynching was done in the 1930s. And there was a gentleman from Calhoun Missouri that got blamed for molesting a woman, he was hung-- he was lynched by a vigilante mob on the Henry County Courthouse lawn within a matter of 24 hours. That is a vigilante lynching. He did not have a trial. Hanging is done by due process of law. By the way, so we all will know, the last official hanging that happened in Missouri was in 1934, and happened in Fulton, Missouri and it was to George McKeever, for killing Sheriff Roger Wilson, the Boone County Sheriff and First Trooper Ben Booth in Columbia, also McKeever was a white man.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Would you agree that using the word in the comments that you posted as they offended many African Americans across the state, would you say that would be the same as making anti-semitic remarks in front of a Jewish audience?”

Melvin Lee Gilbert: “Chairman this is a preliminary hearing on complaint in front of the committee, I just believe that is completely irrelevant and we have not prepared for anything along that line.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “I understand, if this were a court of law the objection of relevance may be sustained but right here I think we have, and I’m required to grant much greater latitude to the inquiry, so I would ask that the Representative answer if you can.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Okay. Could I ask you to repeat that one more time?”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “Well because my greater point is that--that I think I want to understand-- is that the language you used was offensive to many people across the state and I’m down right offended and I think that I see relevance to using the same sort of language you’re using that offended one group of people and I’m saying that in the same context, in the same way, you could’ve said the same thing and this example I’m using, anti-semitic language in front of a Jewish audience, and just seeing how they could have been offended in using the same sort of language that would incite hate. And I think that you just explained to this committee that there is a difference between a hanging and a lynching and I think there are a lot of people in this state that don’t see the difference between the two.”

Rep. Warren Love: “I don’t know how to answer that. I can see how people can say things they’re accustomed to hearing and knowing and it can be offensive to other people whether they be a race of Indian, Spanish, African American, whatever and Jewish, and not realize it’s offensive.”

Rep. DaRon McGee: “One last question Representative Love, knowing what you know today, would you post those comments again?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I would’ve wrote that other one that I told you I was gonna write.” [crowd laughter]

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Representative Brown, I mean--”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Butler, it’s fine. Representative you mentioned, when was the last hanging in the state of Missouri, you gave us a fact, when did that occur?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did what now?”

Rep. Michael Butler: “You mentioned when the last lynching if an African American in the state of Missouri?”

Rep. Warren Love: “It wasn’t a lynching it was a hanging.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “The hanging.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Justifiable by law, yes.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “But the you also mentioned the last lynching done by a vigilante group was done. You mentioned that as well.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Yes, we have a newspaper reporter down in Henry, Missouri who publishes the Clinton Daily Democrat, his name is Dan Miles, he may have sent all of you a letter. He actually about a month ago published the 3 actual lynchings that had happened in Henry County, and two of them was back in the 1800s, and the one in the 1930s. They were done in Henry County Missouri.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Okay so, thank you for that for clarifying your statement. I thought you meant that was the actual last vigilante lynching in the state of Missouri. You meant just in Henry County, because the last actual lynching--”

Rep. Warren Love: “--Yes. By the way they were all white.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Okay, because the last actual lynching in the state of Missouri was in 1942.”

Rep. Warren Love: “That I don’t know.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “In Sikeston, Missouri.”

Rep. Warren Love: “Good to know.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Of the 25--”

Rep. Warren Love: “In 1942.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “In 1942. Okay we’re clarifying because you were mentioning Henry County, okay cool. Representative do you, do you have any remorse for your statements, do you believe you did anything wrong with any of the statements you’ve made over the past General Assembly?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I made a public apology and I’m sorry to those that I’ve offended.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “So you do believe that you have done something wrong?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I’m sure I offended some and I’m sorry.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Yes sir. With that, you believe you do not deserve any punishment for what you’ve done wrong is that what I’m hearing here today?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That would be correct.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Is there a reason why you admit you’ve done something wrong but don’t deserve a punishment?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I’m not admitting that I did anything wrong. I am admitting that I made a statement that was taken out of context and offended certain people that took it to mean something it did not mean. And I’m sorry for that,”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Representative, would you agree you have made 3 statements in the past year that have offended people in this body. Would you agree to that?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “So the statement you made in committee about--that a member of this body complained to Republican leadership--would you agree that that offended someone?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I read a historical article about how Davis Bacon was started in New York in 1933 and it referred to that statement about the worker out of the south.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “But you read a racially--”

Rep. Warren Love: “--I read--”

Rep. Michael Butler: “--you read a racially insensitive word and it offended a member of this body, one of your colleagues, and a complaint was made and that complaint was discussed with you. You don’t believe there was anything wrong you did in that instance?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No, I don’t.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Okay and then the second instance, where members viewed you refer to a former President of this country in a negative way, you don’t believe you did anything wrong in that instance?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I did not refer to him in a negative way, I posted a historical article about a presidential President and people can read that and make their own assumption on it.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “You don’t believe you did anything wrong in that instance?”

Rep. Warren Love: “No sir.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “And then this instance, where you also expressed publicly, and I think your lawyer stated, an adage for punishment. “An adage for punishment”, those exact words. You don’t believe you did anything wrong in that instance as well?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I’m having trouble understanding what that means..outage?”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Okay, your lawyer stated there was nothing racial about your comment, and that you felt it was an adage for punishment.”

Rep. Warren Love: “My statement was an analogy okay, I’m not sure I know the word ‘adage’, okay. But it’s kind of like an analogy or metaphor for punishment to the full extent of the law. You know there was three or four I gave you, talking about ‘take ‘em to the woodshed’ or ‘nail your hide to the wall’, you know, ‘lock up and throw away the key’. All of those are colloquial statements to emphasize a form of punishment. Because it was a crime. I could have wrote any of them, they all meant the same thing.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Would you agree that they--”

Rep. Warren Love: “You don’t want to take those statements literally, they are not meant to be taken literally, that’s the problem we have. You know I mentioned one day on the floor, if common sense were lard, some people don’t have enough to grease a skillet.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “I’m not taking it literally. I understand, you know there are plenty of things members of this committee never say publicly, folks in this room never say publicly that they say privately that they know are inappropriate. All I’m asking is, you didn’t choose to say those other things, you chose to say something that has-- that you acknowledge was probably offensive to someone-- and quite a few members in this body agree was wrong, and folks in your own party agree was not just offensive, it was actually wrong to say. And I guess why do you think you did--and other folks think you did--something wrong but that you don’t deserve a punishment for?”

Rep. Warren Love: “I apologized for stating a statement, that was a colloquial statement, that basically called for a punishment for the full extent of the law. I don’t know what else I can do.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Do you believe that you should receive punishment to the full extent of the law for yourself?”

Melvin Lee Gilbert : “I object to that statement because we’re-- this is a question that is asked in a criminal context compared to this committee’s process.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “This committee is bound by law and has certain options by law.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Gentleman can you rephrase it with what we can impose here.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Yes sir. And thank you, that’s what I meant, are you--do you think you should receive punishment to the full extent of this committee’s law?”

Rep. Warren Love: “Many I need to be taken to the woodshed.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Maybe or you should be?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That’s for up to you all to decide.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “So, that’s not offensive to me, take ‘em to the woodshed in my sense would mean recieve censure. And you would receive a punishment that lasts and is as difficult as this committee sees fit. Do you believe you should receive a censure?”

Rep. Warren Love: “That’s up to you all.”

Rep. Michael Butler: “Thank you Mr. Chair. Thank you Representative.”

Rep. Kevin Austin: “Thank you, Gentleman. Further inquiry? Um, Lady.”

Rep. Marsha Haefner: “To inquire Mr. Chair. Thank you, I want to make a few comments and then direct a question to Mr. Gilbert. The purpose of this hearing and this committee is not to talk about history, or park monuments or reverence to veterans, or defacing monuments. The purpose of this committee and the complaint deals only with the comments made by Representative Love--only, and to try and put all these other issues out there to me is a smoke screen for what we’re really dealing with here and in your last comments, I’m happy you brought it back to what this committee is charged to. You don’t want to talk about anti-semitic comments, you don’t want to talk about criminal proceedings and consequences, you want to keep it to what we’re here to do and I just wanted to make sure that regardless of what this committee decides, it’s not because we don’t care about veterans, we don’t care about monuments, we don’t care about all of the other things we’ve talked about. There’s no one sitting up here that has to make a decision that condones what happened to that statue. Representative Love, I just find it difficult to believe when you talk about colloquial sayings when you go back to August, this summer, what was going on in our country to other Confederate statues, and the reaction on both sides of that issue, I find it almost impossible for you not to connect the dots between hanging someone from a rope from a tree and a lynching. What is a lynching? How is a lynching carried out Representative Love?”

Rep. Warren Love: It’s a question for me? It’s done by vigilante.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: How do they carry the act out?

Rep. Warren Love: They were usually a vigilante. I mean all of the old Western movies I've ever met they went and bust them out of jail and took them out and threw a rope up over a tree... I was talking about hanging. It's an old western term for punishment for stealing horses. There's just some things you just don't do.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: I don't want to talk about stealing horses. I want to talk about the comment you made in the context of defacing a confederate statute...experiencing this issue.

Rep. Warren Love: How long have we served in this House together? We've been here six years together.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: Six years together.

Rep. Warren Love: You know me well enough that if I was going to say lynching, I would have said lynching.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: But you talk about colloquial talk and connotations. The connotation of what you said- I just think you're smarter than thinking it has no meaning in regards to race. It's not cowboy talk in my opinion. Where I come from, this is not cowboy talk, it's not acceptable, and when you take the big picture of what was going on in our nation at that time and the fact that this was defacing a confederate statue I don't understand how you can interpret this any other way but in calling out a race and a punishment. Thank you Mr. Chair.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Thank you. Further inquiry? Representative Lynch.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Good afternoon Representative Love. We've known each other for quite a while, for six years, came in together at the same time, rode the freshman bus together, my first term I was a deputy whip, you were one of my floor whips, we worked closely together, we've remained friends ever since. Including today, occasionally on the floor, in a committee meeting, in the hallways, in my office, out on the street, and in here, you use all kinds of sayings in your everyday speech don't you?

Rep. Warren Love: I do.

Rep. Steve Lynch: You just can't help yourself I don't think sometimes.

Rep. Warren Love: You know another famous man name Mike [indiscernible] does that and they think he's kind of an old southern redneck, and I guess I'm just like that.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Anybody that knows you, knows you talk in, if you want to call it Western talk, or country talk or cowboy talk, I've heard a lot of those phrases that you've used over the years, I may not have used them, but I've heard most of them, you know a lot of them. Let me ask you about this phrase. When you said it, did you mean to literally go out and get whoever committed the crime, because we don't know who committed it, incite a mob, go out and get them and literally hang-lynch- them?

Rep. Warren Love: Absolutely not.

Rep. Steve Lynch: And you know, I understood that from where I am at, that you did not mean that either.

Rep. Warren Love: That's right.

Rep. Steve Lynch: That it was not literally go out and get them.

Rep. Warren Love: That's right.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Because you are correct in my part of the country, I've heard people say 'Well they oughta go out and hang them,' I've heard people say 'Well we oughta shoot them,' I've heard people say 'put them in jail and throw the key away.' None of that was to circumvent the court system, was it?

Rep. Warren Love: That's right.

Rep. Steve Lynch: It is literally to say we are extremely upset about what happened. And you were, because of your passion. And you had every right to be passionate about what you are and to get angry about what you're passionate about. And you used a phrase that I'm sure you've probably used it before, without a thought about being a racist. You used it that they would receive the full extent of the law, is that correct.

Rep. Warren Love: That's correct.

Rep. Steve Lynch: So it wasn't to be taken literally, it wasn't to incite- I've heard- people running out and mobbing together to go do something. It's just a phrase so that people understand something bad has happened, something needs to be done about it, is that correct?

Rep. Warren Love: That's correct

Rep. Steve Lynch: So there's no circumventing the law? It's just an understanding of where you're from and where I'm from, I understood immediately when I read what you meant. And there was no racism in it.

Rep. Warren Love: That's right.

Rep. Steve Lynch: I understand that you were upset and you believed that whoever did that should get the book thrown at them.

Rep. Warren Love: That's right. That's a good colloquial statement.

Rep. Steve Lynch: I'm not throwing the book literally, I'm just saying-

Rep. Warren Love: -What does that mean? Throw the book at them?

Rep. Steve Lynch: It means they get the full extent of the law and I know that you didn't mean any more than that and when you apologized! And the reason you haven't taken your statement down. As I understand it, you tell me if I'm wrong, you don't think the statement is wrong, because you know what you meant

Rep. Warren Love: That's right.

Rep. Steve Lynch: You are apologizing that others misunderstood what you said and were insulted or offended because of it. Is that correct?

Rep. Warren Love: That's correct.

Rep. Steve Lynch: Thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further Inquiry. Representative.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Thank you. Representative, I'll try to be quick, I know you've answered some of these questions to some extent so I'll try and be brief here. The difference you said between lynching and hanging from a tree is that it's done by vigilante. And you've stressed that that's the difference, right?

Rep. Warren Love: Yes

Rep. Peter Merideth: Is hanging by a tree a punishment for vandalism in Missouri?

Rep. Warren Love: You are trying to take my statement literally and as the representative here just mentioned, I didn't mean that literally. [crosstalk]

Rep. Peter Merideth: Respectfully, if you didn't mean that literally, I'm wondering why you're focused on the difference between whether you said lynching or whether you said hanging and why that was about a vigilante.

Melvin Lee Gilbert: Chairman, the talk about lynching and hanging over and over is not used to say anything [indiscernible] This body, the House of Representatives and the Missouri Senate has never approved lynching in the state of Missouri. They have approved hanging [indiscernible]. There is a difference that has been created by this body right here

Rep. Peter Merideth: So you're saying because hanging by a tree used to be legal, you're saying that that's why it's okay for you to say that they should be hung by a tree?

Melvin Lee Gilbert: What I'm talking about is the different definitions between [modern rule?] and using judicial procedures [indiscernible]

Rep. Peter Merideth: I believe I understand the distinction you're making, my point here is that if that distinction matters, the reality of using any hanging at all is, under Missouri law, that would have to be extra-judicial, because we no longer have hanging in Missouri law and we certainly, I don't believe, have the death penalty for- any kind of death penalty, even lawful death penalties- in response to vandalism. So if that distinction is what matters to you, I guess I'm saying I don't understand why, unless you actually did mean they should be hung from a tree.

Rep. Warren Love: Are you taking my statement literally?

Rep. Peter Merideth: I'm asking if you do because you're focused on the distinction between vigilantism and –

Rep. Warren Love: It has been pointed out numerous times that that was a colloquial statement, metaphor, or whatever. It did not mean that literally.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay. I'll move on from that. Thank you. We heard a lot from you about the history of lynching a little bit. You mentioned that the most recent lynching in your county was of a white man. Are you familiar with any of the statistics on how often lynching was used for African Americans versus-

Rep. Warren Love: I sure am. I've read the history books just like everybody else.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay.

Rep. Warren Love: I want you all to know that there were a hell of a lot of white people hung.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Sure and from what I've read from statements on various research that I've done just in preparation for this. It seems a lot of those white folks that were hung were also hung because they helped black folks. [Booing from the crowd]

Rep. Kevin Austin: Order, order, order.

Rep. Peter Merideth: This is a historical question we're just talking about here. Over 70% of the lynchings in Missouri were of African Americans and then of those, under 30% that were of Caucasians, they were often because [audio stops] You asked Representative McGee, how in the world African Americans could find this statement offensive. My question for you is, now that you've talked to people about this, it's not really our job in this committee to explain to you what makes this potentially offensive or not. Can you now understand how African American residents of your district, of this state, of my district, and even your colleagues in this building may have found a calling for an extra-judicial hanging, whether metaphorical or not, of vandals who vandalized a confederate monument, might have been deeply offensive, painful, and even frightening? Does that make sense to you that they might feel that way?

Rep. Warren Love: I do understand, I have apologized. Also, how do you feel when Francis Scott Key's monument was vandalized and Thomas Jefferson's monument and Christopher Columbus and Steven Foster and on and on and on. And even stones are dumped down in normal public cemeteries, how does that make you feel?

Rep. Peter Merideth: Certainly doesn't make me feel like lynching the vandals.

Rep. Warren Love: You said the word, I didn't.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay. So I think that tells me that you don't actually find that offensive – you don't understand why African Americans might find it offensive.

Rep. Warren Love: I do understand, yes. And hearing their side of the story- and I apologized for that.

Rep. Peter Merideth: I appreciate that. I have not read your apology, I don't think you sent an apology to the other members of this body. I know Senator Chapelle-Nadal sent an apology to all of her colleagues. I'm curious if you can make your apology here, in front of us, so that we can hear what exactly you are sorry for.

Rep. Warren Love: I sincerely apologize to anyone who took offense to my statement that referred to calling out the crime in Springfield National Veterans Cemetery. I am sorry.

Rep. Peter Merideth: So just so I understand correctly, you are sorry they took offense but you don't believe you said anything wrong.

Rep. Warren Love: I do not believe I said anything wrong in calling out a crime. Now if I knew it was going to cause all this [unknown word 1:34:40] I would've said some different term and I shared with you earlier what that term might have been, another term, yes.

Rep. Peter Merideth: So it's our response to your comment that has you regretting it, not the substance of the comment.

Rep. Warren Love: I am sorry I hurt anyone's feelings or infringed upon their beliefs that my statement was taken to mean something I didn't mean it to mean. I guess

Rep. Peter Merideth: I appreciate that. Thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further inquiry? Alright, seeing none, again, this is a preliminary hearing this committee can impose punishments or a judgement if you will in this case, but only by the consent of the respondent. So with that, I now address to you Representative Love, will you accept the judgement or resolution of this committee based solely on the preliminary hearing.

Rep. Warren Love: No. Yes.

Rep. Kevin Austin: You will?

Rep. Warren Love: I will.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Okay. Having said that, as a committee we now have various options allowed by the rules of procedure and I will be ready to accept any motions that we can take under and discuss. Representative?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Mr. Chair I move that this committee impose punishment of censure, which for those that haven't been familiar with the rules is a 'sanction that the conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and shall include punishment of denying privileges of office which are then recommended by this committee. Censure is a punishment that requires consideration and vote by the entire House and it would require the presence of Representative Love under our current rules.'

Rep. Kevin Austin: Any discussion? Representative Conway.

Rep. Pat Conway: Just so everyone's clear Mr. Chair, this is a motion submitted by Representative Mitten. Before we vote on this motion, are there alternative options for this committee? That to what degree, we want to, as a committee vote on this issue?

Rep. Kevin Austin: Here's how I understand our options. We can entertain a motion to dismiss. We can entertain a motion to go to an investigative hearing, or we can entertain a motion to decide the case based upon this preliminary hearing. If we decide that third way to decide the case based upon this preliminary hearing, we can have then three forms of punishment: a letter of reproof, a reprimand, or a censure. So I guess, I don't want to put words in your mouth so correct me if I'm wrong, are you saying that a motion for censure at this point is out of line because we haven't had a motion to decide the case upon the preliminary hearing?

Rep. Pat Conway: That's what I'm going with. I think that the committee should have the options of determining this. Representative Love acknowledged that he would be willing to accept what the committee does. From a personal basis, and I think I probably speak for a number of people, if not all on this committee, I don't believe anyone wants to see Representative Love removed from this body. I think Warren to me has been a good representative and I think he has apologized, so whether we go to the most severe of the three options, or one of the others, I think we should at least look at the remonstrance or other issues rather than going directly to the most severe of the three options.

Rep. Gina Mitten: Should we do this by two separate motions?

Rep. Kevin Austin: Let's do that. Will you withdraw your motion?

Rep. Gina Mitten: I will withdraw my motion. I think Representative Conway makes an excellent point. I will withdraw my motion and I will move that we proceed to make a decision based upon the evidence provided or the testimony provided in today's preliminary hearing.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Very well. Any discussion on that motion? Would you mind restating that so I don't mix up what you're saying?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Could I restate it? Sorry, so I move that the Ethics committee make a decision on the complaint based upon the evidence presented today at the preliminary hearing.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: Will that be at a different time? Or—

Rep. Gina Mitten: So I think what happens is no. I think what Representative Conway is saying is that we one, decide to make a decision based on the preliminary hearing instead of moving to go to an investigative hearing and as Representative Austin has pointed out, there are then if my motion is approved, we say yes we're going to make our decision based upon the evidence heard today, then we have three choices, those choices are: censure, remonstrance, letter of reprimand. None of those choices include expulsion.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: So what this motion is is we're going to make a decision based on this hearing and not another investigative hearing.

Rep. Gina Mitten: Correct. I think that that's what Representative Conway wanted us to do is just that as a preliminary motion saying yes that's what we're going to do next and then just again so that everybody understands, Representative Love has indicated that he would accept our decision so to make a decision at the preliminary hearing phase under our rules requires his consent to that. If he does not consent then we can always proceed, assuming a majority of the body wishes to, to an investigative hearing and then at that point the punishment could be imposed without the consent of the respondent.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: But he's already agreed?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Exactly just so that we're all on the same page as to what those rules provide.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: Which I think is the honorable thing to do.

Melvin Lee Gilbert: Chairman, may I address something? Are you speaking that there's only three options at this point?

Rep. Kevin Austin: No, there are not, there are— we can entertain a motion to dismiss, we can entertain a motion to proceed by undertaking an investigative hearing, and we've already sustained the motion that we're going to consider a decision based upon the preliminary hearing [indiscernible] but we will. Then if we do that then there's three possible options: letter of reproof, reprimand, or censure, unless all three of those fail and we will go back to the others is how I view us going through this.

Rep. Gina Mitten: And I agree with the chair's assessment.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Okay. We have not voted on Representative Mitten's motion. Any further discussion on that?

Rep. Gina Mitten: I withdrew the first motion, I made the second motion that we make a decision based upon the preliminary hearing.

Rep. Peter Merideth: I apologize for the procedural confusion. Another procedural question. If we vote to go forward with that, does that preclude the prospect of an investigative hearing?

Rep. Kevin Austin: I do not see that.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: No further discussion?

Rep. Jason Chipman: Going with these lines, if we move to agree to Representative Mitten's motion does it negate the ability to dismiss the complaint as well? Because of looking at the subparts of this section, the first is either dismiss or proceed to one of the three for going to the investigative hearing. So you're first step is picking which of the three you're going to do first. Then, if we don't dismiss, if we don't go to investigative, and we choose to decide, then we choose which of the three we're going to do.

Rep. Kevin Austin: I think we take whatever motions are as far as punishment, if those do not pass then we can still go back to the motion to dismiss or the motion to go to investigative hearing, hold on just a second.

[Discussion among the committee]

Rep. Kevin Austin: And decide the case upon the preliminary hearing. That is the motion before us. If that motion passes, then we can entertain motions for a letter of reproof, for reprimand, or censure. If one of those pass, Representative Love gets a chance to say he does not want to accept that and then we'll go back to the first option which is dismiss the complaint, or proceed by an investigative hearing. So right now before the committee, is Representative Mitten's motion to proceed with deciding the case upon the preliminary hearing, did I state that right Representative?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Yes you did. Yes Mr. Chair, I'm sorry.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Any further discussion on Representative Mitten's motion? Seeing no further discussion, I move that Representative Mitten's motion to go to decide the case based upon the preliminary hearing be passed. Madam Secretary would you please call the roll?

Committee Secretary: Representative Austin?

Rep. Kevin Austin: Aye

Committee Secretary: Mitten?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Aye

Committee Secretary: Butler?

Rep. Michael Butler: Aye

Committee Secretary: Chipman?

Rep. Jason Chipman: Aye

Committee Secretary: Conway?

Rep. Pat Conway: Aye

Committee Secretary: Haefner?

Rep. Marsha Haefner: Aye

Committee Secretary: Kolkmeier?

Rep. Glen Kolkmeier: Aye

Committee Secretary: Lynch?

Rep. Steve Lynch: Aye

Committee Secretary: McGee?

Rep. DaRon McGee: Aye

Committee Secretary: Merideth?

Rep. Peter Merideth: Aye

Rep. Kevin Austin: By a vote of 10-0 you have passed Representative Mitten's motion. Any further motions? Representative Mitten.

Rep. Gina Mitten: Thank you Mr. Chair. I move that this committee recommend that Representative Love be censured and I'm going to read this again what that means. A censure is a sanction that recognizes the conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and shall include punishment of denying privilege of office which are recommended by this committee and requires the consideration and vote by the entire House with the Representative present. My motion is that we recommend censure and we recommend that Representative Love be removed from all his committees.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Any discussion? Representative.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: I would like to know what the other options are. Like what would a reprimand- the other two options-

Rep. Gina Mitten: I have cheat sheets from the rules if you would like to look at them. So a reprimand is a sanction issued by the Speaker that recognizes the conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and may include punishment of denying privileges of office and we recommend a punishment in our report but that recommendation may or may not be taken. And the recommendation is part of the public record, but it is not done in public session and it does not require a vote of the House. The third option is a letter of reproof and a letter of reproof is a sanction that expresses the disapproval of conduct regardless of whether it constitutes a legal or moral wrong and it's basically just what you put in a committee report, it's nothing, it's just basically the report. It's part of the report that goes in the journal, so you'd have a letter of reproof that goes in your report, but your report goes in the journal anyway. It recommends no consequences. And I will say in support of my motion that censure was what happened to Senator Chappelle-Nadal. Honestly without the process that we've already entertained.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Any further discussion?

Rep. Michael Butler: Mr. Chair, I believe that censure is to the Gentleman's term "take him to the woodshed," I agree with my colleague here that I don't think anybody on this committee wants to rise the censure to the level of expulsion or anything more serious or the current recommendation for removing the Gentleman from committees is similar to other recommendations that have been made in the past. It also still allows the Gentleman to have a voice, to file bills, to vote on the House floor, to pretty much serve in every other capacity as a member rather than just sitting on a committee. More importantly, think about the number three committee, this is the third time that someone has made a complaint, whether informally or formally and to the correct people about Representative Love. I think the Representative has been forthcoming he's agreed to take his punishment and he's been very forthcoming about that. This is not the first time this committee or members of this committee have heard about instances regarding Representative Love. I think the recommendations that the lady has made are fair.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further discussion? Seeing none. All in favor of the motion to vote censure will vote aye, all opposed vote no. Madam Secretary please call the roll.

Committee Secretary: Representative Austin?

Rep. Kevin Austin: No

Committee Secretary: Mitten?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Aye

Committee Secretary: Butler?

Rep. Michael Butler: Aye

Committee Secretary: Chipman?

Rep. Jason Chipman: No

Committee Secretary: Conway?

Rep. Pat Conway: Aye

Committee Secretary: Haefner?

Rep. Marsha Haefner: No

Committee Secretary: Kolkmeier?

Rep. Glen Kolkmeier: No

Committee Secretary: Lynch?

Rep. Steve Lynch: No

Committee Secretary: McGee?

Rep. DaRon McGee: Aye

Committee Secretary: Merideth?

Rep. Peter Merideth: Aye

Rep. Kevin Austin: By a vote of 5-5 the motion has failed. Representative Mitten?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Thank you Mr. Chair. I move that this committee issue a reprimand for Representative Love. And again a reprimand is a sanction issued by the Speaker, recognizing the conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and which may include the punishment of denying privileges of office, that recommendation being part of our report. I recommend that our report include a recommendation for reprimand and a recommendation that Representative Love's punishment of the denial of privileges be removal from all of his committees. And again I think that members of the committee can disagree on sort of the relative treatment of the two sort of actions that we've been talking about today and I think we can all sort of agree to disagree about whether that's appropriate or not, we obviously get to control our own process, but I do believe that it is imperative that there be consequences for, as Representative Butler mentioned, we're at the third strike and part of why I asked the Representative some of the questions that I did is that there's a reason that we impose consequences on people for bad language and that is because it could be a mistake sometimes but at some point it becomes active behavior and we want it to stop, it's really what we want and I think it's important that this body send a message about that, so I urge everybody to support this motion.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further discussion? Representative.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: I just wanted to comment that I appreciate the Lady's motion I do support it. I think that the Speaker will make the right choices as to what the appropriate punishment should be, we all get to weigh in as a committee as to what we believe the punishment should be. But I appreciate the fact that we're not comparing one incident with another, that we're just taking this one on its own merits and making the decision based on what's in front of us now and I do support the motion.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further discussion? Representative.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Just to speak on the motion. I will say that I'm slightly conflicted on this motion. I'm frustrated to have a message sent to the public that we have a different level of treatment for comments that are offensive like this on Facebook than was held in the Senate. I also am tempted to suggest that we move for an investigative hearing instead. To be honest, based on Representative Love's conversation with Representative McGee and following conversation with myself, I'm not convinced that he understands why somebody would be offended by his comments and thinking from a more restorative approach rather than a punitive approach, could appreciate the opportunity for the public to weigh in, both supporters of Representative Love explaining what this phrase might mean to them and constituents of mine and perhaps his as well who were deeply offended, hearing from them why. I think that could be a very healthy process. That said, I don't want to walk out of here with no response so I will be supporting this motion.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Further discussion? Seeing none, all in favor of the motion to reprimand will vote aye, all opposed vote no. Madam Secretary please call the roll.

Committee Secretary: Representative Austin?

Rep. Kevin Austin: No

Committee Secretary: Mitten?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Yes

Committee Secretary: Butler?

Rep. Michael Butler: Yes

Committee Secretary: Chipman?

Rep. Jason Chipman: No

Committee Secretary: Conway?

Rep. Pat Conway: Yes

Committee Secretary: Haefner?

Rep. Marsha Haefner: Aye

Committee Secretary: Kolkmeier?

Rep. Glen Kolkmeier: No

Committee Secretary: Lynch?

Rep. Steve Lynch: No

Committee Secretary: McGee?

Rep. DaRon McGee: Yes

Committee Secretary: Merideth?

Rep. Peter Merideth: Yes

Rep. Kevin Austin: By a vote of 6-4 you have passed this motion and per the rules of procedure, Representative Love you get to again accept this or deny this and then we'll proceed accordingly.

Melvin Lee Gilbert: We would be denying that please.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Representative Mitten.

Rep. Gina Mitten: Mr. Chair I move that the committee proceed to an investigative hearing given that we've run out of options.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Any discussion? Representative.

Rep. Marsha Haefner: I go back to comments I made before. We need to make a decision based on facts and I don't know what more there could be to investigate. We have what he said, we have what this committee is charged to do. And for us to sit here through another hearing and hear the emotional testimony, the interpretations, all the different other things out there that aren't really about what this committee is charged to do. I think there would be no purpose in that, and I would not support that motion.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Representative.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Thank you. For the same reasons that I just said, I strongly support this motion. I think it would be very valuable for us to allow public input on this from our own constituents, from Representative Love's constituents and from folks around the state, both in his defense and those who were offended by his statement. I think that's a healthy process that would give us quite a bit more information to work with and make our decision. Frankly I also think that because Representative Love told us that he was ready to abide by our recommendation until he heard what our recommendation was, I have a problem with us then walking away with not even a slap on the wrist in this case where we in fact voted for a recommendation of a reprimand. And because we voted for reprimand and we were told he would abide by that vote and now he has not, I believe we should go forward with an investigative hearing.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Let me briefly address too. I think there was a comment that there's no other option, there certainly are options. If we don't have a resolution today, we still will submit a report and in that report we will certainly include the vote in favor of reprimand and that vote will be submitted to the Speaker and will be made public. Having said that, any further discussion on the motion to proceed to an investigative hearing. Representative Mitten.

Rep. Gina Mitten: Thank you. Just to clarify, regardless of what the report says these votes are going to be-they're public record anyhow and obviously they're public record, we've taken these votes on public record. The fact that we've taken these votes is public record. I frankly, I cannot express how disappointed I am in the representative for basically going back on his word. He made a commitment to this body and said that he would abide by what we decided. We made a decision, which I think was a reasonable decision, under the circumstances, it's a decision that still allows the Speaker some latitude, and despite telling us that he would abide by what this committee decided, he then decided to change his mind and I think that at a minimum, we need to be cognizant of the fact that that's really not acceptable behavior and as members of this body, we are all charged with holding ourselves to a very high standard. And honest to God, I don't know anybody in this building that doesn't believe that our word is our bond. And the fact that we've had somebody give us their word, which I take to be a bond, and has broken it, within ten minutes, is extremely disconcerting to me, and while I recognize the lady's comments about an investigative hearing, the concern that I have is that nothing will happen. If we don't move to the next step that there will be no consequences, there will be no punishment, and I think that for this body to basically condone these comments and condone the breaking of a word is a sad state of affairs. Thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Representative.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Just a quick question. Was the Representative under oath still-

Rep. Gina Mitten: Yes.

Rep. Peter Merideth: -when he agreed to abide by the decision of this committee?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Yes.

Rep. Kevin Austin: But the rules of procedure allow him to say yes then and once we vote on it say no.

Rep. Peter Merideth: So under the rules of procedure, what is the point of the initial question?

Rep. Kevin Austin: You know, I don't know, but that's what the rules say and we're going to follow them as they are.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Okay. But he was under oath when he said he would abide by the decision of the committee.

Rep. Kevin Austin: He was sworn in after the opening statement, when the inquiry began he remained sworn in.

Rep. Peter Merideth: Thank you.

Rep. Kevin Austin: Alright, seeing no further discussion. All in favor of the motion to refer this to an investigative hearing vote aye, all opposed vote no. Madam secretary please call the roll.

Committee Secretary: Representative Austin?

Rep. Kevin Austin: No

Committee Secretary: Mitten?

Rep. Gina Mitten: Aye

Committee Secretary: Butler?

Rep. Michael Butler: Aye

Committee Secretary: Chipman?

Rep. Jason Chipman: No

Committee Secretary: Conway?

Rep. Pat Conway: Aye

Committee Secretary: Haefner?

Rep. Marsha Haefner: No

Committee Secretary: Kolkmeier?

Rep. Glen Kolkmeier: No

Committee Secretary: Lynch?

Rep. Steve Lynch: No

Committee Secretary: McGee?

Rep. DaRon McGee: Aye

Committee Secretary: Merideth?

Rep. Peter Merideth: Aye

Rep. Kevin Austin: By your vote of 5-5 the motion fails. Any further motions? Seeing none, pursuant to rule 11, I would ask counsel to prepare a draft report for the committee, pursuant to rule 11 and submit it to me and the vice-chair within 30 days. I also ask the sooner, the better. Thank you sir. With that, this meeting is adjourned.

COMMUNICATIONS

February 19, 2018

Mr. Adam Crumbliss
Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol, Room 317A
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Crumbliss:

Pursuant to Section 105.461, RSMo, I am hereby filing a written report of a possible personal interest in legislation on which the House of Representatives may vote during the legislative session.

I have been working on and plan to file legislation that will deal with the regulatory environment and tax treatment of Vacation Nightly Rental Property, also sometimes referred to as Residential Dwelling Rentals in Missouri. I am writing to disclose that I own property that is to be used as Vacation Nightly Rental property in Missouri. The legislation that I plan to file will affect property owners across our state and no portion of the legislation applies only to me or any family members or associates. That being the case it is my understanding that I am free to offer the legislation and speak on its merits without restriction. I make you aware of my property ownership to avoid any perception of impropriety and to provide full transparency.

In compliance with Section 105.461, please publish this letter in the Journal of the House.

Sincerely,

/s/ Keith Frederick
District 121

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Ted L. Wojcicki, Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Dardenne, Dardenne Prairie.

Be of good courage and He shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord. (Psalm 31:24)

O Ancient God of Hosts, we come to You in prayer at the beginning of another day. Help us to live through these times with faith, hope and love. Let not our strength fail, nor our vision fade, nor our trust in You falter in the emotion and responsibility of the day. Make us patient and understanding with one another, remembering that each one faces demanding duties.

Sustain us, O God, as we desire to do our duty, to seek the best for our State, and to lead our people in right and good paths. Day by day, whatever happens, may we hold Your hand, look up to You, and strive to walk with You until our work is done and our day comes to a close.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Stella Plocher and Owen Plocher.

The Journal of the twenty-sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 2044, Page 2, Section 70.227, Line 22, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"169.020. 1. For the purpose of providing retirement allowances and other benefits for public school teachers, there is hereby created and established a retirement system which shall be a body corporate, shall be under the management of a board of trustees herein described, and shall be known as "The Public School Retirement System of Missouri". Such system shall, by and in such name, sue and be sued, transact all of its business, invest all of its funds, and hold all of its cash, securities, and other property. The system so created shall include all school districts in this state, except those in cities that had populations of four hundred thousand or more according to the latest United States decennial census, and such others as are or hereafter may be included in a similar system or in similar systems established by law and made operative; provided, that teachers in school districts of more than four hundred thousand inhabitants who are or may become members of a local retirement system may become members of this system with the same legal benefits as accrue to present members of such state system on the terms and under the conditions provided for in section 169.021. The system hereby established shall begin operations on the first day of July next following the date upon which sections 169.010 to 169.130 shall take effect.

2. The general administration and the responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system and for making effective the provisions of sections 169.010 to 169.141 are hereby vested in a board of trustees of seven persons as follows: four persons to be elected as trustees by the members and retired members of the public school retirement system created by sections 169.010 to 169.141 and the public education employee retirement system created by sections 169.600 to 169.715; and three members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The first member appointed by the governor shall replace the commissioner of education for a term beginning August 28, 1998. The other two members shall be appointed by the governor at the time each member's, who was appointed by the state board of education, term expires.

3. Trustees appointed and elected shall be chosen for terms of four years from the first day of July next following their appointment or election, except that one of the elected trustees shall be a member of the public education employee retirement system and shall be initially elected for a term of three years from July 1, 1991. The initial term of one other elected trustee shall commence on July 1, 1992.

4. Trustees appointed by the governor shall be residents of school districts included in the retirement system, but not employees of such districts or a state employee or a state elected official. At least one trustee so appointed shall be a retired member of the public school retirement system or the public education employee retirement system. Three elected trustees shall be members of the public school retirement system and one elected trustee shall be a member of the public education employee retirement system.

5. The elections of the trustees shall be arranged for, managed and conducted by the board of trustees of the retirement system.

6. If a vacancy occurs in the office of trustee, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the office was previously filled.

7. Trustees of the retirement system shall serve without compensation but they shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred through service on the board of trustees.

8. Each trustee shall be commissioned by the governor, and before entering upon the duties of the trustee's office, shall take and subscribe to an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States, and of the state of Missouri and to demean himself or herself faithfully in the trustee's office. Such oath as subscribed to shall be filed in the office of secretary of state of this state.

9. Each trustee shall be entitled to one vote in the board of trustees. Four votes shall be necessary for a decision by the trustees at any meeting of the board of trustees. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, a meeting need not be called or held to make any decision on a matter before the board. Each member must be sent by the executive director a copy of the matter to be decided with full information from the files of the board of trustees. The unanimous decision of four trustees may decide the issue by signing a document declaring their decision and sending such written instrument to the executive director of the board, provided that no other member of the board of trustees shall send a dissenting decision to the executive director of the board within fifteen days after such document and information was mailed to the trustee. If any member is not in agreement with four members the matter is to be passed on at a regular board meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose.

10. The board of trustees shall elect one of their number as chairman, and shall employ a full-time executive director, not one of their number, who shall be the executive officer of the board. Other employees of the board shall be chosen only upon the recommendation of the executive director.

11. The board of trustees shall employ an actuary who shall be its technical advisor on matters regarding the operation of the retirement system, and shall perform such duties as are essential in connection therewith, including the recommendation for adoption by the board of mortality and other necessary tables, and the recommendation of the level rate of contributions required for operation of the system.

12. As soon as practicable after the establishment of the retirement system, and annually thereafter, the actuary shall make a valuation of the system's assets and liabilities on the basis of such tables as have been adopted.

13. At least once in the three-year period following the establishment of the retirement system, and in each five-year period thereafter, the board of trustees shall cause to be made an actuarial investigation into the mortality, service, and compensation experience of the members and beneficiaries of the system, and shall make any changes in the mortality, service, and other tables then in use which the results of the investigation show to be necessary.

14. Subject to the limitations of sections 169.010 to 169.141 and 169.600 to 169.715, the board of trustees shall formulate and adopt rules and regulations for the government of its own proceedings and for the administration of the retirement system.

15. The board of trustees shall determine and decide all questions of doubt as to what constitutes employment within the meaning of sections 169.010 to 169.141 and 169.600 to 169.715, the amount of benefits to be paid to members, retired members, beneficiaries and survivors and the amount of contributions to be paid by employer and employee. The executive director shall notify by certified mail both employer and member, retired member, beneficiary or survivor interested in such determination. Any member, retired member, beneficiary or survivor, district or employer adversely affected by such determination, at any time within thirty days after being notified of such determination, may appeal to the circuit court of Cole County. Such appeal shall be tried and determined anew in the circuit court and such court shall hear and consider any and all competent testimony relative to the issues in the case, which may be offered by either party thereto. The circuit court shall determine the rights of the parties under sections 169.010 to 169.141 and 169.600 to 169.715 using the same standard provided in section 536.150, and the judgment or order of such circuit court shall be binding upon the parties and the board shall carry out such judgment or order unless an appeal is taken from such decision of the circuit court. Appeals may be had from the circuit court by the employer, member, retired member, beneficiary, survivor or the board, in the manner provided by the civil code.

16. The board of trustees shall keep a record of all its proceedings, which shall be open to public inspection. It shall prepare annually a comprehensive annual financial report, the financial section of which shall be prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards and shall include the independent auditor's opinion letter. House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 2044, Page 2, Section 70.227, Line 22, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"169.291. 1. The general administration and the responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system are hereby vested in a board of trustees of twelve persons who shall be resident taxpayers of the school district, as follows:

(1) Four trustees to be appointed for terms of four years by the board of education; provided, however, that the terms of office of the first four trustees so appointed shall begin immediately upon their appointment and shall expire one, two, three and four years from the date the retirement system becomes operative, respectively;

(2) Four trustees to be elected for terms of four years by and from the members of the retirement system; provided, however, that the terms of office of the first four trustees so elected shall begin immediately upon their election and shall expire one, two, three and four years from the date the retirement system becomes operative, respectively;

(3) The ninth trustee shall be the superintendent of schools of the school district;

(4) The tenth trustee shall be one retirant of the retirement system elected for a term of four years beginning the first day of January immediately following August 13, 1986, by the retirants of the retirement system;

(5) The eleventh trustee shall be appointed for a term of four years beginning the first day of January immediately following August 13, 1990, by the board of trustees described in subdivision (3) of section 182.701;

(6) The twelfth trustee shall be a retirant of the retirement system elected for a term of four years beginning the first day of January immediately following August 28, 1992, by the retirants of the retirement system.

2. If a vacancy occurs in the office of a trustee, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the office was previously filled, except that the board of trustees may appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy in the office of an elected member until the next regular election at which time a member shall be elected for the unexpired term. No vacancy or vacancies on the board of trustees shall impair the power of the remaining trustees to administer the retirement system pending the filling of such vacancy or vacancies.

3. In the event of a lapse of the school district's corporate organization as described in subsections 1 and 4 of section 162.081, the general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system shall continue to be vested in a twelve-person board of trustees, all of whom shall be resident taxpayers of a city, other than a city not within a county, of four hundred thousand or more. In such event, if vacancies occur in the offices of the four trustees appointed, prior to the lapse, by the board of education, or in the offices of the four trustees elected, prior to the lapse, by the members of the retirement system, or in the office of trustee held, prior to the lapse, by the superintendent of schools in the school district, as provided in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of subsection 1 of this section, the board of trustees shall appoint a qualified person to fill each vacancy and subsequent vacancies in the office of trustee for terms of up to four years, as determined by the board of trustees.

4. Each trustee shall, before assuming the duties of a trustee, take the oath of office before the court of the judicial circuit or one of the courts of the judicial circuit in which the school district is located that so far as it devolves upon the trustee, such trustee shall diligently and honestly administer the affairs of the board of trustees and that the trustee will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any of the provisions of the law applicable to the retirement system. Such oath shall be subscribed to by the trustee making it and filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court.

5. Each trustee shall be entitled to one vote in the board of trustees. Seven trustees shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of trustees. At any meeting of the board of trustees where a quorum is present, the vote of at least seven of the trustees in support of a motion, resolution or other matter is necessary to be the decision of the board; provided, however, that in the event of a lapse in the school district's corporate organization as described in subsections 1 and 4 of section 162.081, a majority of the trustees then in office shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of trustees, and the vote of a majority of the trustees then in office in support of a motion, resolution or other matter shall be necessary to be the decision of the board.

6. The board of trustees shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in all matters relating to or affecting the funds herein provided for, including, in addition to all other matters, all claims for benefits or refunds, and its action, decision or determination in any matter shall be reviewable in accordance with chapter 536 or chapter 621. Subject to the limitations of sections 169.270 to 169.400, the board of trustees shall, from time to time, establish rules and regulations for the administration of funds of the retirement system, for the transaction of its business, and for the limitation of the time within which claims may be filed.

7. The trustees shall serve without compensation. The board of trustees shall elect from its membership a chairman and a vice chairman. The board of trustees shall appoint an executive director who shall serve as the administrative officer of the retirement system and as secretary to the board of trustees. It shall employ one or more persons, firms or corporations experienced in the investment of moneys to serve as investment counsel to the board of trustees. The compensation of all persons engaged by the board of trustees and all other expenses of the board necessary for the operation of the retirement system shall be paid at such rates and in such amounts as the board of trustees shall approve, and shall be paid from the investment income.

8. The board of trustees shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuations of the various funds of the retirement system and for checking the experience of the system.

9. The board of trustees shall keep a record of all its proceedings which shall be open to public inspection. It shall prepare annually and furnish to the board of education and to each member of the retirement system who so requests a report showing the fiscal transactions of the retirement system for the preceding fiscal year, the amount of accumulated cash and securities of the system, and the last balance sheet showing the financial condition of the system by means of an actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of the retirement system.

10. The board of trustees shall have, in its own name, power to sue and to be sued, to enter into contracts, to own property, real and personal, and to convey the same; but the members of such board of trustees shall not be personally liable for obligations or liabilities of the board of trustees or of the retirement system.

11. The board of trustees shall arrange for necessary legal advice for the operation of the retirement system.

12. The board of trustees shall designate a medical board to be composed of three or more physicians who shall not be eligible for membership in the system and who shall pass upon all medical examinations required under the provisions of sections 169.270 to 169.400, shall investigate all essential statements and certificates made by or on behalf of a member in connection with an application for disability retirement and shall report in writing to the board of trustees its conclusions and recommendations upon all matters referred to it.

13. The board of trustees shall designate an actuary who shall be the technical advisor of the board of trustees on matters regarding the operation of the retirement system and shall perform such other duties as are required in connection therewith. Such person shall be qualified as an actuary by membership as a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries or by similar objective standards.

14. At least once in each five-year period the actuary shall make an investigation into the actuarial experience of the members, retirants and beneficiaries of the retirement system and, taking into account the results of such investigation, the board of trustees shall adopt for the retirement system such actuarial assumptions as the board of trustees deems necessary for the financial soundness of the retirement system.

15. On the basis of such actuarial assumptions as the board of trustees adopts, the actuary shall make annual valuations of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the retirement system.

16. The rate of contribution payable by the employers shall equal one and ninety-nine one-hundredths percent, effective July 1, 1993; three and ninety-nine one-hundredths percent, effective July 1, 1995; five and ninety-nine one-hundredths percent, effective July 1, 1996; seven and one-half percent effective January 1, 1999, and for subsequent calendar years through 2013. For calendar year 2014 and each subsequent year, the rate of contribution payable by the employers for each year shall be determined ~~[by the actuary for the retirement system in the manner]~~ as provided in ~~[subsection]~~ subsections 4 and 6 of section 169.350 and shall be certified by the board of trustees to the employers at least six months prior to the date such rate is to be effective.

17. In the event of a lapse of a school district's corporate organization as described in subsections 1 and 4 of section 162.081, no retirement system, nor any of the assets of any retirement system, shall be transferred to or merged with another retirement system without prior approval of such transfer or merge by the board of trustees of the retirement system.

169.324. 1. The annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 shall be the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by a percentage of the retirant's average final compensation, determined as follows:

(1) A retirant whose last employment as a regular employee ended prior to June 30, 1999, shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of the person's average final compensation, subject to a maximum of sixty percent of the person's average final compensation;

(2) A retirant whose number of years of creditable service is greater than thirty-four and one-quarter on August 28, 1993, shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service as of August 28, 1993, multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of the person's average final compensation but shall not receive a greater annual service retirement allowance based on additional years of creditable service after August 28, 1993;

(3) A retirant who was an active member of the retirement system at any time on or after June 30, 1999, and who either retires before January 1, 2014, or is a member of the retirement system on December 31, 2013, and remains a member continuously to retirement shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by two percent of the person's average final compensation, subject to a maximum of sixty percent of the person's final compensation;

(4) A retirant who becomes a member of the retirement system on or after January 1, 2014, including any retirant who was a member of the retirement system before January 1, 2014, but ceased to be a member for any reason other than retirement, shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of the person's average final compensation, subject to a maximum of sixty percent of the person's average final compensation;

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (1) to (4) of this subsection, effective January 1, 1996, any retirant who retired on, before or after January 1, 1996, with at least twenty years of creditable service shall receive at least three hundred dollars each month as a retirement allowance, or the actuarial equivalent thereof if the retirant elected any of the options available under section 169.326. Any retirant who retired with at least ten years of creditable service shall receive at least one hundred fifty dollars each month as a retirement allowance, plus fifteen dollars for each additional full year of creditable service greater than ten years but less than twenty years (or the actuarial equivalent thereof if the retirant elected any of the options available under section 169.326). Any beneficiary of a deceased retirant who retired with at least ten years of creditable service and elected one of the options available under section 169.326 shall also be entitled to the actuarial equivalent of the minimum benefit provided by this subsection, determined from the option chosen.

2. Except as otherwise provided in sections 169.331 and 169.585, payment of a retirant's retirement allowance will be suspended for any month for which such person receives remuneration from the person's employer or from any other employer in the retirement system established by section 169.280 for the performance of services except any such person other than a person receiving a disability retirement allowance under section 169.322 may serve as a nonregular substitute, part-time or temporary employee for not more than six hundred hours in any school year without becoming a member and without having the person's retirement allowance discontinued, provided that through such substitute, part-time, or temporary employment, the person may earn no more than fifty percent of the annual salary or wages the person was last paid by the employer before the person retired and commenced receiving a retirement allowance, adjusted for inflation. If a person exceeds such hours limit or such compensation limit, payment of the person's retirement allowance shall be suspended for the month in which such limit was exceeded and each subsequent month in the school year for which the person receives remuneration from any employer in the retirement system. In addition to the conditions set forth above, the restrictions of this subsection shall also apply to any person retired and currently receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.270 to 169.400, other than for disability, who is employed by a third party or is performing work as an independent contractor if the services performed by such person are provided to or for the benefit of any employer in the retirement system established under section 169.280. The retirement system may require the employer receiving such services, the third-party employer, the independent contractor, and the retirant subject to this subsection to provide documentation showing compliance with this subsection. If such documentation is not provided, the retirement system may deem the retirant to have exceeded the limitations provided for in this subsection. If a retirant is reemployed by any employer in any capacity, whether pursuant to this section, or section 169.331 or 169.585, or as a regular employee, the amount of such person's retirement allowance attributable to service prior to the person's first retirement date shall not be changed by the reemployment. If the person again becomes an active member and earns additional creditable service, upon the person's second retirement the person's retirement allowance shall be the sum of:

(1) The retirement allowance the person was receiving at the time the person's retirement allowance was suspended, pursuant to the payment option elected as of the first retirement date, plus the amount of any increase in such retirement allowance the person would have received pursuant to subsection 3 of this section had payments not been suspended during the person's reemployment; and

(2) An additional retirement allowance computed using the benefit formula in effect on the person's second retirement date, the person's creditable service following reemployment, and the person's average final annual compensation as of the second retirement date.

The sum calculated pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed the greater of sixty percent of the person's average final compensation as of the second retirement date or the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection. Compensation earned prior to the person's first retirement date shall be considered in determining the person's average final compensation as of the second retirement date if such compensation would otherwise be included in determining the person's average final compensation.

3. The board of trustees shall determine annually whether the investment return on funds of the system can provide for an increase in benefits for retirants eligible for such increase. A retirant shall and will be eligible for an increase awarded pursuant to this section as of the second January following the date the retirant commenced receiving retirement benefits. Any such increase shall also apply to any monthly joint and survivor retirement allowance payable to such retirant's beneficiaries, regardless of age. The board shall make such determination as follows:

(1) After determination by the actuary of the investment return for the preceding year as of December thirty-first (the "valuation year"), the actuary shall recommend to the board of trustees what portion of the investment return is available to provide such benefits increase, if any, and shall recommend the amount of such benefits increase, if any, to be implemented as of the first day of the thirteenth month following the end of the valuation year, and first payable on or about the first day of the fourteenth month following the end of the valuation year. The actuary shall make such recommendations so as not to affect the financial soundness of the retirement system, recognizing the following safeguards:

(a) The retirement system's funded ratio as of January first of the year preceding the year of a proposed increase shall be at least one hundred percent ~~after~~ before adjusting for the effect of the proposed increase. The funded ratio is the ratio of assets to the pension benefit obligation;

(b) The actuarially required contribution rate, ~~after~~ before adjusting for the effect of the proposed increase, may not exceed the then applicable employer and member contribution rate as determined under ~~subsection~~ subsections 4, 5, and 6 of section 169.350;

(c) The actuary shall certify to the board of trustees that the proposed increase will not impair the actuarial soundness of the retirement system;

(d) A benefit increase, under this section, once awarded, cannot be reduced in succeeding years;

(2) The board of trustees shall review the actuary's recommendation and report and shall, in their discretion, determine if any increase is prudent and, if so, shall determine the amount of increase to be awarded.

4. This section does not guarantee an annual increase to any retiree.

5. If an inactive member becomes an active member after June 30, 2001, and after a break in service, unless the person earns at least four additional years of creditable service without another break in service, upon retirement the person's retirement allowance shall be calculated separately for each separate period of service ending in a break in service. The retirement allowance shall be the sum of the separate retirement allowances computed for each such period of service using the benefit formula in effect, the person's average final compensation as of the last day of such period of service and the creditable service the person earned during such period of service; provided, however, if the person earns at least four additional years of creditable service without another break in service, all of the person's creditable service prior to and including such service shall be aggregated and, upon retirement, the retirement allowance shall be computed using the benefit formula in effect and the person's average final compensation as of the last day of such period of four or more years and all of the creditable service the person earned prior to and during such period.

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in this section to the contrary, the amount of the annual service retirement allowance payable to any retiree pursuant to the provisions of sections 169.270 to 169.400, including any adjustments made pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, shall at all times comply with the provisions and limitations of Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder, the terms of which are specifically incorporated herein by reference.

7. All retirement systems established by the laws of the state of Missouri shall develop a procurement action plan for utilization of minority and women money managers, brokers and investment counselors. Such retirement systems shall report their progress annually to the joint committee on public employee retirement and the governor's minority advocacy commission.

169.350. 1. All of the assets of the retirement system (other than tangible real or personal property owned by the retirement system for use in carrying out its duties, such as office supplies and furniture) shall be credited, according to the purpose for which they are held, in either the employees' contribution fund or the general reserve fund.

(1) The employees' contribution fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions of the members. The employer shall, except as provided in subdivision (5) of this subsection, cause to be deducted from the compensation of each member on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period, the pro rata portion of five and nine-tenths percent of his annualized compensation. Effective January 1, 1999, through December 31, 2013, the employer shall deduct an additional one and six-tenths percent of the member's annualized compensation. For 2014 and for each subsequent year, the employer shall deduct from each member's annualized compensation the rate of contribution determined for such year ~~[by the actuary for the retirement system in the manner]~~ as provided in subsections 4, 5, and 6 of this section.

(2) The employer shall pay all such deductions and any amount it may elect to pay pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection to the retirement system at once. The retirement system shall credit such deductions and such amounts to the individual account of each member from whose compensation the deduction was made or with respect to whose compensation the amount was paid pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection. In determining the deduction for a member in any payroll period, the board of trustees may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the first day of the payroll period as continuing throughout such period.

(3) The deductions provided for herein are declared to be a part of the compensation of the member and the making of such deductions shall constitute payments by the member out of the person's compensation and such deductions shall be made notwithstanding that the amount actually paid to the member after such deductions is less than the minimum compensation provided by law for any member. Every member shall be deemed to consent to the deductions made and provided for herein, and shall receipt for the person's full compensation, and the making of the deduction and the payment of compensation less the deduction shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for services rendered during the period covered by the payment except as to benefits provided by sections 169.270 to 169.400.

(4) The accumulated contributions with interest of a member withdrawn by the person or paid to the person's estate or designated beneficiary in the event of the person's death before retirement shall be paid from the employees' contribution fund. Upon retirement of a member the member's accumulated contributions with interest shall be transferred from the employees' contribution fund to the general reserve fund.

(5) The employer may elect to pay on behalf of all members all or part of the amount that the members would otherwise be required to contribute to the employees' contribution fund pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection. Such amounts paid by the employer shall be in lieu of members' contributions and shall be treated for all purposes of sections 169.270 to 169.400 as contributions made by members. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, no member shall be entitled to receive such amounts directly. The election shall be made by a duly adopted resolution of the employer's board and shall remain in effect for at least one year from the effective date thereof. The election may be thereafter terminated only by an affirmative act of the employer's board notwithstanding any limitation in the term thereof in the adopting resolution. Any such termination resolution shall be adopted at least sixty days prior to the effective date thereof, and the effective date thereof shall coincide with a fiscal year-end of the employer. In the absence of such a termination resolution, the election shall remain in effect from fiscal year to fiscal year.

2. The general reserve fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated all reserves for the payment of all benefit expenses and other demands whatsoever upon the retirement system except those items heretofore allocated to the employees' contribution fund.

(1) All contributions by the employer, except those the employer elects to make on behalf of the members pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 1 of this section, shall be credited to the general reserve fund.

(2) Should a retirant be restored to active service and again become a member of the retirement system, the excess, if any, of the person's accumulated contributions over benefits received by the retirant shall be transferred from the general reserve fund to the employees' contribution fund and credited to the person's account.

3. Gifts, devises, bequests and legacies may be accepted by the board of trustees and deposited in the general reserve fund to be held, invested and used at its discretion for the benefit of the retirement system except where specific direction for the use of a gift is made by a donor.

4. Beginning in 2013, the actuary for the retirement system shall annually calculate the rate of employer contributions and member contributions for 2014 and for each subsequent calendar year through 2018, expressed as a level percentage of the annualized compensation of the members, subject to the following:

(1) The rate of contribution for any calendar year shall be determined based on an actuarial valuation of the retirement system as of the first day of the prior calendar year. Such actuarial valuation shall be performed using the actuarial cost method and actuarial assumptions adopted by the board of trustees and in accordance with accepted actuarial standards of practice in effect at the time the valuation is performed, as promulgated by the actuarial standards board or its successor;

(2) The target combined employer and member contribution rate shall be the amount actuarially required to cover the normal cost and amortize any unfunded accrued actuarial liability over a period that shall not exceed thirty years from the date of the valuation;

(3) The target combined rate as so determined shall be allocated equally between the employer contribution rate and the member contribution rate, provided, however, that the level rate of contributions to be paid by the employers and the level rate of contributions to be deducted from the compensation of members for any calendar year shall each be limited as follows:

(a) The contribution rate shall not be less than seven and one-half percent;

(b) The contribution rate shall not exceed nine percent; and

(c) Changes in the contribution rate from year to year shall be in increments of one-half percent such that the contribution rate for any year shall not be greater than or less than the rate in effect for the prior year by more than one-half percent;

(4) The board of trustees shall certify to the employers the contribution rate for the following calendar year no later than six months prior to the date such rate is to be effective.

5. The member contribution rate for 2019 and subsequent periods shall be nine percent of compensation unless a lower member contribution rate applies for any period beginning on or after July 1, 2021, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (4) of subsection 6 of this section.

6. The employer contribution rate for calendar year 2019 shall be ten and one-half percent. The employer contribution rate for the eighteen-month period beginning January 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, shall be twelve percent. For the twelve-month period beginning July 1, 2021, and for each subsequent twelve-month period beginning July first each year, the employer contribution rate shall be determined as follows:

(1) The actuary shall determine the total actuarially required contribution based on an actuarial valuation of the retirement system as of the first day of the preceding calendar year. Such actuarial valuation shall be performed using the actuarial cost method and actuarial assumptions adopted by the board of trustees and in accordance with actuarial standards of practice applicable as of the valuation date. The total actuarially required contribution rate, including both employer and member contributions, shall be an amount determined in accordance with the board's current funding policy, expressed as a level percentage of the annualized compensation of the members;

(2) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year is below one hundred percent, the employer contribution rate shall be the greater of twelve percent or the difference between the total actuarially required contribution rate and the nine percent member contribution rate, subject to the limits on annual adjustments stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(3) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year equals or exceeds one hundred percent and the total actuarially required contribution rate exceeds eighteen percent, the employer contribution rate shall be the difference between the total actuarially required contribution rate and the nine percent member contribution rate, subject to the limits on annual adjustments stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(4) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year equals or exceeds one hundred percent and the total actuarially required contribution rate does not exceed eighteen percent, the total actuarially required contribution rate shall be allocated equally between the employer contribution rate and the member contribution rate. If the total actuarially required contribution rate falls below eighteen percent after being above eighteen percent for the preceding twelve-month period, the member contribution rate and the employer contribution rate shall be adjusted to one-half of the total actuarially required contribution rate for such period, regardless of the magnitude of the decrease from the rate in effect for the prior period, in order to equalize the employer and member contribution rates. Otherwise, adjustments in the contribution rates shall be limited by the annual adjustment limits stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(5) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year again falls below one hundred percent, or if the total actuarially required contribution rate rises above eighteen percent, the provisions of subdivision (2) or (3) of this subsection shall apply, as applicable, subject to the limits on annual adjustments stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(6) Except as stated in subdivision (4) of this subsection, in transitioning to the contribution rates prescribed in this subsection for periods beginning on or after July 1, 2021, the employer contribution rate and the member contribution rate, respectively, shall not increase by more than one percent or decrease by more than one-half percent for any period from the corresponding rate in effect immediately before such increase or decrease; and

(7) The board of trustees shall certify to the employers the contribution rate to be effective for July 1, 2021, and for each following July first, no later than six months prior to the date such rate is to be effective.

169.360. 1. Before the first of July of each year, the board of trustees shall certify to each employer the amounts which will become due and payable from each during the school year next following to the general reserve fund. The amount so certified shall be appropriated by each employer's board by a resolution explicitly directing the appropriate officials to pay the same, not later than July twenty-fifth of each year and transferred to the retirement system on or before December thirty-first of the same year.

2. Effective January 1, 2019, each employer shall transfer its employer contributions to the retirement system promptly following the end of each payroll period at the time the employer transfers member contributions."; and Representative Remole offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Bill No. 2044, Page 2, Section 70.227, Line 22, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"278.157. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 70.600 to the contrary, a soil and water conservation district organized under sections 278.060 to 278.155 shall be considered a political subdivision for the purposes of sections 70.600 to 70.755, and employees of such a soil and water conservation district shall be eligible for membership in the Missouri local government employees' retirement system upon the soil and water district becoming an "employer" as defined in subdivision (11) of section 70.600.

2. 195.2230. 1. (1) A marijuana transporter license may be issued to a person to provide logistics, distribution, and storage of marijuana and marijuana products. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, a marijuana transporter license is valid for two years and cannot be transferred with a change of ownership. A marijuana transporter is responsible for the marijuana and marijuana products once it takes control of the product.

(2) A marijuana transporter may contract with multiple marijuana establishments.

(3) All marijuana transporters shall hold a valid marijuana transporter license, except that an entity licensed under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 that provides its own distribution is not required to have a marijuana transporter license to transport and distribute its products.

2. A marijuana transporter may maintain a licensed premises to temporarily store marijuana and marijuana products and to use as a centralized distribution point. The licensed premises shall be located in a jurisdiction that permits the operation of retail marijuana stores. A storage facility shall meet the same security requirements that are required of a wholesale marijuana-cultivation facility.

3. A marijuana transporter shall use the seed-to-sale tracking system developed under section 195.2209 to create shipping manifests documenting the transport of marijuana and marijuana products throughout the state.

4. A marijuana transporter licensee may:

195.2233. A marijuana business operator license may be issued to a person who operates a marijuana establishment licensed under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281, who is an owner licensed under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281, or who may receive a portion of the profits as compensation.

195.2236. 1. The division shall charge and collect fees under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281. The application fee for a person applying for a license under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall be five hundred dollars. The division shall transfer two hundred fifty dollars of the fee to the marijuana cash fund established in subsection 3 of this sections and submit two hundred fifty dollars to the locality in which the license is proposed to be issued.

2. A locality in which a license under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 is permitted may adopt and impose operating fees in an amount determined by the locality on marijuana establishments within its jurisdiction.

3. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Marijuana Cash Fund", which shall consist of moneys collected under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. In accordance with sections 30.170 and 30.180, the state treasurer may approve disbursements. The fund shall be a dedicated fund and, upon appropriation, moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the administration of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080 to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund.

(3) The state treasurer shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

195.2239. 1. Before October 1, 2020, each locality shall enact an ordinance or regulation specifying the entity within the locality that is responsible for processing applications submitted for a license to operate a marijuana establishment within the boundaries of the locality and for the issuance of such licenses should the issuance by the locality become necessary because of a failure by the division to adopt regulations or because of a failure by the division to process and issue licenses under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281.

2. A locality may enact ordinances or regulations, not in conflict with sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 or with rules and regulations, to:

(1) Govern the time, place, manner, and number of marijuana establishment operations;

(2) Establish procedures for the issuance, suspension, and revocation of a license issued by the locality in accordance with sections 195.2200 to 195.2281;

(3) Establish a schedule of annual operating, licensing, and application fees for marijuana establishments, provided that the application fee shall only be due if an application is submitted to a locality in accordance with sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 and provided that a licensing fee shall only be due if a license is issued by a locality in accordance with sections 195.2200 to 195.2281; and

(4) Establish civil penalties for violation of an ordinance or regulation governing the time, place, and manner of a marijuana establishment that may operate in such locality.

A locality may prohibit the operation of wholesale marijuana-cultivation facilities, wholesale marijuana-product manufacturing facilities, marijuana testing facilities, or retail marijuana stores through the enactment of an ordinance or through an initiated or referred measure, provided that any initiative or referendum measure to prohibit the operation of any marijuana establishment shall appear on a general election ballot.

3. If the division receives an application for original licensing or renewal of an existing license for any marijuana establishment, the division shall provide, within seven days, a copy of the application to the locality in which the establishment is to be located. The locality shall determine whether the application complies with local restrictions on time, place, manner, and number of marijuana businesses. The locality shall inform the division whether the application complies with local restrictions on time, place, manner, and number of marijuana businesses.

4. A locality may impose a separate local licensing requirement as a part of its restrictions on time, place, manner, and number of marijuana businesses. A locality may decline to impose any local licensing requirements, but a locality shall notify the division that it either approves or denies each application it receives.

5. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2018, shall be invalid and void.

195.2242. 1. If a locality issues local licenses for a marijuana establishment, a locality may schedule a public hearing on the application. If the locality schedules a hearing, it shall post and publish public notice thereof no later than ten days prior to the hearing. The locality shall give public notice by posting a sign in a conspicuous place on the license applicant's premises for which a local license application has been made and by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the applicant's premises are to be located.

2. If a locality does not issue local licenses, the locality may give public notice of the state license application by posting a sign in a conspicuous place on the state license applicant's premises for which a state license application has been made and by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the applicant's premises are located.

195.2245. 1. Applications for a state license under the provisions of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall be made to the division on forms prepared and furnished by the division and shall set forth such information as the division may require to enable the division to determine whether a state license should be granted. The information shall include the name and address of the applicant and the names and addresses of the officers, directors, or managers. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such person or persons as the division may prescribe. The division may issue a state license to an applicant under this section upon completion of the applicable criminal history background check associated with the application, and the state license is conditioned upon locality approval. A license applicant is prohibited from operating a marijuana establishment without the division's and locality's approval. If the applicant does not receive locality approval within one year from the date of the division's approval, the state license shall expire and shall not be renewed. If an application is denied by the local licensing authority, the division shall revoke the state-issued license.

2. Nothing in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 preempts or otherwise impairs the power of a local government to enact ordinances or resolutions concerning matters authorized to local governments.

195.2248. 1. Localities are authorized to adopt and enforce regulations for marijuana establishments that are at least as restrictive as the provisions of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 and any rule promulgated by the division.

2. A marijuana establishment shall not operate until it is licensed by the division under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 and approved by the locality. In connection with a license, the applicant shall provide a complete and accurate application as required by the division.

3. A marijuana establishment shall notify the division in writing of the name, address, and date of birth of an owner, officer, or manager before the new owner, officer, or manager begins managing, owning, or associating with the operation. The owner, officer, manager, or employee shall pass a fingerprint-based criminal history record check as required by the division and obtain the required identification prior to being associated with, managing, owning, or working at the operation.

4. A marijuana establishment shall not acquire, possess, cultivate, deliver, transfer, transport, supply, or dispense marijuana for any purpose except as provided in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281.

5. All managers and employees of a marijuana establishment shall be residents of Missouri upon the date of their license application. All licenses granted under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 are valid for a period of one year after the date of issuance unless revoked or suspended under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 or the rules promulgated.

6. Before granting a state license, the division may consider, except if specifically provided otherwise in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281, the requirements of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 and any rules promulgated, and all other reasonable restrictions that are or may be placed upon the licensee by the division or locality.

7. (1) Each license issued under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 is separate and distinct. It is unlawful for a person to exercise any of the privileges granted under a license other than the license that the person holds or for a licensee to allow any other person to exercise the privileges granted under the licensee's license. A separate license shall be required for each specific business or business entity and each geographical location.

(2) At all times, a licensee shall possess and maintain possession of the premises for which the license is issued by ownership, lease, rental, or other arrangement for possession of the premises.

8. The licenses issued under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall specify the date of issuance, the period of licensure, the name of the licensee, and the premises licensed. The licensee shall conspicuously place the license on the licensed premises at all times.

9. In computing any time prescribed by sections 195.2200 to 195.2281, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated time begins to run shall not be included. Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be counted as any other day.

10. Each licensee shall manage the licensed premises himself or herself or employ a separate and distinct manager on the licensed premises and shall report the name of the manager to the division and local licensing authority. The licensee shall report any change in manager to the division and local licensing authority within seven days after the change.

195.2251. 1. A tax shall be levied upon the sale of marijuana or transfer of marijuana by a wholesale marijuana-cultivation facility to a wholesale marijuana-product manufacturing facility or to a retail marijuana store at a rate of twenty percent. The department of revenue shall direct the division to establish procedures for the collection of all taxes levied. The tax shall be evidenced by stamps, which shall be furnished by and purchased from the department of revenue, and the department shall enforce any such tax in a manner similar to taxes levied on cigarettes under chapter 149.

2. All such tax revenue shall be deposited to the credit of the general revenue; however, no more than ten percent shall be used to fund higher education, ten percent to fund elementary and secondary education, and five percent to fund programs assisting children with mental health issues, and no such tax revenue shall be used to fund any pension or public retirement plan.

3. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a locality from imposing its own sales tax or a sales tax upon consumers.

195.2254. 1. The division shall deny a state license if the premises on which the applicant proposes to conduct its business does not meet the requirements set forth under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281. The division may refuse or deny a license renewal, reinstatement, or initial license issuance for good cause. For purposes of this subsection, "good cause" means:

(1) The licensee or applicant has violated, does not meet, or has failed to comply with any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281; any rules promulgated; or any supplemental local law, rule, or regulation;

(2) The licensee or applicant has failed to comply with any special terms or conditions that were placed on its license under an order of the division or local licensing authority; or

(3) The licensed premises has been operated in a manner that adversely affects the public health or the safety of the immediate neighborhood in which the establishment is located.

2. If the division denies a state license under subsection 1 of this section, the applicant shall be entitled to a hearing. The division shall provide written notice of the grounds for denial of the state license to the applicant and to the locality no later than fifteen days prior to the hearing.

195.2257. 1. In addition to any other sanctions prescribed by sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 or any rules promulgated, the division has the power, on its own motion or upon complaint and after investigation and opportunity for a public hearing at which the licensee shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard, to fine a licensee or to suspend or revoke a license issued by the division for a violation by the licensee or by any of the agents or employees of the licensee of the provisions of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281, any of the rules promulgated, or any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of the license issued by the division. The division has the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and the production of papers, books, and records necessary to the determination of a hearing that the division is authorized to conduct.

2. The division shall provide notice of suspension, revocation, fine, or other sanction, as well as the required notice of the hearing under subsection 1 of this section, by mailing the same in writing to the licensee at the address contained in the license and, if different, at the last address furnished to the division or locality by the licensee. Except in the case of a summary suspension, a suspension shall not be for a period longer than six months. If a license is suspended or revoked, a part of the fees paid therefor shall not be returned to the licensee. Any license may be summarily suspended by the division without notice pending any prosecution, investigation, or public hearing. Nothing in this section shall prevent the summary suspension of a license.

195.2260. 1. Every licensee licensed under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall be deemed, by virtue of applying for, holding, or renewing such person's license, to have expressly consented to the procedures set forth in this section.

2. The division or locality shall not be required to cultivate or care for any marijuana or marijuana product belonging to or seized from a licensee. The division or locality shall not be authorized to sell marijuana, retail or otherwise.

3. If the division issues a final agency order imposing a disciplinary action against a licensee under section 195.2254, then, in addition to any other remedies, the division's or locality's final agency order may specify that some or all of the licensee's marijuana or marijuana product is not marijuana or a marijuana product and is an illegal controlled substance. The order may further specify that the licensee shall lose any interest in any of the marijuana or marijuana product even if the marijuana or marijuana product previously qualified as marijuana or a marijuana product. The final agency order may direct the destruction of any such marijuana and marijuana products, except as provided under subsections 4 and 5 of this section. The authorized destruction may include the incidental destruction of any containers, equipment, supplies, and other property associated with the marijuana or marijuana product.

4. Following the issuance of a final agency order by the division against a licensee and ordering destruction authorized by subsection 3 of this section, a licensee shall have fifteen days within which to file a petition for stay of agency action with the circuit court. The action shall be filed in the circuit court of Cole County. The licensee shall serve the petition in accordance with the Missouri rules of civil procedure. The circuit court shall promptly rule upon the petition and determine whether the licensee has a substantial likelihood of success on judicial review so as to warrant delay of the destruction authorized by subsection 3 of this section or whether other circumstances warrant delay of such destruction including, but not limited to, the need for preservation of evidence. If destruction is so delayed under judicial order, the court shall issue an order setting forth terms and conditions under which the licensee may maintain the marijuana and marijuana product pending judicial review and prohibiting the licensee from using or distributing the marijuana or marijuana product pending the review. The division shall not carry out the destruction authorized by subsection 3 of this section until fifteen days have passed without the filing of a petition for stay of agency action or until the court has issued an order denying stay of agency action under this subsection.

5. A prosecuting attorney shall notify the division if it begins investigating a marijuana establishment. If the division has received notification from a prosecuting attorney that an investigation is being conducted, the division shall not destroy any marijuana or marijuana products from the marijuana establishment until the destruction is approved by the prosecuting attorney.

195.2263. 1. Each licensee shall keep a complete set of all records necessary to show fully the business transactions of the licensee, all of which shall be open at all times during business hours for the inspection and examination by the division or its duly authorized representatives. The division may require any licensee to furnish such information as it considers necessary for the proper administration of sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 and may require an audit to be made of the books of account and records on such occasions as it may consider necessary by an auditor to be selected by the division, who shall likewise have access to all books and records of the licensee, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the licensee.

2. The licensed premises, including any places of storage where marijuana or marijuana products are stored, cultivated, sold, dispensed, or tested shall be subject to inspection by the division or locality and its investigators, during all business hours and other times of apparent activity, for the purpose of inspection or investigation. Access shall be required during business hours for examination of any inventory or books and records required to be kept by the licensees. If any part of the licensed premises consists of a locked area, upon demand to the licensee, such area shall be made available for inspection without delay, and, upon request by authorized representatives of the division or locality, the licensee shall open the area for inspection.

3. Each licensee shall retain all books and records necessary to show fully the business transactions of the licensee for a period of the current tax year and the three immediately preceding tax years.

195.2266. If the division does not issue a license to an applicant within ninety days of receipt of the application filed in accordance with sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 and does not notify the applicant of the specific reason for the denial in writing and within such time period or if the division has adopted rules and regulations and has accepted applications but has not issued any licenses by January 1, 2021, the applicant may resubmit its application directly to the locality, and the locality may issue an annual license to the applicant. A locality issuing a license to an applicant shall do so within ninety days of receipt of the resubmitted application unless the locality finds and notifies the applicant that the applicant is not in compliance with any ordinance or regulation, and the locality shall notify the division if an annual license has been issued to the applicant. If an application is submitted to a locality under this section, the division shall forward to the locality the application fee paid by the applicant to the division upon request by the locality. A license issued by a locality in accordance with this section shall have the same force and effect as a license issued by the division. A subsequent or renewed license may be issued under this section on an annual basis only upon resubmission to the locality of a new application submitted to the division.

195.2269. If the division does not adopt rules and regulations required by sections 195.2200 to 195.2281, an applicant may submit an application directly to a locality after October 1, 2020, and the locality may issue an annual license to the applicant. A locality issuing a license to an applicant shall do so within ninety days of receipt of the application unless it finds and notifies the applicant that the applicant is not in compliance with any ordinance or regulation and shall notify the division if an annual license has been issued to the applicant. A license issued by a locality in accordance with this subsection shall have the same force and effect as a license issued by the division in accordance with sections 195.2200 to 195.2281. A subsequent or renewed license may be issued under this section on an annual basis if the division has not adopted regulations required by sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 at least ninety days prior to the date upon which such subsequent or renewed license would be effective or if the division has adopted regulations but has not, at least ninety days after the adoption of such regulations, issued licenses under sections 195.2200 to 195.2281.

195.2272. Nothing in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall require an employer to permit or accommodate the use, consumption, possession, transfer, display, transportation, sale, or growing of marijuana in the workplace or to affect the ability of employers to have policies restricting the use of marijuana by employees.

195.2275. Nothing in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall allow driving under the influence of marijuana or driving while impaired by marijuana or to supersede statutory laws related to driving under the influence of marijuana or driving while impaired by marijuana, nor shall sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 prevent the state from enacting and imposing penalties for driving under the influence of or while impaired by marijuana.

195.2278. Nothing in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall permit the transfer of marijuana, with or without remuneration, to a person under twenty-one years of age or to allow a person under twenty-one years of age to purchase, possess, use, transport, grow, or consume marijuana.

195.2281. Nothing in sections 195.2200 to 195.2281 shall prohibit a person, employer, school, hospital, detention facility, corporation, or any other entity that occupies, owns, or controls a property from prohibiting or otherwise regulating the possession, consumption, use, display, transfer, distribution, sale, transportation, or growing of marijuana on or in such property."; and lost overboard. As used in this section, the term "adequate guards or railing" means guards or railings having a height parameter of at least six inches but not more than eighteen inches. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that passengers or other persons aboard a motorboat cannot occupy the decking over the bow of the boat to moor it to a mooring buoy or to cast off from such a buoy, or for any other necessary purpose. The provisions of this section shall not apply to vessels propelled by sail or vessels propelled by outboard jet motors operating on a stretch of waterway not created or widened by impoundment.

2. Whenever any person leaves any watercraft, other than a personal watercraft, on the waters of the Mississippi River, the waters of the Missouri River or the lakes of this state and enters the water between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and sunset, the operator of such watercraft shall display on the watercraft a red or orange flag measuring not less than twelve inches by twelve inches. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to watercraft that is moored or anchored. The flag required by this subsection shall be visible for three hundred sixty degrees around the horizon when displayed and shall be displayed only when an occupant of the watercraft has left the confines of the watercraft and entered the water. The flag required by this subsection shall not be displayed when the watercraft is engaged in towing any person, but shall be displayed when such person has ceased being towed and has reentered the water.

3. No operator shall knowingly operate any watercraft within fifty yards of a flag required by subsection 2 of this section at a speed in excess of a slow-no wake speed."; and

Separate rules, however, apply at international borders and airports, and for individuals on certain nonimmigrant visas, including tourists and business travelers;

(7) If you are not a United States citizen and an immigration agent requests your immigration papers, you are required to show the papers if you have them with you. If you are eighteen years of age or older, carry your immigration documents with you at all times; if you do not have immigration papers, you should state that you want to remain silent;

(8) Police misconduct cannot be challenged on the street; do not physically resist officers or threaten to file a complaint;

(9) Write down everything you remember, including law enforcement officer badge and patrol car numbers, the agency the officers were from, and any other pertinent details. Obtain contact information for witnesses. If you are injured, take photographs of your injuries, but seek medical attention first;

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 1998, Page 2, Section 620.3150, Line 30, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"5. A report shall be issued, along with the review required under this section, that shall detail any special rates approved under section 393.355 and any resulting economic impacts including, but not limited to, retained and new workforce data, changes in state tax revenue, and any effects to an applicable electrical corporation's ratepayers."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative McCreery, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Ellington offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Bill No. 1998, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"620.1949. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Economic Development Grant Program Fund", which shall consist of moneys appropriated annually by the general assembly from general revenue and any gifts, bequests, or donations. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. In accordance with sections 30.170 and 30.180, the state treasurer may approve disbursements. The fund shall be a dedicated fund and, upon appropriation, moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the administration of this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080 to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund. The state treasurer shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

2. There is hereby established an "Economic Development Grant Program". The department of economic development shall administer the economic development grant program and approve disbursements from the economic development grant program fund.

3. The moneys deposited into the economic development grant program fund shall be used and distributed to allow companies to reopen a manufacturing facility that has been closed. The amount granted to such company shall not exceed the amount of moneys necessary for such company to reopen such manufacturing facility. The department of economic development shall develop a procedure for those eligible under this section to apply for grants under this section.

4. In the event that the balance in the fund and any appropriations for this grant program are insufficient to fund all grants approved by the department of economic development for a given fiscal year, all such grants shall be reduced pro rata as necessary.

5. The department of economic development shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2018, shall be invalid and void.

6. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:

(1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly;

(2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

(3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Plocher raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 3 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order well taken.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Bill No. 1998, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said section and line the following:

"393.1025. As used in sections 393.1020 to 393.1030, the following terms mean:

- (1) "Commission", the public service commission;
- (2) "Department", the department of natural resources;
- (3) "Electric utility", any electrical corporation as defined by section 386.020;
- (4) "Processed solid biomass engineered fiber fuel", any fuel derived from raw biomass feedstock produced in this state that is changed from its original form by pyrolysis or other thermal or thermochemical conversion in a manufacturing process resulting in a solid fuel product with a heat value of at least eight thousand four hundred British Thermal Units per pound on an as-received basis;

(5) "Renewable energy credit" or "REC", a tradeable certificate of proof that one megawatt-hour of electricity has been generated from renewable energy sources; ~~and~~

~~[(5)]~~ (6) "Renewable energy resources", electric energy produced from wind, solar thermal sources, photovoltaic cells and panels, dedicated crops grown for energy production, cellulosic agricultural residues, plant residues, processed solid biomass engineered fiber fuel, methane from landfills, from agricultural operations, or from wastewater treatment, thermal depolymerization or pyrolysis for converting waste material to energy, clean and untreated wood such as pallets, hydropower (not including pumped storage) that does not require a new diversion or impoundment of water and that has a nameplate rating of ten megawatts or less, fuel cells using hydrogen produced by one of the above-named renewable energy sources, and other sources of energy not including nuclear that become available after November 4, 2008, and are certified as renewable by rule by the department.

393.1030. 1. The commission shall, in consultation with the department, prescribe by rule a portfolio requirement for all electric utilities to generate or purchase electricity generated from renewable energy resources. Such portfolio requirement shall provide that electricity from renewable energy resources shall constitute the following portions of each electric utility's sales:

- (1) No less than two percent for calendar years 2011 through 2013;
- (2) No less than five percent for calendar years 2014 through 2017;
- (3) No less than ten percent for calendar years 2018 through 2020; and
- (4) No less than fifteen percent in each calendar year beginning in 2021.

At least two percent of each portfolio requirement shall be derived from solar energy. The portfolio requirements shall apply to all power sold to Missouri consumers whether such power is self-generated or purchased from another source in or outside of this state. A utility may comply with the standard in whole or in part by purchasing RECs. Each kilowatt-hour of eligible energy generated in Missouri shall count as 1.25 kilowatt-hours for purposes of compliance. Each kilowatt-hour of eligible energy generated from processed solid biomass engineered fiber fuel shall count as 1.50 kilowatt-hours for purposes of compliance.

2. The commission, in consultation with the department and within one year of November 4, 2008, shall select a program for tracking and verifying the trading of renewable energy credits. An unused credit may exist for up to three years from the date of its creation. A credit may be used only once to comply with sections 393.1020 to 393.1030 and may not also be used to satisfy any similar nonfederal requirement. An electric utility may not use a credit derived from a green pricing program. Certificates from net-metered sources shall initially be owned by the customer-generator. The commission, except where the department is specified, shall make whatever rules are necessary to enforce the renewable energy standard. Such rules shall include:

(1) A maximum average retail rate increase of one percent determined by estimating and comparing the electric utility's cost of compliance with least-cost renewable generation and the cost of continuing to generate or purchase electricity from entirely nonrenewable sources, taking into proper account future environmental regulatory risk including the risk of greenhouse gas regulation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, until June 30, 2020, if the maximum average retail rate increase would be less than or equal to one percent if an electric utility's investment in solar-related projects initiated, owned or operated by the electric utility is ignored for purposes of calculating the increase, then additional solar rebates shall be paid and included in rates in an amount up to the amount that would produce a retail rate increase equal to the difference between a one percent retail rate increase and the retail rate increase calculated when ignoring an electric utility's investment in solar-related projects initiated, owned, or operated by the electric utility. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this section, even if the payment of additional solar rebates will produce a maximum average retail rate increase of greater than one percent when an electric utility's investment in solar-related projects initiated, owned or operated by the electric utility are included in the calculation, the additional solar rebate costs shall be included in the prudently incurred costs to be recovered as contemplated by subdivision (4) of this subsection;

(2) Penalties of at least twice the average market value of renewable energy credits for the compliance period for failure to meet the targets of subsection 1 of this section. An electric utility will be excused if it proves to the commission that failure was due to events beyond its reasonable control that could not have been reasonably mitigated, or that the maximum average retail rate increase has been reached. Penalties shall not be recovered from customers. Amounts forfeited under this section shall be remitted to the department to purchase renewable energy credits needed for compliance. Any excess forfeited revenues shall be used by the department's energy center solely for renewable energy and energy efficiency projects;

(3) Provisions for an annual report to be filed by each electric utility in a format sufficient to document its progress in meeting the targets;

(4) Provision for recovery outside the context of a regular rate case of prudently incurred costs and the pass-through of benefits to customers of any savings achieved by an electrical corporation in meeting the requirements of this section.

3. As provided for in this section, except for those electrical corporations that qualify for an exemption under section 393.1050, each electric utility shall make available to its retail customers a solar rebate for new or expanded solar electric systems sited on customers' premises, up to a maximum of twenty-five kilowatts per system, measured in direct current that were confirmed by the electric utility to have become operational in compliance with the provisions of section 386.890. The solar rebates shall be two dollars per watt for systems becoming operational on or before June 30, 2014; one dollar and fifty cents per watt for systems becoming operational between July 1, 2014, and June 30, 2015; one dollar per watt for systems becoming operational between July 1, 2015, and June 30, 2016; fifty cents per watt for systems becoming operational between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017; fifty cents per watt for systems becoming operational between July 1, 2017, and June 30, 2019; twenty-five cents per watt for systems becoming operational between July 1, 2019, and June 30, 2020; and zero cents per watt for systems becoming operational after June 30, 2020. An electric utility may, through its tariffs, require applications for rebates to be submitted up to one hundred eighty-two days prior to the June thirtieth operational date. Nothing in this section shall prevent an electrical corporation from offering rebates after July 1, 2020, through an approved tariff. If the electric utility determines the maximum average retail rate increase provided for in subdivision (1) of subsection 2 of this section will be reached in any calendar year, the electric utility shall be entitled to cease paying rebates to the extent necessary to avoid exceeding the maximum average retail rate increase if the electrical corporation files with the commission to suspend its rebate tariff for the remainder of that calendar year at least sixty days prior to the change taking effect. The filing with the commission to suspend the electrical corporation's rebate tariff shall include the calculation reflecting that the maximum average retail rate increase will be reached and supporting documentation reflecting that the maximum average retail rate increase will be reached. The commission shall rule on the suspension filing within sixty days of the date it is filed. If the commission determines that the maximum average retail rate increase will be reached, the commission shall approve the tariff suspension. The electric utility shall continue to process and pay applicable solar rebates until a final commission ruling; however, if the continued payment causes the electric utility to pay rebates that cause it to exceed the maximum average retail rate increase, the expenditures shall be considered prudently incurred costs as contemplated by subdivision (4) of subsection 2 of this section and shall be recoverable as such by the electric utility. As a condition of receiving a rebate, customers shall transfer to the electric utility all right, title, and interest in and to the renewable energy credits associated with the new or expanded solar electric system that qualified the customer for the solar rebate for a period of ten years from the date the electric utility confirmed that the solar electric system was installed and operational.

4. The department shall, in consultation with the commission, establish by rule a certification process for electricity generated from renewable resources and used to fulfill the requirements of subsection 1 of this section. Certification criteria for renewable energy generation shall be determined by factors that include fuel type, technology, and the environmental impacts of the generating facility. Renewable energy facilities shall not cause undue adverse air, water, or land use impacts, including impacts associated with the gathering of generation feedstocks. If any amount of fossil fuel is used with renewable energy resources, only the portion of electrical output attributable to renewable energy resources shall be used to fulfill the portfolio requirements.

5. In carrying out the provisions of this section, the commission and the department shall include methane generated from the anaerobic digestion of farm animal waste and thermal depolymerization or pyrolysis for converting waste material to energy as renewable energy resources for purposes of this section.

6. The commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules for the implementation of this section, but only to the extent such rules are consistent with, and do not delay the implementation of, the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2013, shall be invalid and void.

393.1130. 1. This section shall be known and may be cited as “The Nuclear Energy Standard”.

2. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) “Commission”, the public service commission;

(2) “Small modular nuclear reactor”, a nuclear reactor based on fission that is approved under federal and state laws and regulations to be constructed in this state and produces less than three hundred megawatts of clean electrical energy;

(3) “Utility”, any electrical corporation, as defined under section 386.020, but this term shall not include any electrical corporation as described under subsection 2 of section 393.110.

3. Upon the fulfillment of subsection 4 of this section, the commission shall prescribe by rule that all utilities in this state produce electricity using small modular nuclear reactors such that two percent of each utility’s total electricity retail sales are made based on electricity generated by such reactors. The commission shall have discretion with regard to the time for requiring compliance with the nuclear energy standard, but in no case shall it require full compliance less than three years from the fulfillment of the conditions for the effective date of this section. The commission may promulgate such rules or regulations as are necessary to administer the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after the effective date of this section shall be invalid and void.

4. This section shall become effective only if a production facility for small modular nuclear reactors has been built in this state and is operational. A facility shall be classified as operational if such facility has produced no fewer than three small modular nuclear reactors in accordance with all federal and state laws and regulations and such reactors are legally available for sale or use. If the commission determines that a production facility is properly operational in accordance with this section, then it shall comply with the requirements of subsection 3 of this section. The commission shall notify the revisor of statutes when a facility has been built and becomes operational.

5. Notwithstanding subsection 3 of this section to the contrary, a utility may petition the commission to satisfy the two percent generation requirement from renewable or hydroelectric sources, or with the purchase of renewable energy credits, as defined in section 393.1025. The commission may grant such a petition upon a finding of undue hardship for compliance or due to a lack of increase in demand for energy generation by the utility.

620.3080. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) “Job creation, worker training, and infrastructure development programs”, the Missouri works program established under sections 620.2000 to 620.2020, the Missouri business use incentives for large-scale development act established under sections 100.700 to 100.850, the Missouri works training program established under sections 620.800 to 620.809, and the real property tax increment allocation redevelopment act established under sections 99.800 to 99.865;

(2) "Small modular nuclear reactor production facility" or "SMR production facility", a facility, approved under federal and state laws and regulations to be constructed, that produces nuclear reactors based on fission that each produce less than three hundred megawatts of clean electrical energy.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no benefits authorized under job creation, worker training, and infrastructure development programs for an SMR production facility shall be considered in determining compliance with applicable limitations on the aggregate amount of benefits that may be awarded annually or cumulatively under subdivision (3) of subsection 10 of section 99.845, subsection 5 of section 100.850, subsection 7 of section 620.809, and subsection 7 of section 620.2020. No SMR production facility shall be authorized for state benefits under job creation, worker training, and infrastructure development programs that exceed, in the aggregate, one hundred fifty million dollars annually under all such programs."; and

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr assumed the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness for those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.
(Psalm 25:10)

O Loving God, whose power is without measure and whose judgments are true and righteous, we stand before You at the beginning of another day as we quiet our hearts in Your presence and wait for Your inspiration.

Grant us the wisdom to know what we should do and the strength to do it Your way. Sustain our lives that we may make decisions wisely, walk the high road of honorable purpose faithfully, and with outreaching sympathy seek to heal the wounds of our human family in Missouri.

As we move along an unknown path of life, let us go forward with a firm faith in the reality of goodness, truth, and love and with the abiding assurance that You are with us today and forever.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Malachi Snyder and Nolan Snyder.

All such deposits shall be secured in a manner and upon the terms as are provided by law relative to state deposits. Interest earned shall be credited to the petroleum storage tank insurance fund.

4. The general administration of the fund and the responsibility for the proper operation of the fund, including all decisions relating to payments from the fund, are hereby vested in a board of trustees. The board of trustees shall consist of the commissioner of administration or the commissioner's designee, the director of the department of natural resources or the director's designee, the director of the department of agriculture or the director's designee, and eight citizens appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Three of the appointed members shall be owners or operators of retail petroleum storage tanks, including one tank owner or operator of greater than one hundred tanks; one tank owner or operator of less than one hundred tanks; and one aboveground storage tank owner or operator. One appointed trustee shall represent a financial lending institution, and one appointed trustee shall represent the insurance underwriting industry. One appointed trustee shall represent industrial or commercial users of petroleum. The two remaining appointed citizens shall have no petroleum-related business interest, and shall represent the nonregulated public at large. The members appointed by the governor shall serve four-year terms except that the governor shall designate two of the original appointees to be appointed for one year, two to be appointed for two years, two to be appointed for three years and two to be appointed for four years. Any vacancies occurring on the board shall be filled in the same manner as provided in this section.

5. The board shall meet in Jefferson City, Missouri, within thirty days following August 28, 1996. Thereafter, the board shall meet upon the written call of the chairman of the board or by the agreement of any six members of the board. Notice of each meeting shall be delivered to all other trustees in person or by registered mail not less than six days prior to the date fixed for the meeting. The board may meet at any time by unanimous mutual consent. There shall be at least one meeting in each quarter.

6. Six trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and any official action of the board shall be based on a majority vote of the trustees present.

7. The trustees shall serve without compensation but shall receive from the fund their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties for the board.

8. The board of trustees shall be a type III agency and shall appoint an executive director and other employees as needed, who shall be state employees and be eligible for all corresponding benefits. The executive director shall have charge of the offices, operations, records, and other employees of the board, subject to the direction of the board. Employees of the board shall receive such salaries and necessary expenses as shall be fixed by the board.

9. Staff resources for the Missouri petroleum storage tank insurance fund may be provided by the department of natural resources or another state agency as otherwise specifically determined by the board. The fund shall compensate the department of natural resources or other state agency for all costs of providing staff required by this subsection. Such compensation shall be made pursuant to contracts negotiated between the board and the department of natural resources or other state agency.

10. In order to carry out the fiduciary management of the fund, the board may select and employ, or may contract with, persons experienced in insurance underwriting, accounting, the servicing of claims and rate making, and legal counsel to defend third-party claims, who shall serve at the board's pleasure. Invoices for such services shall be presented to the board in sufficient detail to allow a thorough review of the costs of such services.

11. At the first meeting of the board, the board shall elect one of its members as chairman. The chairman shall preside over meetings of the board and perform such other duties as shall be required by action of the board.

12. The board shall elect one of its members as vice chairman, and the vice chairman shall perform the duties of the chairman in the absence of the latter or upon the chairman's inability or refusal to act.

13. The board shall determine and prescribe all rules and regulations as they relate to fiduciary management of the fund, pursuant to the purposes of sections 319.100 to 319.137. In no case shall the board have oversight regarding environmental cleanup standards for petroleum storage tanks.

14. No trustee or staff member of the fund shall receive any gain or profit from any moneys or transactions of the fund. This shall not preclude any eligible trustee from making a claim or receiving benefits from the petroleum storage tank insurance fund as provided by sections 319.100 to 319.137.

15. The board may reinsure all or a portion of the fund's liability. Any insurer who sells environmental liability insurance in this state may, at the option of the board, reinsure some portion of the fund's liability.

16. The petroleum storage tank insurance fund shall expire on December 31, ~~2020~~ 2030, unless extended by action of the general assembly. After December 31, ~~2020~~ 2030, the board of trustees may continue to function for the sole purpose of completing payment of claims made prior to December 31, ~~2020~~ 2030.

17. The board shall annually commission an independent financial audit of the petroleum storage tank insurance fund. JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Choose you this day whom ye will serve: as for me and my house we will serve the Lord. (Joshua 24:15)

O Humble Lord, who is the light of the world, let Your light shine upon us and Your presence come to us as we pray in spirit and in truth. Strengthen our hearts that we may now and always be positive in thought, word, and deed, as was the Evangelist Billy Graham.

Bless our State with Your gracious favor and make our people one in spirit, one in purpose, and one in kindness. Whatever our differences, may we realize that we are one in You and may this bond of unity be increasingly strengthened until we all learn to live together as good citizens in this great State.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day.
(II Corinthians 4:16)

Eternal God, whose paths are mercy and truth and who desires to lead Your children to the heights of righteousness and peace, we come to You seeking light upon our way, strength for our tasks, wisdom to see clearly, and the courage to do what ought to be done for the well-being of our State.

Help us to live this Mardi Gras day with joy and peace, without stumbling and without stain, because You are with us and we are with You. May the labor of these long hours be in accordance with Your holy will and for the good of all our people.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

(5) For those commercial motor vehicles and trailers registered pursuant to section 301.041, the plate issued by the highways and transportation commission shall be a permanent nonexpiring license plate for which no tabs shall be issued. Nothing in this section shall relieve the owner of any vehicle permanently registered pursuant to this section from the obligation to pay the annual registration fee due for the vehicle. The permanent nonexpiring license plate shall be returned to the highways and transportation commission upon the sale or disposal of the vehicle by the owner to whom the permanent nonexpiring license plate is issued, or the plate may be transferred to a replacement commercial motor vehicle when the owner files a supplemental application with the Missouri highways and transportation commission for the registration of such replacement commercial motor vehicle. Upon payment of the annual registration fee, the highways and transportation commission shall issue a certificate of registration or other suitable evidence of payment of the annual fee, and such evidence of payment shall be carried at all times in the vehicle for which it is issued.

(6) Upon the sale or disposal of any vehicle permanently registered under this section, or upon the termination of a lease of any such vehicle, the permanent nonexpiring plate issued for such vehicle shall be returned to the highways and transportation commission and shall not be valid for operation of such vehicle, or the plate may be transferred to a replacement vehicle when the owner files a supplemental application with the Missouri highways and transportation commission for the registration of such replacement vehicle. If a vehicle which is permanently registered under this section is sold, wrecked or otherwise disposed of, or the lease terminated, the registrant shall be given credit for any unused portion of the annual registration fee when the vehicle is replaced by the purchase or lease of another vehicle during the registration year.

7. The director of revenue and the highways and transportation commission may prescribe rules and regulations for the effective administration of this section. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of section 536.024.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, owners of motor vehicles other than apportioned motor vehicles or commercial motor vehicles licensed in excess of twenty-four thousand pounds gross weight may apply for special personalized license plates. Vehicles licensed for twenty-four thousand pounds that display special personalized license plates shall be subject to the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of section 301.030. On and after August 28, 2016, owners of motor vehicles, other than apportioned motor vehicles or commercial motor vehicles licensed in excess of twenty-four thousand pounds gross weight, may apply for any preexisting or hereafter statutorily created special personalized license plates.

9. No later than January 1, 2019, the director of revenue shall commence the reissuance of new license plates of such design as approved by the advisory committee under section 301.125 consistent with the terms, conditions, and provisions of section 301.125 and this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in this section, in addition to all other fees required by law, applicants for registration of vehicles with license plates that expire during the period of reissuance, applicants for registration of trailers or semitrailers with license plates that expire during the period of reissuance and applicants for registration of vehicles that are to be issued new license plates during the period of reissuance shall pay the cost of the plates required by this subsection. The additional cost prescribed in this subsection shall not be charged to persons receiving special license plates issued under section 301.073 or 301.443. Historic motor vehicle license plates registered pursuant to section 301.131 and specialized license plates are exempt from the provisions of this subsection. Except for new, replacement, and transfer applications, permanent nonexpiring license plates issued to commercial motor vehicles and trailers registered under section 301.041 are exempt from the provisions of this subsection.

301.350. 1. Upon receipt of an application for registration of a motor vehicle, trailer, manufacturer or dealer, as provided in this chapter, the director of revenue shall file such application and register such motor vehicle, trailer, manufacturer or dealer, together with the facts stated in the application, under a distinctive number assigned to such motor vehicle, trailer, manufacturer or dealer. Separate records shall be kept as follows:

- (1) Motor vehicles registered by owners;
- (2) Commercial motor vehicles;
- (3) Trailers;
- (4) Motorcycles and motor tricycles;

(5) Autocycles;

(6) Manufacturers and dealers.

2. The director of revenue may keep such other classifications and records as he may deem necessary and may enter contracts or agreements or otherwise make arrangements for computerized access to odometer and title information.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 2, 3, and 4 of this section, a health benefit plan that limits the total amounts paid by a covered person through all cost-sharing requirements to no more than seventy-five dollars per thirty-day supply for any orally administered anticancer medication shall be considered in compliance with this section. (1) Four trustees to be appointed for terms of four years by the board of education; provided, however, that the terms of office of the first four trustees so appointed shall begin immediately upon their appointment and shall expire one, two, three and four years from the date the retirement system becomes operative, respectively;

(2) Four trustees to be elected for terms of four years by and from the members of the retirement system; provided, however, that the terms of office of the first four trustees so elected shall begin immediately upon their election and shall expire one, two, three and four years from the date the retirement system becomes operative, respectively;

(3) The ninth trustee shall be the superintendent of schools of the school district;

(4) The tenth trustee shall be one retirant of the retirement system elected for a term of four years beginning the first day of January immediately following August 13, 1986, by the retirants of the retirement system;

(5) The eleventh trustee shall be appointed for a term of four years beginning the first day of January immediately following August 13, 1990, by the board of trustees described in subdivision (3) of section 182.701;

(6) The twelfth trustee shall be a retirant of the retirement system elected for a term of four years beginning the first day of January immediately following August 28, 1992, by the retirants of the retirement system.

No vacancy or vacancies on the board of trustees shall impair the power of the remaining trustees to administer the retirement system pending the filling of such vacancy or vacancies.

3. In the event of a lapse of the school district's corporate organization as described in subsections 1 and 4 of section 162.081, the general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system shall continue to be vested in a twelve-person board of trustees, all of whom shall be resident taxpayers of a city, other than a city not within a county, of four hundred thousand or more. Such oath shall be subscribed to by the trustee making it and filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court.

5. Each trustee shall be entitled to one vote in the board of trustees. Seven trustees shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of trustees. At any meeting of the board of trustees where a quorum is present, the vote of at least seven of the trustees in support of a motion, resolution or other matter is necessary to be the decision of the board; provided, however, that in the event of a lapse in the school district's corporate organization as described in subsections 1 and 4 of section 162.081, a majority of the trustees then in office shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of trustees, and the vote of a majority of the trustees then in office in support of a motion, resolution or other matter shall be necessary to be the decision of the board.

The board of trustees shall appoint an executive director who shall serve as the administrative officer of the retirement system and as secretary to the board of trustees. It shall employ one or more persons, firms or corporations experienced in the investment of moneys to serve as investment counsel to the board of trustees. The compensation of all persons engaged by the board of trustees and all other expenses of the board necessary for the operation of the retirement system shall be paid at such rates and in such amounts as the board of trustees shall approve, and shall be paid from the investment income.

8. The board of trustees shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuations of the various funds of the retirement system and for checking the experience of the system.

9. The board of trustees shall keep a record of all its proceedings which shall be open to public inspection. It shall prepare annually and furnish to the board of education and to each member of the retirement system who so requests a report showing the fiscal transactions of the retirement system for the preceding fiscal year, the amount of accumulated cash and securities of the system, and the last balance sheet showing the financial condition of the system by means of an actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of the retirement system.

14. At least once in each five-year period the actuary shall make an investigation into the actuarial experience of the members, retirants and beneficiaries of the retirement system and, taking into account the results of such investigation, the board of trustees shall adopt for the retirement system such actuarial assumptions as the board of trustees deems necessary for the financial soundness of the retirement system.

15. On the basis of such actuarial assumptions as the board of trustees adopts, the actuary shall make annual valuations of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the retirement system.

16. The rate of contribution payable by the employers shall equal one and ninety-nine one-hundredths percent, effective July 1, 1993; three and ninety-nine one-hundredths percent, effective July 1, 1995; five and ninety-nine one-hundredths percent, effective July 1, 1996; seven and one-half percent effective January 1, 1999, and for subsequent calendar years through 2013. In the event of a lapse of a school district's corporate organization as described in subsections 1 and 4 of section 162.081, no retirement system, nor any of the assets of any retirement system, shall be transferred to or merged with another retirement system without prior approval of such transfer or merge by the board of trustees of the retirement system.

169.324. 1. The annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 shall be the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by a percentage of the retirant's average final compensation, determined as follows:

(1) A retirant whose last employment as a regular employee ended prior to June 30, 1999, shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of the person's average final compensation, subject to a maximum of sixty percent of the person's average final compensation;

(2) A retirant whose number of years of creditable service is greater than thirty-four and one-quarter on August 28, 1993, shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service as of August 28, 1993, multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of the person's average final compensation but shall not receive a greater annual service retirement allowance based on additional years of creditable service after August 28, 1993;

(3) A retirant who was an active member of the retirement system at any time on or after June 30, 1999, and who either retires before January 1, 2014, or is a member of the retirement system on December 31, 2013, and remains a member continuously to retirement shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by two percent of the person's average final compensation, subject to a maximum of sixty percent of the person's final compensation;

(4) A retirant who becomes a member of the retirement system on or after January 1, 2014, including any retirant who was a member of the retirement system before January 1, 2014, but ceased to be a member for any reason other than retirement, shall receive an annual service retirement allowance payable pursuant to section 169.320 in equal monthly installments for life equal to the retirant's number of years of creditable service multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of the person's average final compensation, subject to a maximum of sixty percent of the person's average final compensation;

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (1) to (4) of this subsection, effective January 1, 1996, any retirant who retired on, before or after January 1, 1996, with at least twenty years of creditable service shall receive at least three hundred dollars each month as a retirement allowance, or the actuarial equivalent thereof if the retirant elected any of the options available under section 169.326. Any retirant who retired with at least ten years of creditable service shall receive at least one hundred fifty dollars each month as a retirement allowance, plus fifteen dollars for each additional full year of creditable service greater than ten years but less than twenty years (or the actuarial equivalent thereof if the retirant elected any of the options available under section 169.326). Any beneficiary of a deceased retirant who retired with at least ten years of creditable service and elected one of the options available under section 169.326 shall also be entitled to the actuarial equivalent of the minimum benefit provided by this subsection, determined from the option chosen.

2. Except as otherwise provided in sections 169.331 and 169.585, payment of a retirant's retirement allowance will be suspended for any month for which such person receives remuneration from the person's employer or from any other employer in the retirement system established by section 169.280 for the performance of services except any such person other than a person receiving a disability retirement allowance under section 169.322 may serve as a nonregular substitute, part-time or temporary employee for not more than six hundred hours in any school year without becoming a member and without having the person's retirement allowance discontinued, provided that through such substitute, part-time, or temporary employment, the person may earn no more than fifty percent of the annual salary or wages the person was last paid by the employer before the person retired and commenced receiving a retirement allowance, adjusted for inflation. If a person exceeds such hours limit or such compensation limit, payment of the person's retirement allowance shall be suspended for the month in which such limit was exceeded and each subsequent month in the school year for which the person receives remuneration from any employer in the retirement system. In addition to the conditions set forth above, the restrictions of this subsection shall also apply to any person retired and currently receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.270 to 169.400, other than for disability, who is employed by a third party or is performing work as an independent contractor if the services performed by such person are provided to or for the benefit of any employer in the retirement system established under section 169.280. The retirement system may require the employer receiving such services, the third-party employer, the independent contractor, and the retirant subject to this subsection to provide documentation showing compliance with this subsection. If such documentation is not provided, the retirement system may deem the retirant to have exceeded the limitations provided for in this subsection. If a retirant is reemployed by any employer in any capacity, whether pursuant to this section, or section 169.331 or 169.585, or as a regular employee, the amount of such person's retirement allowance attributable to service prior to the person's first retirement date shall not be changed by the reemployment. If the person again becomes an active member and earns additional creditable service, upon the person's second retirement the person's retirement allowance shall be the sum of:

(1) The retirement allowance the person was receiving at the time the person's retirement allowance was suspended, pursuant to the payment option elected as of the first retirement date, plus the amount of any increase in such retirement allowance the person would have received pursuant to subsection 3 of this section had payments not been suspended during the person's reemployment; and

(2) An additional retirement allowance computed using the benefit formula in effect on the person's second retirement date, the person's creditable service following reemployment, and the person's average final annual compensation as of the second retirement date.

The sum calculated pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed the greater of sixty percent of the person's average final compensation as of the second retirement date or the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection. Compensation earned prior to the person's first retirement date shall be considered in determining the person's average final compensation as of the second retirement date if such compensation would otherwise be included in determining the person's average final compensation.

3. The board of trustees shall determine annually whether the investment return on funds of the system can provide for an increase in benefits for retirants eligible for such increase. A retirant shall and will be eligible for an increase awarded pursuant to this section as of the second January following the date the retirant commenced receiving retirement benefits. Any such increase shall also apply to any monthly joint and survivor retirement allowance payable to such retirant's beneficiaries, regardless of age. The board shall make such determination as follows:

(1) After determination by the actuary of the investment return for the preceding year as of December thirty-first (the "valuation year"), the actuary shall recommend to the board of trustees what portion of the investment return is available to provide such benefits increase, if any, and shall recommend the amount of such benefits increase, if any, to be implemented as of the first day of the thirteenth month following the end of the valuation year, and first payable on or about the first day of the fourteenth month following the end of the valuation year. The actuary shall make such recommendations so as not to affect the financial soundness of the retirement system, recognizing the following safeguards:

(a) The retirement system's funded ratio as of January first of the year preceding the year of a proposed increase shall be at least one hundred percent ~~[after]~~ before adjusting for the effect of the proposed increase. The funded ratio is the ratio of assets to the pension benefit obligation;

(b) The actuarially required contribution rate, ~~[after]~~ before adjusting for the effect of the proposed increase, may not exceed the then applicable employer and member contribution rate as determined under ~~[subsection]~~ subsections 4, 5, and 6 of section 169.350;

(c) The actuary shall certify to the board of trustees that the proposed increase will not impair the actuarial soundness of the retirement system;

(d) A benefit increase, under this section, once awarded, cannot be reduced in succeeding years;

(2) The board of trustees shall review the actuary's recommendation and report and shall, in their discretion, determine if any increase is prudent and, if so, shall determine the amount of increase to be awarded.

4. This section does not guarantee an annual increase to any retirant.

5. If an inactive member becomes an active member after June 30, 2001, and after a break in service, unless the person earns at least four additional years of creditable service without another break in service, upon retirement the person's retirement allowance shall be calculated separately for each separate period of service ending in a break in service. The retirement allowance shall be the sum of the separate retirement allowances computed for each such period of service using the benefit formula in effect, the person's average final compensation as of the last day of such period of service and the creditable service the person earned during such period of service; provided, however, if the person earns at least four additional years of creditable service without another break in service, all of the person's creditable service prior to and including such service shall be aggregated and, upon retirement, the retirement allowance shall be computed using the benefit formula in effect and the person's average final compensation as of the last day of such period of four or more years and all of the creditable service the person earned prior to and during such period.

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in this section to the contrary, the amount of the annual service retirement allowance payable to any retirant pursuant to the provisions of sections 169.270 to 169.400, including any adjustments made pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, shall at all times comply with the provisions and limitations of Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder, the terms of which are specifically incorporated herein by reference.

7. All retirement systems established by the laws of the state of Missouri shall develop a procurement action plan for utilization of minority and women money managers, brokers and investment counselors. Such retirement systems shall report their progress annually to the joint committee on public employee retirement and the governor's minority advocacy commission.

169.350. 1. All of the assets of the retirement system (other than tangible real or personal property owned by the retirement system for use in carrying out its duties, such as office supplies and furniture) shall be credited, according to the purpose for which they are held, in either the employees' contribution fund or the general reserve fund.

(1) The employees' contribution fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions of the members. The employer shall, except as provided in subdivision (5) of this subsection, cause to be deducted from the compensation of each member on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period, the pro rata portion of five and nine-tenths percent of his annualized compensation. Effective January 1, 1999, through December 31, 2013, the employer shall deduct an additional one and six-tenths percent of the member's annualized compensation. For 2014 and for each subsequent year, the employer shall deduct from each member's annualized compensation the rate of contribution determined for such year ~~[by the actuary for the retirement system in the manner]~~ as provided in [subsection] subsections 4, 5, and 6 of this section.

(2) The employer shall pay all such deductions and any amount it may elect to pay pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection to the retirement system at once. The retirement system shall credit such deductions and such amounts to the individual account of each member from whose compensation the deduction was made or with respect to whose compensation the amount was paid pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection. In determining the deduction for a member in any payroll period, the board of trustees may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the first day of the payroll period as continuing throughout such period.

(3) The deductions provided for herein are declared to be a part of the compensation of the member and the making of such deductions shall constitute payments by the member out of the person's compensation and such deductions shall be made notwithstanding that the amount actually paid to the member after such deductions is less than the minimum compensation provided by law for any member. Every member shall be deemed to consent to the deductions made and provided for herein, and shall receipt for the person's full compensation, and the making of the deduction and the payment of compensation less the deduction shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for services rendered during the period covered by the payment except as to benefits provided by sections 169.270 to 169.400.

(4) The accumulated contributions with interest of a member withdrawn by the person or paid to the person's estate or designated beneficiary in the event of the person's death before retirement shall be paid from the employees' contribution fund. Upon retirement of a member the member's accumulated contributions with interest shall be transferred from the employees' contribution fund to the general reserve fund.

(5) The employer may elect to pay on behalf of all members all or part of the amount that the members would otherwise be required to contribute to the employees' contribution fund pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection. Such amounts paid by the employer shall be in lieu of members' contributions and shall be treated for all purposes of sections 169.270 to 169.400 as contributions made by members. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, no member shall be entitled to receive such amounts directly. The election shall be made by a duly adopted resolution of the employer's board and shall remain in effect for at least one year from the effective date thereof. The election may be thereafter terminated only by an affirmative act of the employer's board notwithstanding any limitation in the term thereof in the adopting resolution. Any such termination resolution shall be adopted at least sixty days prior to the effective date thereof, and the effective date thereof shall coincide with a fiscal year-end of the employer. In the absence of such a termination resolution, the election shall remain in effect from fiscal year to fiscal year.

2. The general reserve fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated all reserves for the payment of all benefit expenses and other demands whatsoever upon the retirement system except those items heretofore allocated to the employees' contribution fund.

(1) All contributions by the employer, except those the employer elects to make on behalf of the members pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 1 of this section, shall be credited to the general reserve fund.

(2) Should a retirant be restored to active service and again become a member of the retirement system, the excess, if any, of the person's accumulated contributions over benefits received by the retirant shall be transferred from the general reserve fund to the employees' contribution fund and credited to the person's account.

3. Gifts, devises, bequests and legacies may be accepted by the board of trustees and deposited in the general reserve fund to be held, invested and used at its discretion for the benefit of the retirement system except where specific direction for the use of a gift is made by a donor.

4. Beginning in 2013, the actuary for the retirement system shall annually calculate the rate of employer contributions and member contributions for 2014 and for each subsequent calendar year through 2018, expressed as a level percentage of the annualized compensation of the members, subject to the following:

(1) The rate of contribution for any calendar year shall be determined based on an actuarial valuation of the retirement system as of the first day of the prior calendar year. Such actuarial valuation shall be performed using the actuarial cost method and actuarial assumptions adopted by the board of trustees and in accordance with accepted actuarial standards of practice in effect at the time the valuation is performed, as promulgated by the actuarial standards board or its successor;

(2) The target combined employer and member contribution rate shall be the amount actuarially required to cover the normal cost and amortize any unfunded accrued actuarial liability over a period that shall not exceed thirty years from the date of the valuation;

(3) The target combined rate as so determined shall be allocated equally between the employer contribution rate and the member contribution rate, provided, however, that the level rate of contributions to be paid by the employers and the level rate of contributions to be deducted from the compensation of members for any calendar year shall each be limited as follows:

- (a) The contribution rate shall not be less than seven and one-half percent;
 - (b) The contribution rate shall not exceed nine percent; and
 - (c) Changes in the contribution rate from year to year shall be in increments of one-half percent such that the contribution rate for any year shall not be greater than or less than the rate in effect for the prior year by more than one-half percent;
- (4) The board of trustees shall certify to the employers the contribution rate for the following calendar year no later than six months prior to the date such rate is to be effective.

5. The member contribution rate for 2019 and subsequent periods shall be nine percent of compensation unless a lower member contribution rate applies for any period beginning on or after July 1, 2021, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (4) of subsection 6 of this section.

6. The employer contribution rate for calendar year 2019 shall be ten and one-half percent. The employer contribution rate for the eighteen-month period beginning January 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, shall be twelve percent. For the twelve-month period beginning July 1, 2021, and for each subsequent twelve-month period beginning July first each year, the employer contribution rate shall be determined as follows:

(1) The actuary shall determine the total actuarially required contribution based on an actuarial valuation of the retirement system as of the first day of the preceding calendar year. Such actuarial valuation shall be performed using the actuarial cost method and actuarial assumptions adopted by the board of trustees and in accordance with actuarial standards of practice applicable as of the valuation date. The total actuarially required contribution rate, including both employer and member contributions, shall be an amount determined in accordance with the board's current funding policy, expressed as a level percentage of the annualized compensation of the members;

(2) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year is below one hundred percent, the employer contribution rate shall be the greater of twelve percent or the difference between the total actuarially required contribution rate and the nine percent member contribution rate, subject to the limits on annual adjustments stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(3) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year equals or exceeds one hundred percent and the total actuarially required contribution rate exceeds eighteen percent, the employer contribution rate shall be the difference between the total actuarially required contribution rate and the nine percent member contribution rate, subject to the limits on annual adjustments stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(4) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year equals or exceeds one hundred percent and the total actuarially required contribution rate does not exceed eighteen percent, the total actuarially required contribution rate shall be allocated equally between the employer contribution rate and the member contribution rate. If the total actuarially required contribution rate falls below eighteen percent after being above eighteen percent for the preceding twelve-month period, the member contribution rate and the employer contribution rate shall be adjusted to one-half of the total actuarially required contribution rate for such period, regardless of the magnitude of the decrease from the rate in effect for the prior period, in order to equalize the employer and member contribution rates. Otherwise, adjustments in the contribution rates shall be limited by the annual adjustment limits stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(5) If the retirement system's funded ratio as of the first day of the preceding calendar year again falls below one hundred percent, or if the total actuarially required contribution rate rises above eighteen percent, the provisions of subdivision (2) or (3) of this subsection shall apply, as applicable, subject to the limits on annual adjustments stated in subdivision (6) of this subsection;

(6) Except as stated in subdivision (4) of this subsection, in transitioning to the contribution rates prescribed in this subsection for periods beginning on or after July 1, 2021, the employer contribution rate and the member contribution rate, respectively, shall not increase by more than one percent or decrease by more than one-half percent for any period from the corresponding rate in effect immediately before such increase or decrease; and

(7) The board of trustees shall certify to the employers the contribution rate to be effective for July 1, 2021, and for each following July first, no later than six months prior to the date such rate is to be effective.

169.360. 1. Before the first of July of each year, the board of trustees shall certify to each employer the amounts which will become due and payable from each during the school year next following to the general reserve fund. The amount so certified shall be appropriated by each employer's board by a resolution explicitly directing the appropriate officials to pay the same, not later than July twenty-fifth of each year and transferred to the retirement system on or before December thirty-first of the same year.

2. Effective January 1, 2019, each employer shall transfer its employer contributions to the retirement system promptly following the end of each payroll period at the time the employer transfers member contributions."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. (II Isaiah 12:2)

O Gracious God, on this Ash Wednesday we know You are the hope of the world and the help of all who put their trust in You; be our hope and our help as we come to You in this our morning prayer. Lead us to the rock that is higher than we, and there may we find strength for each day, courage for each hour, confidence for each minute, and faith for each second. Then may we defeat the adversaries that would conquer our spirits, by being strong in You.

Our prayer leaps across the boundaries of division to include the world in which we live. In spite of differences, bind us together in a common obedience to the moral law and make our faith real enough and strong enough to unite us in a fellowship of like minds. While it is yet early, may we choose light and not darkness, love and not hate, truth and not falsehood, peace and not conflict. St. Valentine, bless all couples!

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Eleanor Cassidy and Hayley Michael.

Speaker Richardson assumed the Chair.

The Journal of the twenty-third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

The state board of education may cause the termination of the transitional school district at any time upon a determination that the transitional district has accomplished the purposes for which it was established and is no longer needed. The state board of education may cause the reestablishment of the transitional school district at any time upon a determination that it is necessary for the transitional district to be reestablished to accomplish the purposes established in this section. Any school district that receives a request for such records from another school district enrolling a pupil that had previously attended a school in such district shall respond to such request within five business days of receiving the request. School districts may report or disclose education records to law enforcement and juvenile justice authorities if the disclosure concerns law enforcement's or juvenile justice authorities' ability to effectively serve, prior to adjudication, the student whose records are released. The officials and authorities to whom such information is disclosed must comply with applicable restrictions set forth in 20 U.S.C. Section 1232g(b)(1)(E).

3. The dual credit scholarship is hereby created to provide financial assistance to high school students enrolling in dual credit courses offered by an approved dual credit provider as defined in section 173.2500. The coordinating board may promulgate rules for the administration of the program including establishing the application, eligibility, and payment procedures. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2016, shall be invalid and void.

4. Subject to appropriation, the dual credit scholarship shall reimburse eligible students for up to fifty percent of the tuition cost paid by the student to enroll in a dual credit course offered by an approved dual credit provider.

5. No student shall receive in excess of five hundred dollars annually for all dual credit courses taken by such student.

6. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Dual Credit Scholarship Fund", which shall consist of moneys appropriated to the fund by the general assembly and private donations made to the fund. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the fund and shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080 to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund.

173.2550. 1. The provisions of this section shall be known and may be cited to as the "Make America Great Again Act".

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person shall be denied any post-secondary public education benefit based on the citizenship or immigration status, lawful or unlawful, of such person.

178.411. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

- (1) "Board", state board of education;
- (2) "Course", any unit of study for which an institution awards credit hours toward the completion of an education program;
- (3) "Fee", any tuition or fee or both charged by an institution for attendance at that institution by a resident of this state;
- (4) "Fee waiver", the relinquishment by the institution of its charge of fees to a homemaker according to the provisions of this section;
- (5) "Homemaker", an individual whose principal job has been homemaking, who has lost his or her main source of income because of divorce, separation, death or disability of a spouse, long-term family income below poverty level, or loss of eligibility for public assistance, and who has not been employed on a full-time basis of forty hours per week for at least three years. Such full-time employment shall not include seasonal occupations;
- (6) "Institution", a public area vocational-technical school or a public community college as established in this chapter;
- (7) "Training program ready", the completion by a homemaker of a comprehensive vocational assessment of interests, aptitudes and abilities inventories or tests to ensure appropriate vocational educational placement from an approved vocational assessment/evaluation program, including the completion of a vocational orientation involving career decision-making activities, career exploration into nontraditional programs, new technologies and high demand occupations;

(8) "Vocational education program", an educational program for less than a baccalaureate degree, the controlling purpose of which is to prepare for profitable employment.

2. The board shall be the administrative agency for the implementation of this section. The board shall:

(1) Promulgate rules and regulations for the implementation of this section;

(2) Determine the procedures necessary for a homemaker to apply for and receive a fee waiver and provide the necessary forms;

(3) Determine eligibility guidelines for an institution to follow in the event that more homemakers apply for fee waivers in vocational education programs than the institution can accommodate in any particular enrollment period;

(4) Determine guidelines for individual eligibility and minimum standards in order for a homemaker to become and to remain eligible to receive a fee waiver, including becoming training program ready;

(5) Distribute annual grants to the institutions within the amounts appropriated therefor according to the provisions of this section.

3. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of section 536.024.

4. Any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, an institution may waive the fee required for attendance in a vocational education program by a homemaker. Unless otherwise required by federal law, the receipt of the fee waiver shall not cause a reduction from any other agency benefits while the individual is enrolled in a vocational education program and for a period of six months after exit to full-time unsubsidized employment.

5. Within the limits of the amounts appropriated therefor, the board shall award an annual grant to each institution for fee waivers. The appropriated amount shall be divided between the area vocational-technical schools and the community colleges and shall be distributed according to the state plan for federal vocational education funds.

6. A homemaker may receive a fee waiver from an institution if at the time of application and throughout the period during which the homemaker is receiving such waiver the homemaker is a ~~[citizen or permanent resident of the United States, is a]~~ resident of the state of Missouri as defined by the board, and is enrolled or has been accepted for enrollment in a vocational education program the purpose of which is to prepare for gainful employment. In no event shall a homemaker receive additional fee waivers beyond the completion of the vocational education program for which the homemaker is enrolled. A homemaker may change from one program to another prior to completion of the original program without loss of eligibility; provided, however, that the total credit hours for which fees are waived shall not exceed the equivalent credit hours of a community college associate's degree.

7. Nothing in this section shall be construed as a promise or guarantee that a homemaker will be admitted to an institution or to a particular program within that institution, that a homemaker will be allowed to continue after having been admitted, or will be graduated from a program at an institution. Each institution's rules and policies on student advancement shall apply to homemakers receiving fee waivers. An institution may subsequently refuse to waive fees if the homemaker has not made satisfactory progress or has withdrawn from the program prior to completion of the course without cause according to the institution's rules.

~~[173.1110. 1. No covered student unlawfully present in the United States shall receive a postsecondary education public benefit. 2. As used in this section, "public benefit" means any grant, contract, or loan provided by an agency of state or local government; or any retirement, welfare, health, disability, housing, or food assistance benefit under which payments, assistance, credits, or reduced rates or fees are provided. The term "public benefit" shall not include postsecondary education public benefits as defined in section 173.1110, any municipal permit, or contracts or agreements between public utility providers and their customers or unemployment benefits payable under chapter 288. An applicant who cannot provide the proof required under this section at the time of application may alternatively sign an affidavit under oath, attesting to either United States citizenship or classification by the United States as an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, in order to receive temporary benefits or a temporary identification document as provided in this section. The affidavit shall be on or consistent with forms prepared by the state or local government agency administering the state or local public benefits and shall include the applicant's Social Security number or any applicable federal identification number and an explanation of the penalties under state law for obtaining public assistance benefits fraudulently.

An extension granted under this subsection shall terminate upon the applicant's receipt of a birth certificate or a determination that a birth certificate does not exist because the applicant is not a United States citizen.

6. An applicant who is an alien shall not receive any state or local public benefit unless the alien's lawful presence in the United States is first verified by the federal government. State and local agencies administering public benefits in this state shall cooperate with the United States Department of Homeland Security in achieving verification of an alien's lawful presence in the United States in furtherance of this section. The system utilized may include the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements Program operated by the United States Department of Homeland Security. After an applicant's lawful presence in the United States has been verified through the ~~Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements Program, no additional verification is required within the same agency of the state or local government.~~

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Blessed is the man who endures trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love Him. (James 1:12)

O God, who opens the gates of the morning and calls us to a new day, we commit our lives and our work unto You in the glad assurance that You are with us within the shadows and behind them working out Your purpose for us.

In these days when our attitudes are unsettled as we seek the good of all, when so much is demanded of us; grant unto us insight and inspiration together with courage and confidence that we may prove ourselves worthy of the tasks placed in our hands by our voters.

As we are confronted by decisions too great for us to solve by ourselves we are driven to You for wisdom to see what must be done, for courage to set out to do it, and for strength to complete it.

O God, make us great enough and good enough for these challenging days in the People's House.

Finally, as we remember the victims of another school tragedy, may we pray and work for the safety of all people, but most especially the young.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Henry Prien, Emily Ford, Josie Mottl, Braeden Caupp, and Nate Medsker.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Eric R. Greitens, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that, through the second quarter of fiscal year 2018, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2018 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that, in the third quarter of fiscal year 2018, I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2018 budget.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, this 14th day of February 2018.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Lindell Shumake.

Let us pray.

Lord, we come before You at the beginning of this week of work once again asking for Your divine wisdom, to carry on the business of the Great State of Missouri.

We ask, Lord, that the moral, financial, and spiritual future of our state would be formed by the wisdom that comes from You and You alone. We ask, Lord, that Your most capable hands would guide the activity of each committee that meets this week, as well as the actions that take place in this chamber. Please bless and protect those family members back in our homes and everyone who works and goes in and out of this magnificent building.

Lord, please also remember our statewide executive officers, and the leaders and employees of all our state agencies.

Thank You, Lord, for blessing, guiding, and prospering our fellow citizens and residents of this state.

Through Your grace, help us to fulfill Your divine calling.

In Jesus's name, and the House says, "Amen!"

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINETEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Larry T. Allen, ACHIEVE Program Director, Three Rivers College.

Dear Father in Heaven,

Thank You for blessing all who serve here with the gifts of honor, purpose and discipline. Our prayer today is for the work that is before us and the state that we vitally love and serve. Keep our hearts passionate and our spirits kindled with the love of freedom. Let us be reminded of treating others as ourselves and humbly putting our citizens ahead of our prejudice and personal interest. I pray that our hope is not for our personal gain but in the liberties we allow others to obtain. God, be merciful as we are merciful, and may we stand strong and courageous as a city on a hill to this great nation. May our state and this House honor Your will this day.

In Jesus's name we pray,

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Thou wilt show me the path of life: in Thy presence is fullness of joy. (Psalm 16:11)

O God, we pray that You will restore our souls, refresh our spirits, and reinvigorate our bodies that we may be made ready for the many responsibilities of this long day.

Grant unto us sincerity that we may persistently seek the things that endure, refusing those which perish, and when things seem vulnerable and at times deceptive, may we see the truth steadily, follow the light faithfully, and grow ever richer in Your love, which is the life of all men and women.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1288, 1377 & 2050, Page 3, Section 135.341, Line 77, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

- "135.580. 1. This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Community Police Tax Credit".
2. As used in this section, the following terms mean:
- (1) "Community policing zone", an area that is designated as such by a city, town, or village and where law enforcement takes a proactive approach to address public safety concerns;
 - (2) "Eligible taxpayer", an individual who is employed as a law enforcement officer;
 - (3) "High-crime area", an area, as determined by the department of public safety, that has a crime rate in the top twenty-five percent of all areas listed in the report required under subsection 4 of this section;
 - (4) "Present address", the address stated on an eligible taxpayer's income tax return;
 - (5) "Tax credit", a credit against the tax otherwise due under chapter 143, excluding withholding tax imposed under sections 143.191 to 143.265.
3. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2019, an eligible taxpayer who lives in both a high-crime area and community policing zone shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to three thousand dollars.
4. The department of public safety shall issue a report to the department of revenue that determines the crime rate of areas in this state. The report shall rank areas from the highest to lowest crime rate. Crime rates shall be calculated by adding the total property and violent crimes reported in an area and dividing such sum by the population of the area. The department of public safety shall have discretion in determining the geographic boundaries of the areas but in so determining shall consider the availability of crime data and the difficulty of correlating street addresses to the area. Areas shall not be as large as counties.
5. For eligible taxpayers who apply for the tax credit, the department of revenue shall verify whether the taxpayer's present address is located in a high-crime area and, if so, apply the tax credit to the taxpayer's tax return.
6. Tax credits issued under the provisions of this section shall be refundable but shall not be sold, transferred, or assigned.
7. The department of revenue and department of public safety may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2018, shall be invalid and void.
8. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:
- (1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset December thirty-first six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly;
 - (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset December thirty-first twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

(3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 135.600, Line 90, by inserting immediately after all of said section and line the following:

"135.620. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

- (1) "Contribution", a contribution of cash, stock, bonds, or other marketable securities, or real property;
- (2) "Director", the director of the department of social services;
- (3) "Homeless individual", the same meaning as such term is defined under 42 U.S.C. Section 11302;
- (4) "Homeless shelter", a supervised nighttime residence operated by a public, private, or charitable organization to provide temporary living arrangements for homeless individuals;
- (5) "Tax credit", a credit against the tax otherwise due under chapter 143, excluding withholding tax imposed under sections 143.191 to 143.265, or otherwise due under chapter 148 or 153;
- (6) "Taxpayer", a person, firm, partner in a firm, corporation, or shareholder in an S corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed under chapter 143; an insurance company paying an annual tax on its gross premium receipts in this state; any other financial institution paying taxes to the state of Missouri or any political subdivision of this state under chapter 148; an express company that pays an annual tax on its gross receipts in this state under chapter 153; an individual subject to the state income tax under chapter 143; or any charitable organization that is exempt from federal income tax and whose Missouri unrelated business taxable income, if any, would be subject to the state income tax imposed under chapter 143.

2. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2019, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount of such taxpayer's contributions to a homeless shelter.

3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the tax year for which the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per tax year. However, any portion of the tax credit that cannot be claimed in the tax year the contribution was made may be carried over to the next four succeeding tax years until the full credit has been claimed. No tax credits issued under the provisions of this section shall be assigned, transferred, or sold.

4. Except for any excess credit that is carried over under subsection 3 of this section, a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's contributions to homeless shelters in the tax year is at least one hundred dollars.

The director shall establish a procedure by which a taxpayer can determine if a facility has been classified as a homeless shelter.

6. The cumulative amount of tax credits that may be claimed under this section in a tax year shall not exceed two million five hundred thousand dollars. Tax credits shall be issued in the order contributions are received.

7. The director shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the tax year until some point in time later in the tax year to be determined by the director, the cumulative amount of tax credits are apportioned among all facilities classified as homeless shelters. If a homeless shelter fails to use all, or some percentage determined by the director, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director may reapportion such unused tax credits to those homeless shelters that have used all, or some percentage determined by the director, of their apportioned tax credits during the predetermined period of time. The director may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each tax year. To the maximum extent possible, the administration of this procedure shall enable taxpayers to claim the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the tax year.

8. Each homeless shelter shall provide information to the director concerning the identity of each taxpayer who makes a contribution to the homeless shelter and claims a tax credit under this section and the amount of such contribution. The director shall provide the information to the director of revenue. The director shall be subject to the confidentiality and penalty provisions of section 32.057 relating to the disclosure of tax information.

9. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:

- (1) The program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly;
- (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

5. Tax credits issued under the provisions of this section shall not be transferred, sold, or assigned.

6. The department of economic development may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. - (3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

He that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.
(Romans 12:8)

Almighty God, in whose love is our life, in whose service is our strength, and in whose will is our work, grant us strength that we may labor continuously for the benefit and happiness of all who live in this great State.

Save us from conflict and division, from pride and prejudice, from corruption and violence. Mold us into people united with purpose and program to promote justice, to proclaim freedom, and to provide food for the hungry, housing for the ill, and jobs for men and women.

May the spirit of wisdom abide in all our hearts that we may make decisions courageously, plan procedures patiently, and live with love in our lives.

In times of doubt let not our faith in You falter and in periods of prosperity let our faith find its fulfillment in humble service and a grateful spirit.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Tommie Pierson, Jr.

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come first thanking You for the opportunity to start this legislative day and week in prayer. We thank You for a reasonable portion of health and strength—especially during this current flu epidemic that is sweeping over our nation and state—Lord, we pray for protection.

Lord, keep us from the epidemic of ignorance; help us to come to You for wisdom. Boost our immune system against the epidemic of hate by filling us with Your love—for You are love. Where the epidemic of selfishness seeks to infect us, bless our hearts that we may be sympathetic to the plight of others, realizing that if it had not been for Your grace only You know where our lives would be. But thank You, O God, that we are here, in this place, for such a time as this that we may be instrumental in letting justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Behold, Thou who desirest truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart. (Psalm 51:6)

O Wise God, who desires truth in the interior life, in this busy day when the haughty wear the masks of truth as they appeal for our attention or votes, grant unto us the spirit of discernment and the wisdom of the wise that we may not be deceived by those who are evil and seek to disguise their low motives by eloquent words.

Help us to keep searching at that which is good, true and authentic that we may keep in step with You as we move forward to a better day when our State shall be great in spirit, powerful in charity, and great in unity.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Only fear the Lord and serve Him in truth with all your heart: for consider what great things He has done for you.
(I Samuel 12:24)

Almighty God, we thank You for the inspiration for great living this moment of prayer brings to us and for the insight into the meaning of life which comes as we pray. Never in vain do we call upon You. You always strengthen us with a strength which never lets us down. You are always loving us with a love which never lets us go. You always lead us in true paths with a spirit which never lets us go. Give us grace to respond to You and, with reverent courage, to walk in Your ways.

Bless this State with Your gracious favor and these Representatives of our people with Your loving wisdom. Kneeling before the altar of truth, may we be united in the standards of high moral living, deep religious faith, great patriotic commitment, and genuine desire for peace of mind.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Emily Pickett.

The Journal of the fifteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Teach me to do Thy will; for Thou art my God; Thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.
(Psalm 143:10)

Almighty God, whose will is joy, whose nature is love, and whose desire is that we live in peace with You and in love with one another, grant unto us a vision of Your purpose for us as we look up to heaven and to You in prayer this morning.

Deliver us from antagonisms that annoy us, from trifles that try us, and from disagreements that make us disagreeable, and by Your spirit make us great in kindness, good in our greatness, and genuine in all our endeavors on behalf of our State, as its citizens, during this Black History Month.

Amid the problems that perplex us and the difficulties that sometimes discourage us, You strengthen and sustain our spirits and then lead us in the green valley of peace for Your name's sake.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixteenth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Sara Walsh.

Dear Heavenly Father, we come before You today because You tell us in Your word, "I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone--for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness." (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

So we ask You, God, for wisdom in our decision-making, discernment to govern justly, and courage to govern morally. We pray for Your blessing for the people of Missouri that we represent. We pray for Your guidance upon our country, that we all may do Your will and seek Your ways.

I pray this prayer in the tradition my family taught me, in Jesus's name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ELEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom and the man that getteth understanding. (Proverbs 3:13)

Almighty God, who is our light in darkness, our life in trouble, and our love in sorrow, bless us as with one mind we draw to You seeking the power of Your presence and the guidance of Your spirit.

Throughout this day keep our hearts with You that in quiet confidence we may solve the problems of these hours with a wisdom greater than our own.

In the middle of this divided world send us forth as messengers of good will, crossing all barriers of class and creed, that we may make our contribution to the glorious day when justice and freedom shall live in every heart.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Wade and Brooklyn Lofthouse.

The Journal of the tenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWELFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

If you believe in goodness, if you value the approval of God, fix your mind on the things which are holy and right and pure and beautiful and good. (Philippians 4:8)

Our God, who has taught us that only the pure in heart can see You, cleanse our hearts of all impurity, all impenitence, and all impatience. Give to us such a love for that which is good, true and beautiful that we may be made strong when tempted, and give strength to those who are tempted as we are.

Let not our strength fail, our steps falter, or our spirits grow weak, as we labor for the good of our people in this great State.

Bless our state Supreme Court, its judges and staff who join us today. May their desire to serve the law with justice and equality, inspire us, from the highest to the lowest.

This day, and every day, may we place our hands in Yours, look up to You, and face the day with faith and courage knowing You are with us and we are with You, as we endeavor to lead our people with the example of bipartisanship and in the path of peace.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eleventh day was approved as printed.

The Sergeant-At-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Zel M. Fischer, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Chief Justice Fischer was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY
ADDRESS BY
CHIEF JUSTICE ZEL M. FISCHER

Introduction

Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Parson, Secretary of State Ashcroft, President Pro Tem Richard, members of the senate, the executive branch and the judiciary. And a special thanks to Speaker Richardson and members of the house of representatives for hosting me this morning to deliver my first, but more significantly, the 45th State of the Judiciary address on behalf of all of Missouri's state judges.

I would like to begin by introducing my colleagues, who collectively – when you include our trial court and court of appeals tenures – have more than 130 years of judicial experience: Judge Laura Denvir Stith; Judge Mary R. Russell; Judge Patricia Breckenridge; Judge George W. Draper III; Judge Paul C. Wilson; and our newest member – appointed last April by Governor Eric Greitens – Judge W. Brent Powell.

One of my first visits to Jefferson City was in the summer of 1985 on the way back from my honeymoon. I remember asking Julie, of the buildings we had toured – the capitol, the governor's mansion or the Supreme Court building – which one she thought I should aspire to. Luckily for my senator, Dan Hegeman, she liked the big oak doors on the ol' red brick building across the street.

What started as a joke later turned into a dream – and now I'm living the dream. I spent most of my legal career as a small business owner and solo practitioner in Atchison County, where I later served as an associate circuit judge until Governor Matt Blunt appointed me to the Supreme Court of Missouri in October 2008.

I am honored and humbled that, as chief justice of the Supreme Court, my role is to protect and advance the judiciary, and its stature as an essential branch of our state's government.

Our founding fathers foresaw the necessity of governance and the privileges and duties self-governance under our constitution would bring. As John Jay, the first chief justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, told a gathering in 1777, "The Americans are the first people whom Heaven has favored with an opportunity of deliberating upon and choosing the forms of government under which they should live."

Our chosen form of government – consisting of three coequal, co-sovereign branches – is now well-entrenched. And it is up to those of us in this room this morning, whom the citizens of Missouri have entrusted, to carry out its governance.

Core Functions of the Judicial Branch

Socrates said, only four things belong to a judge: to hear courteously, to answer wisely, to consider soberly and to decide impartially. And so we strive every day, by careful study of the facts and the law, to reach the correct result. Some would say this historical view of judging is not enough for the Supreme Court, because there are the additional obligations to ensure the court system is well-administered and one in which the public has trust and confidence.

A Well-Administered Judiciary

I am happy to report Missouri's judiciary is in good shape. We are nationally recognized as leaders. Two areas I wish to highlight today are the processes we use to determine who is qualified to practice law and our innovative use of technology.

In 2010, I recommended to my colleagues that Missouri become the first state to adopt the uniform bar examination. This innovative concept recognizes that the same bar examination given on the same date in many states generates a score that is portable to other states administering that same exam.

The uniform bar examination is not a national bar. It simply permits an applicant to transfer a bar exam score to another participating state to pursue a law license in that state without the undue delay, stress, and expense of having to retake the bar exam.

My thought was this process would substantially benefit law students – the consumers of legal education – many of whom take the bar exam before they have a job and, therefore, before they know in what state they will need a license. At the same time, states using the uniform bar examination maintain their ability to protect the public – the consumers of legal services – by retaining local control over the character and fitness investigations and the manner of testing local legal issues as conditions of earning a law license in that state.

The idea that states would accept a portable bar examination score faced resistance when it was first raised. Most innovations do.

But the Supreme Court of Missouri recognized the value of the uniform bar exam to law students, their families and their employers and became the first state to adopt it. We believed other states could be persuaded to follow suit. And we were right – as Missouri begins its eighth year administering the uniform bar examination, I proudly report another 29 jurisdictions have now joined us in using it, and we have every expectation that number will continue to rise.

Missouri courts are also continuing their tradition of innovation in technology. More than a decade ago, we became the first state to offer the public access to information from a statewide case management system using Case.net, and last summer, the Missouri Judiciary was ranked third – not nationally but internationally! – for the best use of technology to improve court services and access to the public. The award specifically focused on our new Show-Me Courts system, Track This Case tool in Case.net, Pay by Web services, and the mobile optimization of the Missouri Courts website. In case you are counting, we came in behind Arizona and Dubai.

As evidenced by this award, we remain committed to delivering exceptional services and improving public access to our courts. Each of the technology solutions for which we received accolades was designed with Missouri citizens in mind.

Regulating the practice of law, including who is qualified to begin practicing, and using technology to make our courts more open, transparent and efficient are core functions that fall within the supervisory responsibility of your Supreme Court.

We are proud of these successes and strive to improve how we perform our more familiar core functions, and we stand ready to cooperate with the legislative and executive branches in areas of overlapping concern.

I see four particular areas in which we three branches of government can continue to work together to move this great state of Missouri forward: (1) through the work of the Justice Reinvestment Task Force; (2) through the expanded use of drug treatment courts; (3) through continued emphasis on criminal justice reform; and (4) through cooperative evaluation of the efficient management of our judicial resources.

Justice Reinvestment Task Force

As I am sure you are aware, Missouri continues to face challenges in its criminal justice system. While, nationally, violent crimes are decreasing, it is not true for Missouri.

As a result, we are spending more on corrections than ever before. Our total incarceration rate remains well above the national average and is growing. We have joined with you in a call for help.

The Supreme Court joined Speaker Richardson, President Pro Tem Richard and Governor Greitens last May in seeking assistance from the United States Department of Justice's Bureau of Justice Assistance and The Pew Charitable Trust to find new ways to improve our troubled system. They granted our request for help in collecting and analyzing data to assist in developing policy options. Through this public-private partnership, we hope to keep corrections spending in check, reinvest those savings in evidence-based strategies to reduce recidivism and, ultimately, and most importantly, to enhance public safety for all Missourians.

With representatives of all three branches of government working hand-in-hand, members engaged in months of study and finished their recommendations last month. The task force is developing legislative options for you to consider. We are optimistic these changes will produce significant, sensible and meaningful improvements.

Treatment Courts and the Opioid Crisis

The second area where our work together can pay off is in the use of treatment courts to help break the cycle of crime, and to respond to the opioid crisis now plaguing Missouri and our entire nation.

Drug overdose is now the leading cause of accidental death in the United States, with the rate of overdose deaths involving opioids continuing to climb. Our state mirrors the national statistics, as opioid use disorder has taken an enormous toll on Missouri. Missouri lost 1,066 people in 2015 and 1,371 people in 2016 to a drug overdose. This is a staggering increase in deaths.

To grapple with this terrible epidemic, Missouri's treatment courts feature multidisciplinary teams offering a two-fold solution. First, they are addressing the crimes that often are due to substance use; and second, they are helping those who are addicted, and their families, improve their lives and break the cycle of addiction. We have already seen a steady increase in the number of participants entering our treatment courts who say their drug of choice is heroin or other opioids.

Like they have shown in other intersections of drugs and crime, we anticipate our treatment courts will be on the front lines of the opioid battle. By continuing to reduce drug use and keeping addicted offenders out of prison, those offenders can continue to work and provide for their families.

The success of our treatment courts has largely depended on the cooperation we have had from our partners in the legislature. If we are to break the cycle of drugs and crime, every Missourian in need should have a treatment court program within reach.

Research demonstrates treatment courts are more cost-effective than any other criminal justice strategy. But our treatment courts have been able to serve only a small percentage of individuals facing felony drug charges. Those numbers began to drop even more last July, when the 27-percent core reduction to existing programs took effect. Since then, admission into our various treatment court programs has dropped an average of 23 percent. And right now, there are 15 counties with no access to any type of treatment court. Individuals addicted to opioids and other substances in these areas are restrained by county lines they can't see.

We will work with you over the coming months to expand the reach of treatment courts in hopes of making this resource-saving, life-saving program available in every Missouri jurisdiction.

Criminal Justice Task Force

Our work together as three coequal branches of government continues to be essential to improving our criminal justice system. Last June, the Court established a task force focused broadly on criminal justice.

This group is led by Judge Michael Noble of St. Louis, Christian County Prosecutor Amy Fite and defense attorney J.R. Hobbs of Kansas City. They will recommend evidence-based risk-assessment tools for determining a defendant's suitability for pretrial release; recommend ways to improve how courts impose fines, fees and costs; and identify technological opportunities to improve notice, compliance and public safety.

These efforts are part of broader national movement away from bail release decisions based on financial conditions toward considerations of the risks posed by individual defendants. The national experts suggest there are ways to provide effective screening and supervision to monitor those defendants deemed safe for release during the pretrial period.

It seems obvious and important that – before a trial is held and guilt or innocence is determined – we reserve our jail space for those who pose the most danger to the community or risk of fleeing the jurisdiction, and not those who simply may be too poor to post bail. Studies show even short stints in jail increase the likelihood of missing school or losing jobs and housing. And, of course, pretrial supervision costs a local community substantially less than pretrial incarceration.

I will be leading a team to a pretrial justice reform summit in Indianapolis in May. We will learn about reform efforts nationwide and will have an opportunity to develop an action plan for appropriate responses here in our own state. I am pleased to announce that, in addition to our state courts administrator, Kathy Lloyd, and Montgomery County Associate Circuit Judge Kelly Broniec, joining me at the summit will be Judge Jack Goodman, presiding judge of the 39th Judicial Circuit, and Judge Rob Mayer, presiding judge of the 35th Judicial Circuit.

Both Judge Goodman and Judge Mayer are former members of this General Assembly – serving both in this house of representatives and in the senate – and they are with us today. I believe their legal education and judicial experience, coupled with practical legislative know-how, will assist the Court in deciding what reforms are good for Missouri and how to shepherd through the legislative process any changes that may require your attention. This also demonstrates I am not opposed to both my hunting dogs and my judges being “House”-trained.

Efficient Management of Court Resources

Finally, we look forward to continuing to work cooperatively with the legislative and executive branches to improve our service to the state. We have made significant strides in assessing our own internal operations to find ways to be as efficient and effective as possible.

Ten years ago, we created a “judicial partnership program” designed to help our busiest circuits work through backlogs of cases by partnering them with circuits where judges were available to help meet that demand. This, of course, was important for the citizens and businesses who needed the courts to resolve legal matters of great importance to them – and it was important for us to use our available resources as best we could to meet those needs.

This ability to temporarily transfer judges from one jurisdiction to another is an important design of our state constitution. While judges are assigned to particular local courts – by county, circuit or appellate district – article V, section 6 also provides that the Supreme Court of Missouri may assign any judge in the state to hear any particular case or serve any jurisdiction in addition to the jurisdiction that judge serves daily. As a result, whether elected by county or circuit or selected by nonpartisan commission, every associate circuit, circuit, appellate, and Supreme Court judge is an employee of Missouri and can be assigned to serve throughout the state.

The primary reason the judicial partnership program was so successful was because it was locally driven, empowering the partnered presiding judges to determine how and when to share judicial resources. I saw how well this worked first-hand. When I was a trial judge in the 4th Judicial Circuit, in the northwest corner of the state, I joined the other five judges of that five-county circuit in regularly traveling to help the 16th Judicial Circuit in Jackson County reduce its backlog of cases.

I am proud to say, last September, the judicial transfer work group dissolved the last two remaining partnerships and, with it, the formal partnership program itself. We managed our own resources so well, and the circuit partnerships had been so successful over the past decade, the backlog of cases that called for the Supreme Court’s intervention has been eliminated. Please join me in thanking the many hard-working judges who participated in the mandatory transfer program for helping to advance the timely, effective administration of justice for the people of Missouri. And because no good deed should go unpunished, I also offer an ongoing thank you to those judges who continue to accept ad hoc assignments throughout the state.

Your confidence in the judiciary by tasking us with redrawing our circuits is both appreciated and deserved. Your statutorily required realignment study and plan present a unique opportunity to pursue a data-driven evaluation of the multiple factors that impact court operations. These factors include changes in workload, population and technology; increased use of treatment and other problem-solving courts; and access to local courts. The evaluation of these factors will be critical in determining what, if any, changes in circuit boundaries and jurisdiction would enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of our courts. This evaluation is also necessary to help us understand the costs associated with any changes.

Given the complexity of this comprehensive evaluation, an order was entered in November creating the “Task Force for the Preparation of a Circuit Realignment Plan.” I will chair this task force, which includes a judge from each district of the Missouri Court of Appeals and a mix of circuit and associate circuit judges representing rural and urban courts from every part of the state.

We will deliver to you in 2020, as required, a fiscally responsible plan that will best serve the citizens and businesses of our state while ensuring equal access to our courts by those in need.

Conclusion

I was raised to believe everything works better when everybody does their own job well, but with a recognition that sometimes the big jobs require us all to work together. I look forward to assisting in this big job of governing our state, where each branch focuses on its distinct core functions first but cooperates and works together when challenges and opportunities arise.

One thing we all share is the support of those back home whom we love and who make it possible for us to come here to Jefferson City. I feel blessed to serve as the chief justice ... and I’m thankful that position is term-limited. But I feel even more blessed to be a grandfather of one, a father of four and a husband to Julie for more than 32 years.

I want to thank my local sheriff, Dennis Martin, for agreeing to drive my parents, Bob and Nancy Fischer, to be here with us today. My mother has always been my loudest and most loyal cheerleader, and so the folks back home are not surprised my mom’s first ride in the back seat of a police car was to be here this morning with me. My dad has always been my best friend. He was the best man at my wedding, and the bailiff in my court when I was a trial judge. My only regret in transitioning from the trial bench to the Supreme Court of Missouri is I miss starting each day with his coffee and our conversation.

My parents still live where I grew up, in Watson. It’s the farthest north and west town in Missouri, with a stated population of 100 on the welcome sign ... and trust me, that surely must include some livestock.

My parents’ only measurable wealth when I was growing up was the love they had in their hearts for their children. That I now humbly stand before you as chief justice is a testament to them ... and proof beyond any reasonable doubt the American Dream is alive and well in Missouri.

It has been a privilege to speak with you today. Thank you.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Kehoe.

Speaker Richardson resumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

He that doeth the will of God abideth forever. (I John 2:17)

O Eternal God, grant that in this moment of prayer and in the work of this day we may bear witness to the fact that we are Your humble children and disciples. In our relationship with each other may we be generous in our support, just in our judgments, lavish in our praise, and loyal to the best in all of us.

Give us insight into the needs of our generation, inspiration to do something about them, and the confident assurance that You are with us, sustaining us, and supporting us, as we endeavor to keep Missouri great in goodness and good in greatness.

Unite us with all who are striving to safeguard our heritage of liberty and to keep our State forever the land of the free, the home of the brave, and the place where justice, peace and goodness dwells forever.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Emma Cunningham.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Dogan in the Chair.

Prayer by Pastor Cornell Sudduth, Second Baptist Church, Jefferson City.

Lets us pray. We thank You, O God, for the life that You have granted to us, even today. Thank You for the opportunity for these men and women that serve in the state of Missouri and serve the people of this state.

We are living in troubled times all around, but we thank You, O God, that You have created us in Your image. For these men and women gathered here today, we pray that You bless them with patience, wisdom, love and understanding.

Help us, dear God, that we "sneeze" in order that we might sacrifice ourselves so that others might live.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Amen.

Ms. Sabria Hendricks performed "Lift Every Voice and Sing."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Speaker Richardson assumed the Chair.

The Journal of the sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

To this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God. (I Timothy 4:10)

O Eternal God, in this quiet cold moment we lift our hearts unto You who is the source of all our being and the goal of our noblest endeavors. We pray for strength to carry our burdens, wisdom to see through the problems we face, insight to discover what is right, and courage to walk in correct paths.

With all our hearts, we pray for our Speaker, our Minority Leader, for the Members of this House of Representatives, and all who work with them, and for our people scattered throughout this great state. By Your spirit may we learn to live together with respect for others in our minds and with charity for others in our hearts.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the seventh day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Ken Wilson.

Heavenly Father, the great architect of the Universe; we acknowledge that You are the creator of all things, and the giver of every good and perfect gift, and we are thankful.

Father in these few moments of quiet prayer we seek Your guidance and blessing as we begin our daily work. As we are united in our praying, so may we be united in our desire to work together as a body. Open our eyes that we may discern the things that You are doing in our midst. Open our ears that we may hear what You are saying to us.

We pray that Your wisdom may be with us as we prepare to do our work today. Now may we take due notice and govern ourselves accordingly. We ask these things in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the first day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Thou shalt remember all the way the Lord thy God led thee. (Deuteronomy 8:2)

Eternal God, who did lead our ancestors to these shores that they may bring forth a just and free nation, give Your grace to us their children that we may be ever mindful of Your presence and ever eager to do Your will, without whom people cannot prosper, politicians cannot reason correctly, and citizens cannot live together in peace.

Grant that by the aid of Your spirit true bipartisanship may come to new life in our Capitol, that government, industry, and labor shall faithfully serve our people, and that our citizens in a real spirit of unity shall love Missouri with undying devotion.

Bless our Governor who speaks before us this evening, make him wise with Your wisdom, strong in Your strength, good through Your goodness and may he lead us in the paths of prosperity.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sydney Welcher.

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Eric R. Greitens, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE
GOVERNOR ERIC R. GREITENS

Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Parson; Speaker Richardson and the members of the Missouri House; President Pro Tem Richard and members of the Missouri Senate; Chief Justice Fischer and judges of the Supreme Court; State officials; Members of the Cabinet; Our First Lady, and my wife, Sheena Greitens.

We have many honored guests here tonight. One who is particularly special to me is my kindergarten teacher, Anne Richardson, who is here.

I was in Mrs. Richardson's kindergarten class at McKelvey Elementary, and it was at McKelvey Elementary that I first heard the story of a boy from the town of Diamond, Missouri.

He was born over a century ago, and he was born a slave. When he was a baby, he and his mother were kidnapped. He never saw his mother again, but by God's grace, he found a loving home, and a new family that raised him as their own.

Now, at the time, no school in town would admit a black student, so his parents taught him how to read and to write. When he was older, they sent him to Neosho, about 10 miles down the road, where there was a school that opened its doors to him. He worked hard, and he did well. So well, in fact, that he was admitted to an agricultural college.

This was a tough time for American farmers. Their land was losing its richness, and no one could figure out a fix. The young man from Diamond invented new ways to grow crops. He traveled the country fixing farms, sometimes one-by-one, helping rural communities grow strong and feed more people. By some reports, he is the man who rescued American agriculture.

When George Washington Carver was born, he was considered, by many, to be property on a plantation. He became an American hero, a friend of presidents, a counselor to everyone from the Secretary of Agriculture to Mahatma Gandhi. His face was on postage stamps, and his name on a Navy submarine. He was, and he remains, one of us: a Missourian. His story is our story.

George Washington Carver passed away 75 years ago this month. As we begin our work in this time and this place, we should celebrate his life. We should remember where he started and how far he went. We Missourians know that the contributions that have counted most have often come from people who were, at one time, counted out.

I was sent here, and I believe that many of you were sent here, not to work for the connected or the comfortable, but for those who have felt counted out and forgotten. They are strong and proud, and while they may not have pull or power or privilege, they do have enormous potential. To those Missourians, I have a simple message: We have been and we will fight for you every single day.

We promised we'd fight for your jobs, and we are. The most important thing we can do for Missouri families is to make it easier for those without jobs to find them and make sure that those who have jobs keep them. Over the past year, we have devoted the energy and attention of our office to putting Missourians back to work.

Here are the results: Today, Missouri has the lowest unemployment rate it's had in 17 years. Since last March, we have outpaced the nation in job growth, and in the past year Missouri moved up nine spots in the rankings of the best states in the country to do business. There are more manufacturing jobs in our state than there were a year ago. We're putting a steel mill in Sedalia, Missouri, and we are competing for more steel mills and other plants around the state.

We are bringing good quality jobs back to Missouri. Now, we haven't fixed in one year what was broken over the course of many decades, and many Missourians still struggle. We have a lot of work left to do, but tonight, we can say: there are more jobs in Missouri than ever before, people are going back to work, and we are moving Missouri in a new and better direction.

Some of the people who need us most, who are counting on us, are the children in the Missouri foster care system, all 13,000 of them. We live in a compassionate state: there are thousands of loving families in Missouri who have opened their homes and their hearts to foster children. In fact, some foster and adoptive families are with us in the balconies this evening. Please join me in recognizing them.

A year ago, if a child in foster care needed a copy of their own birth certificate to apply for a driver's license or to get a job, they had to pay for it out of their own pocket. Today, we can proudly say they can get that birth certificate without having to give the government their money.

A year ago, a child entering our foster system may not have known their rights. This is an issue that many of you have cared about for a long time and worked on for a long time. And I was proud to join with you to sign into law a "Foster Care Bill of Rights."

Last month, Missouri officially joined the National Electronic Interstate Compact Enterprise to make adoption easier across state lines. I want to give a special thank you for her hard work on this issue to the First Lady of the State of Missouri, my wife, Sheena Greitens.

Our team has been working with members of this body on twenty legislative initiatives to help children in need. Some of these initiatives will help reform and improve Missouri's adoption system so we can get children into safe, stable, and loving homes faster. Another would help foster children get access to bank accounts so they can save their money. Together, these twenty legislative initiatives will make a meaningful difference in the lives of the children of the state of Missouri.

As many of you know, before I joined the military I worked with children in some of the world's most difficult places. I worked with children who'd lost their homes. Kids who had lost limbs to landmines. Children who'd lost their parents to violence. That work taught me that the damage done to children too often leads people to look at them as only damaged children. People see their problems and pain, but they miss their courage. They see their scars. They don't see their strength.

Every child in the Missouri foster care system has seen more than their fair share of hardship. We need to see in them their God-given potential, and we need to do everything in our power to help them to fulfill it.

Tonight, I want to ask the members of this body to do something straightforward: Put politics on hold. Set any differences you may have with one another, or with me, to the side. These are children. These are kids. There are 13,000 of them. We must love them and care for them as if they were our own, because, in law and spirit, they are. Tonight, let's join together and pledge to get this work done for the kids who need us most.

One of the most important things we can do for those kids, and for their families, and for families throughout Missouri, is to continue to bring more good jobs back to our state.

For Missouri to prosper, we need to get government off our backs. When we came into office, we looked at the burden of regulations and red tape on our farms, ranches, businesses, homes, neighborhoods, and communities. We had almost 7,000 regulations and 112,000 regulatory requirements on the books, adding up to more than seven million words in total. Here's how bad things got in Missouri: Since 2002, regulatory requirements in our state grew at a faster—yes, a faster—rate than the regulations imposed on us by bureaucrats in Washington, DC.

In Missouri, there was a regulation on the books that forced some small businesses to install and pay for a land line phone, even if they didn't want it and didn't use it. If you haul milk for a living, the government requires you to do a training. Now, it's a training that could be done online, on your own time, but because of outdated regulations, you've got to go to a meeting set up by the government to do it.

Regulations like these that waste money, waste time, are outdated and irrelevant had been building up for too long, like plaque in the arteries of Missouri's economy. These regulations cost Missourians money. They raise the prices of the things we buy. They slow down our mills, our farms, our factories, our shops. And they make government more bloated and more burdensome.

Because of this, we launched the most aggressive, most thorough, most ambitious effort to roll back unnecessary regulations in the United States. By taking a strong, thoughtful, conservative approach to government, we can tell you tonight that we are taking nearly one out of every three regulatory requirements in the state of Missouri—that's 33,000 regulatory requirements—off the books for good.

Missouri has become a leader. In fact, other states have modeled their regulatory reforms on what we are doing to increase liberty and prosperity in the state of Missouri. My team and I will continue to eliminate regulations that are unproductive and unnecessary, and, when we need legislation to roll back regulations, we will work with you.

But there is more we need to do to grow jobs in our state. Some of these we've talked about before: Making sure that we have the right laws on the books to be fair to family businesses, and making strategic investments in education, infrastructure, and workforce development. Yet one of the best investments we can make in Missouri, is also one of the most straightforward: cut taxes and put money back into the pockets of the people of Missouri.

Last year, we faced a choice: we could cut spending or raise taxes. I'm proud to say that we cut spending, and we did not raise taxes on the citizens of Missouri a single nickel.

Early next week, my team and I will lay out a detailed, thoughtful, and thorough plan to cut taxes on the hardest-working families in our state. It is the boldest state tax reform in America. And with your help, we will lower taxes for working families and make it easier for businesses to come to Missouri and create jobs. And we will do it in a way that is fiscally sound, maintains our state's triple-A credit rating, and does not burden our children with debt.

In 2018, I want this body to cut taxes for the people of Missouri, and to cut taxes for businesses that create jobs. Let's get it done.

Today, I'm proud to tell you that we continue to shrink the size of government. In fact, today the government of the state of Missouri is the smallest it's been in two decades. At the same time, we've been improving how government serves our citizens. To do this, we brought in a team of outsiders, with a clear mission: the most effective government at the lowest possible cost.

In the Department of Natural Resources, we discovered a backlog of over 2,000 permit applications that had been submitted by businesses. The backlog was decades old, and in just the last year, the Department sliced it in half. They actually found a permit that a company applied for in 1997. I'm happy to report to you tonight: it's been approved.

Not only that: they got all of this done while cutting the Department's size and spending less money, and even with a smaller and leaner department, they still managed to make sure that Missourians have the safest drinking water they've had in almost 20 years.

This type of change is happening across government. We found four planes that the government didn't need, and we sold them off. That also saved taxpayers almost $40,000 a year in maintenance, money the government was paying for planes that nobody was using. We found 30 cars the government didn't need, and we're getting rid of them. That's going to save Missourians over $500,000. Every year, the Governor's office printed thousands of pages of paper for its annual budget. And every year, many of those big books sat on shelves, unopened and collecting dust. So this year, we are putting the budget online and saving $3,601.50 in printing costs.

We pay attention to dollars, and we pay attention to cents, because we remember: every single dollar this government spends was earned by the hard work of a Missourian, and this is the people's money.

For us to save dollars and serve citizens, we need to reform state workforce laws that are decades old. Today, government can't move people to where they will help the most, can't reward people for good work, and unlike a business, it can't get rid of poor performers who fail our citizens and fail their colleagues. We need your help to build a common sense government.

Speaking of common sense, our task force did a full audit of the Boards and Commissions in Missouri's government. They were in bad shape. For example, the state of Missouri has six Child Abuse and Neglect Review Boards. These Boards do important work to protect children across the state of Missouri. Four of the six them weren't able to hear cases because they didn't have enough members to meet. We fixed this. Now they'll be able to get to work to protect our kids.

To serve citizens well, government needs to do fewer things and do them better. For years, people have complained that Missouri government is chock full of redundant and unnecessary and wasteful Boards and Commissions. So our task force did a careful review—Board by Board, Commission by Commission—and recommended the elimination of hundreds of unnecessary government positions. Senator Riddle has introduced a bill that reflects these recommendations, and I urge this body to pass that bill.

That's how we make government smaller and better. We must also make sure that our public servants serve in the public's interest. We need to slam shut the door between the legislature and lobbyists, and we need to pass term limits for every state-wide office holder.

In my very first action as Governor, I signed an executive order banning gifts from lobbyists to state employees of the executive branch. A bill that would have done the same thing in the legislature passed the House last year. Thank you to Speaker Richardson and the Representatives who voted for it last year and who already took action on it again this year.

Last year, the bill stalled in the Senate. This year, both bodies need to get together and pass a ban on gifts from lobbyists to the legislature. But in the meantime, I have a simple request: I call on every member of the legislature to join me in a pledge not to accept any gift from lobbyists. Let's get this done for the people of Missouri.

We promised the people of Missouri that we would support our law enforcement officers and first responders, and that's what we've done.

There's an officer who, tonight, will step into the cold to keep Missourians safe. The wife of one police officer told our team that, when he leaves for the night, she can't be sure that he's home safe until she hears the Velcro of his body armor being taken off. This is what our law enforcement families experience every day.

Last year, some of our law enforcement officers gave their lives in the line of duty. Others were wounded. Last month, I visited the bedside of Officer Ryan O'Connor after a criminal shot him in the back of the head. The day we went to visit him, as he was lying in a hospital bed just a few feet away, Officer O'Connor's 17-year-old son, Aiden, told me that, like his grandfather and his father, he too wanted to be a police officer.

Aiden, we want you and young people across the state of Missouri to know that serving your community as a police officer is a proud and noble profession. We're proud of you.

Last year, together with this body, we passed and signed Blue Alert legislation into law to help bring to justice and strengthen the penalties for anyone who attacks or injures a law enforcement officer. This year, we need to pass legislation that protects the health, safety, and well-being of our firefighters, police officers, and other first responders.

Some of these issues we've talked about before. One issue I want to raise tonight is the harassment of police officers. Today, in Missouri, radicals can file liens against a police officer's house. They can do this in secret, and it can affect the credit of our police officers and their families, costing them thousands of dollars. It's harassment, and it needs to stop. On behalf of law enforcement officers throughout our state, I'd ask this body to pass a clean version of legislation that protects them from this type of harassment.

Tonight, I want to let the police officers of this state know: your Governor, your fellow citizens, and the vast majority of your elected representatives, we have your back.

We're also working to build the finest National Guard in the country, and I'm proud to say that we were able to add 800 National Guard jobs this past year. We want Missouri to be the best state in the country for veterans and military families.

We have members of the armed forces who get orders to come to Missouri to serve in places like Whiteman Air Force base and Ft. Leonard Wood. Today, what makes it hard for some of them is that if their spouse is licensed to work in another state, Missouri may not recognize those licenses. That means if your spouse has a career in dentistry in Tennessee and your family is moved to Whiteman Air Force base, they may not be able to work here in Missouri. That needs to change. We need to grant full reciprocity of licenses obtained in other states to military members, veterans, and their spouses.

And there is more. Right now, in the state of Missouri, a small business owner who declares that he or she wants to hire veterans can be sued. That's right: if you say that you prefer to hire veterans, you could face a lawsuit. That's wrong. This legislature needs to pass a bill allowing employers to establish a veterans hiring preference. Most states in our country have done this. It's time for Missouri to do the same.

I had the honor of visiting with the men and women of Missouri's National Guard when they were serving overseas with US Central Command. The men and women from 1st Battalion, 138th Infantry Regiment, are home now, and I wanted all of you who are here today to be able to say to them: Welcome home, and we're proud of you. They're with us tonight, and I'd ask them to stand.

We promised the people of Missouri that we would fight for them. We have, and we will. We promised the people of Missouri we would do different. We have, and we will. We promised the people of Missouri that we would fight for the least among us, the counted out, and the forgotten. We have, and we will.

Tonight, we can look back with pride and look forward with confidence. We have come far in a year, and though we have a long way to go, the state of our state today reflects what the state of our people has always been: Missouri is strong, and she is getting stronger.

Thank you very much. God bless you, and God bless the people of Missouri.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Kehoe.

Speaker Richardson resumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. (Psalm 121:1)

O Lord, Our God, take our impatient spirits into Your patient hands and breathe into us the power and the peace of Your presence. Lift us above the clamor which is about us and the confusion which is around us and lead us in to the high hills from where our help for the present and our hope for the future comes. O spirit of the living God make Yourself very real to us as we pray.

Unto Your loving care we commit our State. Make us worthy of the sacrifices which established on this soil a free people. Save us from the folly of our own foolishness and by strong character, great integrity, and steadfast faith may our state and its legislature become a real blessing to our country and our citizens.

Finally, grant us favorable weather and safety to all who travel today.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 2018

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Whosoever heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them, will be like a wise man who built his house upon a rock.
Matthew 7:24

Eternal God, who are the refuge of the humble and the strength of the faithful, help us to realize more than ever that the only firm foundation upon which Missouri can build safely is a true faith in You and in a sincere devotion to moral and spiritual values.

May the security of our way of life, the survival of our political spirit, and the support of our free institutions find inspiration in the assurance of Your power, Your wisdom, and Your love.

Each day of this new session may we keep ourselves committed to You whose love never falters, whose light never fades, and whose life never fails. Thus may we face this exciting first day with courage and faith knowing You are with us always and all the way as we debate labor laws, taxes, ethics, education, medical issues, and other serious matters that are important to our citizens and our future.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Missouri State Highway Patrol, Troop F Color Guard, presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER TODD RICHARDSON

Good afternoon and welcome back.

It is always special for me to be able to share these moments with the people most important to me – my family - my mother Kathy, who has always been and always will be my biggest fan, and my father Mark, whose service in this chamber inspired me with an unwavering sense that good people in public office make a difference. They are here today and I ask that you make them feel welcome.

My son Sawyer and daughter Briley are here today. They are still the reason I do this, and I ask that you help me welcome them today.

Most importantly – my wife Amber. I could not ask for a better friend, or partner. Every step of this journey we’ve done together and for that I’m incredibly grateful.

It’s hard to believe that six years have gone by since I sat in this chamber as a first-term legislator and listened to Speaker Steve Tilley give his final opening day address. It’s a moment I will never forget because he did something with his comments that is pretty rare in this building.

That day he turned his focus away from the policy and the politics, and instead placed it firmly on what really matters – the people. Not just the people we’re here to represent, but also each of us as individuals, and the relationships and friendships we form as we serve together.

I think about his words today in relation to the incredible bonds I have forged with the folks from my legislative class, which now finds itself in its final months of service in this chamber.

We came in together seven years ago from all parts of the state and all walks of life. They talk about people from humble origins being able to accomplish great things, and I think that description fits our class of legislators perfectly.

Whether it’s a retired educator from Ripley County; a pest control expert from rural Cole; a former Marine Corps Sergeant from Franklin County; or a dental hygienist from Cape Girardeau - as a class we brought together everyday people from all over the state, many of whom shared little in common, but a strong desire to make Missouri a better place.

And it’s important to understand these friendships extend beyond party lines as well. I look at the Minority Floor Leader, the Lady from Jackson, who is also part of the group I began my career with, and whose strength and resolve I have admired since the day I met her. We may have many issues where we disagree, but at the end of the day we will still be friends who are united in our service to the people of Missouri.

And that’s how we find ourselves here together; farmers, teachers, and business owners; attorneys, doctors, and officers of the law; Republicans and Democrats - just regular Missourians with the desire to make a difference, and the belief that we can be an effective voice for the diverse population of Missouri we were elected to represent.

It is a blessing to be able to stand in this chamber today among friends.

I look at all of you, and particularly the amazing group I started my legislative career with, and I realize that we have forged relationships that will last a lifetime.

I know your families, and you know mine. We have spent countless hours not only working together, but also serving as sources of comfort and support when life's challenges have threatened to overwhelm us. It's this comfort and support we share now with the Lady from St. Louis County who unfortunately cannot be with us today.

This job demands long hours away from our family and our friends, and that inevitably leads us to form our own sense of community and family right here in the Capitol. These are bonds that will persist long after the policy discussions have ended, and the partisan bickering has ceased. These are the relationships that will have meaning and substance as we move into the next chapters of our lives.

For that, I thank each and every one of you - for your friendship, and for the service you are providing to our great state.

Let me be clear about this: I am proud to serve in a chamber filled with individuals who are here for the right reasons and here to work hard for their constituents and their state. We all came here with a goal to leave this building a better place than we found it. And clearly that same idea applies to our state and the things we do to improve it.

I'm proud of the fact we have a group of citizen legislators who have taken that duty seriously, and who have given their time and energy to tackle the issues that mean so much to Missouri families and businesses.

We've seen the Lady from Camden and others devote their careers to protecting the lives of the innocent unborn. We've given our support to the Gentleman from Audrain as he has fought relentlessly to promote and support agriculture and our family farmers. And most of the time, we've all listened a little more intently as the Gentlemen from urban Cole and the Gentlemen from St. Francois have challenged our conventional thinking on the issues of great importance we've considered.

Now these are just a few examples of those of you who have worked so hard for so long to make a difference. And the thing I take the greatest pride in is that, during my seven years here, we have helped take some truly monumental steps forward for our state.

Together we've given Missouri families their first income tax cut in nearly a century. We've made it clear our state is open for business by passing Right-to-Work; by making our legal environment fairer for both employees and employers; and by taking steps to eliminate red tape that would otherwise stifle growth and innovation.

We've fought for the core values that are important to Missouri families by giving their children better opportunities to have the kind of educational experience that will prepare them for success; we've done it by promoting pro-life policies that protect the lives of the innocent unborn and the health of the mother; and we've done it by defending and strengthening the gun ownership rights of law-abiding Missourians.

We've also worked together to create higher ethical standards to raise the level of accountability and trust in our own workplace. We've worked to strengthen the integrity of our democratic process by ensuring that our elections are fair and accurate. And we've said unequivocally, in our state, the brave men and women who keep us safe will have our support.

These are things we have done together - substantive changes that allow us to leave our state in a better place than where we found it.

And while we have certainly had our disagreements along the way, we have continued to find common ground, and to have the kind of civil discourse that the people expect and deserve from a citizen legislature.

As I prepare to leave this place behind, it's a point of pride for me that we have observed and honored the decorum that is expected within this chamber. Yes, things can get heated at times, but we have continued to respect one another, and to find ways to work together even when we have fundamental disagreements on the best path to achieve our goal of creating a better Missouri.

In a day where we too often see how divisive and contentious politics can be at the federal level, I think it's noteworthy that we have repeatedly found ways to come together in spite of our differences.

I'm equally proud of the work we have done together to improve the culture here within this building. I know we have a group of remarkable legislators, and even better people. You are men and women who care about one another, and respect each and every employee and intern in this building.

Despite this, the people of our state had lost their trust in us, and many of us felt a disconnect between the honorable service of our colleagues and the public perception of our work. But we worked together and, I believe, have made permanent improvements in the way this chamber operates and the way in which it is perceived. For that, I am extremely proud.

It will be an ongoing effort though to maintain the kind of environment the people who work in, and visit, this building deserve. The same can be said for the work we do with the legislation we support and pass. We've done great things together in the years I have served here, and I think it's fair to say we will leave this chamber and this state in better shape than where we found them.

But our work isn't finished, and it won't be finished at the end of this session. Our goal has always been, and always should be, to make our great state even greater.

That is why it is critical for those of us in our final session, and for those who will pick up the torch when we are gone, to make it our focus in everything we do to leave this state a better place than we found it.

We have work to do so that not only those of us at the end of our time of service in this body, but all of us can look back and remember that in the 2018 session - we once again raised the standard of integrity for ourselves by continuing to pass impactful ethics reform, and increasing the level of trust and accountability between the citizens and their citizen legislators.

We want to be able to look back at 2018 as the session in which we once again stood up for Missourians' economic opportunities; where we once again stood up for the working families across this state, so that they and future generations can look forward to a more prosperous Missouri.

We have work to do so that we can remember this session as one which led to greater freedom for young Missourians seeking the education that will serve them best; that we make this state a place where everyone has the opportunity to build a great life for themselves no matter where they were born or what their parents did for a living.

Too many people in our state must now fight through unfair and cumbersome regulations to offer a simple service such as braiding hair to provide for themselves and their families. We will be able to recall the work we did this session to break down barriers for those Missourians who would bring innovation and economic opportunity to our state.

And finally, we will be able to look back on this 2018 legislative session as the year we restored these dark and dusty corners of the American dream to their original glory; that each of us has the right and the opportunity to live life to the fullest, to enjoy true liberty, to pursue happiness and prosperity; and that nowhere will that be more true than in our great home state of Missouri.

This is the work we have ahead of us. In the months to come we will no doubt have many debates on these issues. We will at times be in fierce disagreement with each other. This is the democratic process that each of us serves.

We who are called to faithfully represent and defend those who send us here will, by the nature of the diversity of thought in our state, have to work through opposition. But while we may see different paths to prosperity, may we remember that none of us work against the others, but through our debate and discussion, we are working together to provide solutions for the people of Missouri we are called to represent.

Now let us join together in service and good faith for the people of Missouri, so that each distinguished member of this House can one day look back during his or her final session and say that this chamber, this government, and our great state are better off than ever before.

Pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo, the Bill of Rights was read by Marilyn Seaton, Senior Legislative Specialist, Office of the Assistant Chief Clerk.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Eric R. Greitens, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that, through the first quarter of fiscal year 2018, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2018 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the first quarter of fiscal year 2018, I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2018 budget.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Special Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, JUNE 11, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

May the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all men. (I Thessalonians 3:12)

Almighty and glorious God, very conscious of our obligations to the historic past, aware of the many positive opportunities of the present, and with faith in a beautiful, amazing future, we humbly join our citizens in the affirmation – “The will of the people is the highest law.”

O God, You have been amazingly generous to us and we are grateful. Your spirit has led us! Your hand has supported us, and Your love has filled our hearts with love. Make us one with You, we pray, as we face the duties of our future together.

Bless our new Governor, his family and staff, as they embark on a new and dedicated role of service to our citizens. Give them peace, comfort and security plus quiet!

Finally, may we lift high the banner of freedom, strengthen the arms of justice, build bridges between people and classes, and keep ourselves ever mindful of Your presence and ready to do Your will.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

VACANCIES: 003

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Michael L. Parson, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor assumed the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR MICHAEL L. PARSON

Thank you, Speaker Richardson, President Pro Tem Richard, and members of the Missouri House and Senate.

First, let me start by introducing my wife Teresa to you. I'm so proud to recognize her as the First Lady of the State of Missouri. She is a blessing to all of us.

I stand before you at a difficult time for our state.

During this time, we have witnessed politics at its worst and at its best. We have been divided, and we have been united. Missouri has risen to the occasion, as we always do.

Today is a time for a fresh start for our state and to recommit ourselves—each and every one of us, including you in the galleries—we must work together for a better Missouri!

We faced difficult truths; we made tough decisions; we persevered because our institutions are strong, and the people of Missouri are stronger.

Over the last 200 years, more than 7,000 Missourians have been elected to a state legislative or constitutional office.

These were honorable men and women—people just like you and me—who temporarily put aside their personal obligations, travelled to the seat of government, and took an oath to do the people’s business.

And like so many of you, most were not looking to build a career. They were not here for fame or glory or notoriety. They placed their names on the ballot, staked out positions on issues, endured the inevitable attacks that come with campaigning, and walked into this building because they were called to be a public servant.

We stand here today in a long legacy of citizen patriots from across the state of Missouri who have answered the call of duty—and we salute their service!

One hundred years ago, the governor’s mansion and the seats in this chamber were occupied by people whose names most of us don’t remember.

And one hundred years from now, long after each of us has departed from this earth, these seats will continue to exist, held by men and women whose grandparents have not even been born.

Make no mistake: the offices we now hold are far bigger than any one of us.

Future Missourians may look back at the journals of the House or the Senate from this legislative session, and they will see our names. They will know our party affiliations. They will see the votes we cast. But none of these things will define who we are.

The responsibility of our jobs was given to us by our forefathers by passing down the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights.

Our job—the job of each and every one of us—is to continue that tradition, which is the framework to be able to live the American Dream and ensure it exists for the next generation. And our job is also to honor the memory of those who have come before, and to applaud those yet to come who will leave their permanent mark on our great state of Missouri.

What we must ask ourselves: Have we been respectful to our constituents, to our colleagues, and to our state? Have we acted morally and ethically? Have we honored the people of our great state who sent us here? How we answer these questions will define who we are.

For many of you, this will be the first and last office you ever hold—but what you do during your brief time matters. It matters to the student and the teacher. It matters to the truck driver and the small business owner. It matters to the police officer and the prisoner. It matters to the worker and the employer. It matters to the nurse and the farmer. But it’s not just the votes you cast or the bills that are signed; it’s how we respect the institution that has temporarily been entrusted to our care.

We are expected to debate passionately for what we believe—but we must be careful not to erode the public’s trust in our system of government for short-term personal gain.

The government our forefathers established makes us unique in the world and sets America apart as a shining city on the hill!

We should expect criticism and understand that some of it is unfair—but we must always take responsibility for our own actions.

Most of all, we must always remember that we serve the people and the state of Missouri—not the other way around.

Sadly, much of the political turmoil that has engulfed our state is a result of these truths being forgotten.

When the public’s trust is violated, we are obligated to act.

Over the past few months, I have been impressed by the care, prudence, and professionalism you have shown as you have sought the truth.

I am in awe, once again, of the fortitude of our state's institutions.

But our institutions are only as strong as the people who serve them—and the great State of Missouri is better because of your service.

Today, in this chamber, we have the opportunity for a fresh start. To elevate the tone of our political discourse. To recommit ourselves to the values that made our system of government the envy of the world.

This does not mean disregarding our beliefs or moderating our positions. It means debating with respect. It means conducting ourselves with integrity. It means unifying around the idea that—no matter which party we belong to—each of us is here for the same reason: to make Missouri... a better place.

Too many people have come to believe that dysfunction and inaction are the normal conditions of government.

But over the past few months, you—the members of the Missouri General Assembly—have proven that effective leadership is possible. Among you, there are profound disagreements, yet throughout the legislative session, you respected each other, you respected the process, and you respected the people of this state. And in the midst of political strife, you debated and argued passionately for issues you cared about.

Not long ago you completed one of the most historic legislative sessions in recent memory. Not enough has been said about it. Your many legislative achievements include significant tax reform for Missourians, record education funding for our students, government union reform, a responsible, balanced budget, and many other reforms that made government smaller, more efficient, and more effective for Missourians.

This is how government should work, and this is the people's government and we—all of us in this room—can ensure that it continues to work in the years ahead.

As we move forward, together, I pledge that I will spend every day working to make our state stronger and more prosperous. I promise that the welfare of the people will be my guiding principle and sole consideration. And I will never forget—never forget—that public service is—first and foremost—about serving Missourians.

I hope that each of you will join me.

During this time, I am reminded by a passage in Philippians 2:3-4, “Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility... count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interest, but also to the interests of others.”

With your prayers—and the prayers of millions of Missourians—for me and my family, for all of our political leaders, and for our state, I am confident that our wounds will heal and the bonds that bind us together as Missourians will strengthen. And now more than ever, I am optimistic that we will move forward, as President Abraham Lincoln urged in the closing days of the Civil War, “with malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on... to finish the work we are in... to bind up the nation's wounds.”

May God bless you...and may God bless the great state of Missouri!

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Kehoe.

Speaker Richardson resumed the Chair.

To our Speaker and to all who share with him the great responsibilities of making the difficult decisions and tough choices for our state, grant spiritual strength, wise counsel, and an unshakeable faith that they may continue to lead our people toward the higher goals of peace, truth and justice for all, now and forever.

Representatives Barnes (60) and Mitten offered House Resolution No. 2.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, on February 27, 2018, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appointed the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight; and

WHEREAS, on March 1, 2018, the House of Representatives unanimously adopted House Resolution 5565, which authorized the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight to investigate allegations against Governor Eric R. Greitens and report back to the House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, on April 11, 2018, the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight submitted a report of its findings relating to such investigation. On April 30, 2018, such committee submitted a supplement to its first report. On May 2, 2018, such committee submitted a second report of its findings relating to such investigation; and

WHEREAS, under the authority given in Section 18, Article III of the Constitution of Missouri, the House of Representatives adopted rules of procedure for the hearings and investigations of the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight in House Resolution 5565:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-ninth General Assembly, First Special Session of the Second Regular Session, pursuant to House Rule 64(3), hereby authorize the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight to recommend disciplinary actions including, but not limited to, remonstrance or censure or introduce upon report articles of impeachment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight shall consist of ten members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, not more than seven members being from the same political party; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Rules of the House of Representatives, Ninety-ninth General Assembly, and the following rules shall apply during the second regular session and any special session of the Ninety-ninth General Assembly, as appropriate:

RULE 1

Any hearings upon such issue shall be commenced at such time and place as determined by the chair. A recess may be requested by any member of the committee. Adjournments shall be determined by the chair. The special committee shall be allowed to meet or conduct hearings during the session of the House of Representatives without requesting leave of the House of Representatives.

RULE 2

Any hearings shall be open to the public and press, except that the committee, upon a majority vote, may close all or a portion of such hearings to hear the testimony of certain witnesses, review evidence, or for purposes of meeting with committee counsel. Counsel for the Governor shall be allowed to attend any closed hearings involving the testimony of witnesses. At the conclusion of the investigation, the committee shall prepare a transcript of the hearings, except that the committee, upon a majority vote, may order that the identity of certain witnesses, certain testimony, or certain evidence be redacted, blurred, or obfuscated in a manner to protect the identity or privacy of any witness. At the conclusion of the investigation, the committee shall make a copy of all committee records available to any member of the House of Representatives, except that the committee, upon a majority vote, may order that the identity of certain witnesses, certain testimony, or certain evidence be redacted, blurred, or obfuscated in a manner to protect the identity or privacy of any witness. All public hearings shall be recorded and live-streamed on the website of the House of Representatives. The chair shall determine the extent and the manner in which cameras or other audio or visual recording devices and ancillary lighting and electrical equipment shall be allowed at such hearings.

RULE 3

Only appointed members of the special committee may question witnesses.

RULE 4

Only persons called as witnesses by the special committee may testify as witnesses. Any person called as a witness, or his or her legal counsel, may file a sworn written statement relevant to the purpose, subject matter, and scope of the committee's proceedings. Any other person desiring to testify as a witness may petition the committee for permission to testify by presenting a written statement of the substance of the proposed testimony to the chair at least twenty-four hours prior to the testimony. The committee, upon a majority vote, shall have discretion of whether to allow such person to testify as a witness.

RULE 5

All witnesses shall testify under the following oath, which shall be administered by the chair:

"Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you shall give in the hearing now pending before this committee shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?"

RULE 6

Formal rules of evidence shall not apply to the hearings. The committee may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of any paper or document, enforce obedience of its orders, preserve order, and punish in a summary way contempt of and disobedience to its authority. The sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, under direction of the committee, shall execute the lawful orders of the committee and may employ such aid and assistance as may be necessary to carry out and enforce such orders.

RULE 7

Subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses and subpoenas duces tecum for the production of any paper or document shall be issued by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, upon request of the committee, in the manner prescribed by law. A subpoena or subpoena duces tecum may be enforced by statutory or common law, or by applying to a judge of the circuit court of Cole County for an order to show cause why the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum should not be enforced.

RULE 8

The chair shall preside over the hearings and shall rule on all questions regarding decorum and procedure. The committee, upon a majority vote, shall rule on all questions regarding the admission or rejection of testimony. The chair may request assistance from any law enforcement agency to maintain order at the hearings and in the hallways and spaces adjoining the hearing area. The chair shall rule on any appropriate matter not covered by these rules.

RULE 9

Each witness has the right to legal counsel and the right to be accompanied by such counsel. No witness or his or her counsel shall be admitted to the room in which the hearing is being conducted until such person is called by the committee for such person's testimony.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that notice shall be provided to the public at least twenty-four hours in advance of all hearings of the committee and shall contain the time, location, and subject matter of the hearing. Such notice shall include the identity of any witness whose testimony may be offered. Under exigent circumstances and upon a majority vote of the committee, notice of the identity of a witness may be given less than twenty-four hours in advance; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if any documentary evidence is to be offered at any hearing, copies thereof shall be made available to the members of the committee at least twenty-four hours in advance of such hearing unless good cause is shown for later disclosure; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Criminal Procedure shall not apply to hearings conducted by the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight or during the consideration of any findings and recommendations of the committee by the House of Representatives; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, after all evidence has been presented and all witnesses have been heard, in the discretion of the chairman, counsel for interested parties shall be allowed to make presentations, both orally or in writing, to the committee, subject to reasonable time limitations as determined by the chairman; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight recommends that disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment be considered, such committee shall hold at least one public hearing to consider disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment prior to introducing such upon report. A draft of any disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment shall be distributed by the chairman to all members of the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight at least twenty-four hours and one legislative day prior to such public hearing; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, pursuant to House Rule 64(3), any disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment introduced upon report by the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight shall be read by title on three separate days and may be considered by the House of Representatives without referral to committee. Any such disciplinary actions or articles shall lay on the calendar for one legislative day prior to being read a third time; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall designate two members of the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight as floor handlers, one from the majority party of the House of Representatives and one from the minority party of the House of Representatives, who shall present the results of the investigation of the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight and any disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment to the House of Representatives. Such presentation shall not count against the time limitations of either party; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that there shall be a ten-hour limitation on the total time of floor debate allowed for the purpose of discussing the findings of the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight and considering any disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment. Such time shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, the majority floor leader and the minority floor leader, or their designees. The majority party floor handler shall have the right to the final ten minutes of designated time. If time has been allocated and unused by either side after all disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment have been considered and no member from that side is seeking recognition to further discuss any disciplinary action or article of impeachment, the Speaker may declare additional time waived and recognize the members from the other side to complete the use of their time. No member, other than the floor handlers, shall be allowed to speak or inquire longer than the Rules of the House of Representatives otherwise allow. For speaking purposes, each disciplinary action or article shall be treated as a separate question; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that no motion to recommit any disciplinary action or article of impeachment shall be in order; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if the House of Representatives is satisfied that there is good cause to impeach or otherwise discipline Governor Eric R. Greitens, the disciplinary actions or articles of impeachment drafted by the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight shall be immediately considered, amended, and approved; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each disciplinary action or article of impeachment shall be considered and amended individually and shall be considered approved upon a vote of those members elected, pursuant to Section 27, Article III of the Constitution of Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any articles of impeachment approved by the House of Representatives shall be delivered by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Senate, pursuant to sections 106.040 and 106.080, RSMo, for consideration by the special commission of seven eminent jurists elected by the Senate pursuant to Section 2, Article VII of the Constitution of Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if the House of Representatives adopts any articles of impeachment, the House of Representatives shall elect two managers to prosecute the impeachment pursuant to section 106.040, RSMo, one from the majority party and one from the minority party. The special counsel for the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight shall, under the direction of the managers, present and prosecute the articles of impeachment adopted by the House of Representatives before the jurists elected by the Senate to final conclusion.
